

$$2 + 1$$

$$2 + 1 =$$

$$1. 2 -$$

$$2. 1 -$$

$$3. .$$

$$4. .$$

$$5. .$$

$$6. .$$

$$7. - /$$

1 — 2 ()

1948 . . . /
; .

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1	gadget	n.	A small mechanical or electronic tool useful for tasks.
2	device	n.	A portable electronic gadget capable of connecting online.
3	mechanical	adj.	Powered by machinery or an engine for performing tasks.
4	ingenious	adj.	Very clever, inventive, and effective due to creativity.
5	intuitive	adj.	Easily understood or learned without extensive explanation.
6	latest	adj.	Occurring, created, or updated most recently in time.
7	obsolete	adj.	Outdated, no longer in style or current use.
8	outdated	adj.	No longer matching current trends or technological standards.
9	novel	adj.	New and unlike anything previously seen or known.
10	power	v.	To supply energy or electricity necessary for operation.
11	charge	v.	To fill a battery or device with electrical energy.
12	recharge	v.	To refill an electronic device with power again.
13	drain	v.	To gradually or fully use up available resources.
14	boot	v.	To start a computer by initializing its hardware systems.
15	start up	v.	To begin operating an electronic device or machine.
16	shut down	v.	To make a machine or device stop functioning.
17	battery	n.	A device converting chemical energy into electrical power.
18	capacity	n.	The maximum quantity or volume a machine can produce.
19	signal	n.	A series of waves transmitting data or information remotely.
20	generation	n.	A distinct class or step in technological development.
21	process	n.	An occurrence of a program actively running on a computer.
22	charger	n.	A device used to refill batteries with electrical energy.
23	screen	n.	A display showing visual data on a monitor or device.
24	controller	n.	Equipment used to operate or direct a machine's functions.
25	control panel	n.	A flat interface displaying controls for a machine or device.
26	magnifying glass	n.	Glass object making small items appear larger for viewing.
27	compass	n.	A device with a needle always pointing toward geographic north.
28	drone	n.	A pilotless flying vehicle controlled remotely from a distance.
29	cutting-edge	adj.	Featuring the latest and most advanced technological design.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
30	off	adj.	In a state of not operating or currently nonfunctional.
31	touchscreen	n.	Display allowing interaction by touching its visible surface.
32	breed	n.	A particular type of animal or plant domesticated.
33	breed	v.	To produce offspring suitable for humans or breeding.
34	cage	n.	A framework of metal bars or wires for animals.
35	species	n.	A group capable of producing healthy offspring together.
36	territory	n.	An area occupied and defended by a single animal.
37	polar bear	n.	A large white bear adapted to icy northern environments.
38	owl	n.	A nocturnal bird with large eyes and rounded face.
39	ape	n.	A tailless primate similar to monkeys like gorillas.
40	cheetah	n.	A large cat capable of running extremely fast.
41	leopard	n.	A wild cat with yellow fur and black spots.
42	puppy	n.	A young dog less than a year old.
43	reindeer	n.	A deer with large antlers living in cold regions.
44	squirrel	n.	A furry tree-dwelling animal feeding on nuts and seeds.
45	tortoise	n.	A slow-moving land turtle with a hard protective shell.
46	feather	n.	Any light and soft covering on a bird's body.
47	paw	n.	An animal's foot with claws, nails, pads, and fur.
48	venom	n.	Toxic substance secreted by some animals for defense.
49	bark	v.	To make a short, loud, and typical dog sound.
50	chain	v.	To secure something using a series of connected links.
51	lay	v.	To produce eggs, typically by birds, fish, or insects.
52	mate	v.	To copulate for reproduction or breeding purposes.
53	pack	n.	A group of animals living or hunting together.
54	domestic	adj.	Capable of living with humans as pets or farm animals.
55	extinct	adj.	No longer existing in the world or living environment.
56	mammal	n.	A warm-blooded animal with hair, producing milk.
57	reptile	n.	Cold-blooded animal with scales like lizards and crocodiles.
58	trap	v.	To capture an animal using a device or mechanism.
59	wildlife	n.	All wild animals living in their natural environment.
60	apron	n.	A piece of clothing tied around waist for protection.
61	badge	n.	A small item showing membership in an organization.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
62	bathrobe	n.	Long garment worn before or after bathing for comfort.
63	bikini	n.	A two-piece swimsuit worn primarily by women at beaches.
64	cardigan	n.	Woolen jacket with buttons or zipper on the front.
65	helmet	n.	Hard protective hat worn by soldiers, bikers, or workers.
66	mask	n.	A covering worn on face to hide identity or expression.
67	masquerade	n.	Special outfit with a mask worn at festive parties.
68	miniskirt	n.	A very short skirt often symbolizing youthfulness.
69	jersey	n.	Woolen or cotton long-sleeved top without buttons.
70	sandal	n.	Open shoe with straps fastening foot to sole.
71	vest	n.	Sleeveless garment worn under a jacket or shirt.
72	fabric	n.	Cloth made by weaving yarns used for making clothes.
73	denim	n.	Jeans or clothing made from sturdy woven cotton.
74	lace	n.	Delicate cloth made by weaving threads in pattern.
75	lining	n.	Fabric covering inside surface of clothing for protection.
76	silk	n.	Smooth soft fabric made from silkworm threads.
77	hood	n.	Part of coat covering head while leaving face open.
78	zipper	n.	Fastening with interlocking teeth for closing clothing or bags.
79	collection	n.	Series of new clothes designed by fashion house.
80	costume	n.	Popular fashion including clothes, hairstyle, or appearance.
81	designer	n.	Person who professionally creates clothes or fashion items.
82	modeling	n.	Profession of wearing clothes to present them publicly.
83	outfit	n.	A set of clothes worn together for a specific occasion.
84	wardrobe	n.	The complete collection of clothes owned by someone.
85	dress up	v.	To wear formal clothes for special events or occasions.
86	match	v.	To have similar color or pattern with another object.
87	casual	adj.	Comfortable clothing suitable for everyday informal use.
88	glamorous	adj.	Stylish, attractive, often associated with luxury.
89	matching	adj.	Having similar patterns, colors, or complementary design.
90	plain	adj.	Simple in design, without pattern or decoration.
91	sporty	adj.	Clothing suitable for sports or athletic activities.
92	striped	adj.	Featuring a pattern of parallel straight lines.
93	stylish	adj.	Fashionable and visually appealing in appearance.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
94	undressed	adj.	Not wearing any clothes on the body.
95	wooly	adj.	Covered in or made from wool for warmth or texture.
96	affair	n.	A sexual relationship involving at least one committed partner.
97	bond	n.	A relationship based on shared experiences or emotions.
98	household	n.	All people living together considered a social unit.
99	divorce	n.	The legal act of ending a marriage officially.
100	divorce	v.	To legally terminate a marriage between two people.
101	lineage	n.	The line of descendants originating from a specific individual.
102	ancestor	n.	A blood relative living generations before one's grandparents.
103	ex	n.	A person previously married to or in a relationship with.
104	folks	n.	One's parents or family members in general.
105	foster parent	n.	A person raising someone else's child without legal parenthood.
106	in-law	n.	A person related through marriage rather than blood.
107	sibling	n.	One's brother or sister in a family.
108	stepbrother	n.	Son of one's step-parent from a previous relationship.
109	stepchild	n.	Child of one's spouse from a prior marriage.
110	stepdaughter	n.	Daughter of one's spouse from an earlier relationship.
111	stepfather	n.	Man married to one's parent but not one's biological father.
112	stepmother	n.	Woman married to one's parent but not one's biological mother.
113	stepsister	n.	Daughter of one's step-parent from a previous relationship.
114	stepson	n.	Son of one's spouse from a past relationship.
115	separation	n.	State in which a couple lives apart while still married.
116	adoption	n.	Legal act of raising someone else's child as one's own.
117	brotherly	adj.	Showing love or care like that expected from a brother.
118	close-knit	adj.	A group having strong bonds and shared common interests.
119	adopt	v.	To take a child into one's family legally as parent.
120	cheat on	v.	To secretly engage in a romantic or sexual relationship.
121	inherit	v.	To receive property, money, or assets from someone deceased.
122	stand by	v.	To remain loyal or supportive of someone during difficulty.
123	take after	v.	To resemble an older family member in appearance or behavior.
124	sing sb to sleep	phr.	To sing softly to help someone fall asleep naturally.
125	closely related	phr.	Having a near blood relationship within the family line.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
126	artwork	n.	Drawings, photographs, or pictures prepared for publication.
127	background	n.	The part behind main figures in an image or scene.
128	foreground	n.	The part closest to the observer in a scene.
129	collector	n.	A person who gathers items professionally or as hobby.
130	masterpiece	n.	A work of art demonstrating exceptional skill by artist.
131	exhibit	n.	A public event showing paintings, photographs, or objects.
132	image	n.	Representation of a person or object, often in art.
133	landscape	n.	Artistic depiction of natural scenery or environment.
134	self-portrait	n.	A painting of a person created by that same person.
135	subject matter	n.	The specific theme or topic of a work of art.
136	shade	n.	Variation of a color including lighter or darker versions.
137	ink	n.	Colored or black liquid used for drawing or writing.
138	oil paint	n.	Thick paint with oil allowing layered color mixing.
139	watercolor	n.	Painting method using pigments mixed with water.
140	abstract	adj.	Art showing forms or colors not representing real objects.
141	artistic	adj.	Pertaining to artists or their creative works.
142	original	adj.	Created firsthand by an artist, not reproduced.
143	realistic	adj.	Depicting subjects exactly as they appear in reality.
144	classic	adj.	Simple, traditional, and timelessly appealing style.
145	modern	adj.	Style recently formed, differing from traditional forms.
146	contemporary	adj.	Belonging to the current era or time period.
147	visual	adj.	Relating to sight or perception of images.
148	vivid	adj.	Colors or light that are very bright or intense.
149	depict	v.	To represent or show something through artistic means.
150	display	v.	To publicly show something for observation or attention.
151	exhibit	v.	To present objects publicly for information or entertainment.
152	frame	v.	To put a work of art inside a solid border.
153	inspire	v.	To cause something to be created by giving ideas.
154	model	v.	To create a smaller representation of something physically.
155	restore	v.	To repair an artwork or building to good condition.
156	anatomy	n.	The structure and parts of the human body.
157	organ	n.	A vital body part with a specific biological function.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
158	Adam's apple	n.	The prominent neck cartilage visible particularly in men.
159	artery	n.	Blood vessel carrying blood from heart to organs.
160	cell	n.	Smallest unit of life capable of independent function.
161	heartbeat	n.	Rhythmic movement of heart pumping blood through body.
162	scalp	n.	Skin covering top of head beneath hair.
163	collarbone	n.	Bone crossing upper chest from neck to shoulders.
164	breast	n.	Fleshy chest part producing milk after childbirth.
165	digestive system	n.	Group of organs absorbing food and passing waste.
166	immune system	n.	Body's protective system defending against disease.
167	belly	n.	Front lower body area containing stomach and intestines.
168	belly button	n.	Small round hole in center of human abdomen.
169	intestine	n.	Long tube through which digested food passes in body.
170	gallbladder	n.	Pear-shaped organ storing bile produced by liver.
171	bladder	n.	Sac-like organ storing urine before excretion.
172	buttock	n.	Fleshy rounded lower part of human torso.
173	spine	n.	Column of small bones running down center of back.
174	calf	n.	Muscular back part of leg between knee and ankle.
175	shin	n.	Front part of leg between knee and foot.
176	big toe	n.	Largest toe on a human foot.
177	pinky	n.	Smallest finger of the human hand.
178	eyelid	n.	Upper or lower fold covering eye when closed.
179	jaw	n.	Lower facial bone containing bottom teeth and chin.
180	vein	n.	Blood vessel carrying blood back toward heart.
181	nostril	n.	Either external opening of nose for breathing.
182	eyebrow	n.	Line of hair growing above the eyes.
183	kidney stone	n.	Hard crystal formed from minerals inside kidneys.
184	corporation	n.	A legally recognized company considered a single unit.
185	chairman	n.	Person in long-term charge of a company or organization.
186	entrepreneur	n.	Person who starts a business taking financial risks.
187	clerk	n.	Person maintaining records and performing routine office tasks.
188	draft	n.	Document instructing a bank to pay a specific sum.
189	income	n.	Money regularly earned from work or investments.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
190	insurance	n.	Arrangement guaranteeing compensation for accidents or loss.
191	contract	v.	To enter or make an official agreement with another party.
192	establish	v.	To create a company or organization for long-term operation.
193	found	v.	To create or establish an organization by providing finances.
194	fund	v.	To supply money for a particular purpose or project.
195	manufacture	v.	To produce products in large quantities using machinery.
196	launch	v.	To start an organized activity, operation, or project.
197	ship	v.	To send goods or people from one place to another.
198	sponsor	v.	To cover costs of a project, often in exchange for advertising.
199	strategy	n.	Organized plan developed to achieve a specific goal.
200	profit margin	n.	Difference between business earnings and associated costs.
201	stockholder	n.	Individual or institution owning shares in a corporation.
202	tax evasion	n.	Illegal actions to pay less tax than legally required.
203	shipment	n.	Act or goods being transported from one location to another.
204	fortune	n.	Very large sum of money or valuable assets.
205	savings	n.	Money set aside for future use, often in a bank.
206	wealthy	adj.	Having large amounts of money or valuable possessions.
207	come down	v.	To decrease in price, value, or level.
208	live on	v.	To have enough money to buy daily necessities.
209	pay off	v.	To give full payment of money owed on debt or loan.
210	set aside	v.	To save money, time, or resources for a purpose.
211	discount	n.	Act of reducing the usual price of a product or service.
212	fee	n.	Payment made to professional or organization for services.
213	lending	n.	Act of giving money expecting it to be returned.
214	senior	adj.	Having higher status or rank than others in organization.
215	junior	adj.	Lower in rank or position compared to another person.
216	speak	v.	To deliver a speech to a group of people.
217	CEO	n.	The highest-ranking person in a company or organization.
218	capture	v.	To catch an animal or person and keep them imprisoned.
219	expose	v.	To publicly reveal something previously hidden or unknown.
220	get away with	v.	To escape punishment for one's unlawful actions.
221	monitor	v.	To observe someone secretly for safety or information.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
222	pursue	v.	To follow or chase someone or something actively.
223	resist	v.	To fight against something using force or effort.
224	sentence	v.	To officially assign a punishment to a convicted individual.
225	traffic	v.	To illegally trade or distribute prohibited items.
226	witness	v.	To see an event, crime, or incident firsthand.
227	arrest	n.	Legal act of taking a person into custody by authorities.
228	bulletproof vest	n.	Protective clothing worn to shield body from bullets.
229	community service	n.	Unpaid work done as punishment or voluntary contribution.
230	cell	n.	Small enclosed space where a prisoner is confined.
231	jail	n.	Place where criminals are kept as punishment for crimes.
232	life sentence	n.	Punishment requiring imprisonment for the remainder of life.
233	crime	n.	Unlawful act punishable by legal authorities.
234	eyewitness	n.	Person who personally sees an event and can describe it.
235	offender	n.	Person who commits a crime or unlawful act.
236	drug dealer	n.	Individual selling illegal narcotics or controlled substances.
237	fraud	n.	Criminal deceiving people for financial or personal gain.
238	gang	n.	Group of criminals who work together.
239	pickpocket	n.	Criminal who steals from pockets or personal belongings.
240	bombing	n.	Act of using explosives to cause damage or fear.
241	burglary	n.	Crime of entering a building to commit theft or illegal acts.
242	drunk driving	n.	Operating a vehicle while under influence of alcohol.
243	identity theft	n.	Illegal use of someone's personal information for gain.
244	robbery	n.	Crime of stealing goods or money, often with threat.
245	shooting	n.	Incident involving injury or death caused by gunfire.
246	shoplifting	n.	Theft of merchandise from a store without payment.
247	terrorism	n.	Using violence to achieve political power or influence.
248	vandalism	n.	Intentional destruction or damage of someone else's property.
249	violence	n.	Crime intentionally directed to harm or intimidate others.
250	break out	v.	To free oneself from confinement against will.
251	hang	v.	To execute a person by suspending them with a rope.
252	break	n.	Escape from a place where one is being held captive.
253	grass	n.	Drug derived from cannabis leaves and flowers.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
254	narc	n.	Police officer enforcing narcotics control laws.
255	stoned	adj.	Experiencing effects of drugs or alcohol influence.
256	trip	v.	To experience altered perceptions due to psychedelic drugs.
257	breathalyzer	n.	Device measuring alcohol content in a driver's breath.
258	disobey	v.	To refuse to follow rules, commands, or orders.
259	lock away	v.	To confine someone in a secure location preventing escape.
260	dead to rights	phr.	Situation with clear proof of one's crime or wrongdoing.
261	scam	n.	Dishonest or illegal method for obtaining money.
262	forensics	n.	Scientific techniques used to investigate crimes.
263	scam	v.	To get money through dishonest or illegal methods.
264	account	v.	To regard someone or something in a particular way.
265	accuse	v.	To say a person or group committed a wrongdoing.
266	challenge	v.	To object to the legality or acceptability of something.
267	suspect	v.	To think someone may have committed a crime.
268	case	n.	Matter that must be dealt with in a court.
269	family court	n.	Court that decides disputes regarding family matters.
270	jury	n.	Group of citizens deciding guilt or innocence in court.
271	trial	n.	Legal process examining evidence to decide guilt.
272	justice	n.	Fair and just behavior or treatment in society.
273	injustice	n.	Unfair or unjust behavior or treatment toward someone.
274	strict	adj.	Absolute rules that must always be obeyed.
275	legal	adj.	Related to the law or legal system operations.
276	legally	adv.	In a manner permitted or allowed by law.
277	valid	adj.	Acceptable or recognized by law or authority.
278	regulation	n.	Process of controlling something by rules.
279	judge	v.	To decide whether someone is innocent in court.
280	authority	n.	Right or power to give orders to others.
281	inspector	n.	Police officer holding an intermediate rank.
282	clause	n.	Separate section of a legal document specifying something.
283	claim	n.	Request for money believed to be rightfully owed.
284	bill	n.	Proposed law submitted to parliament for consideration.
285	action	n.	Legal process determining whether wrongdoing occurred.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
286	appeal	v.	To ask a higher court to review a lower court's decision.
287	bail	n.	Money paid for temporary release of an accused person.
288	brief	n.	Short document stating facts of one side in court.
289	charge	n.	Accusation brought against a person on trial.
290	charge	v.	To officially accuse someone of committing an offense.
291	defend	v.	To represent a person accused of a crime in court.
292	file	v.	To submit or store a document according to legal rules.
293	issue	v.	To release an official document, warrant, or statement.
294	prohibit	v.	To formally forbid something by law.
295	prohibition	n.	Official law forbidding or restricting certain actions.
296	try	v.	To put someone on trial or investigate a legal case.
297	break	v.	To fail to obey or violate the law.
298	chair	v.	To lead a meeting or committee as the responsible head.
299	get away	v.	To escape from someone or some place successfully.
300	require	v.	To make something mandatory or necessary by law.
301	disqualify	v.	To remove someone's right for violating a rule.
302	judgment	n.	Decision given by a judge or court regarding a case.
303	criminal record	n.	Legal document showing history of crimes and punishments.
304	biodiversity	n.	The variety of plants and animals in nature.
305	environmentalist	n.	Person concerned with protecting the natural environment.
306	conservation	n.	Protection of natural resources from wasteful human activity.
307	deforestation	n.	Extensive removal of forests causing environmental damage.
308	eclipse	n.	Period when sun or moon is temporarily obscured.
309	solar	adj.	Related to or produced by the sun.
310	lunar	adj.	Relating to the moon.
311	moonlight	n.	Light emitted naturally from the moon.
312	northern lights	n.	Colorful lights appearing in Earth's northern sky.
313	float	v.	To move slowly on water or in the air.
314	tide	n.	Regular rise and fall of sea levels naturally.
315	steam	n.	Hot gas produced when water is boiled.
316	sunlight	n.	Natural light coming from the sun.
317	dawn	n.	First appearance of sunlight in the morning.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
318	eruption	n.	Sudden outburst of lava or volcanic material.
319	volcanic	adj.	Related to or caused by volcanic activity.
320	lava	n.	Molten rock erupted from a volcano.
321	landslide	n.	Sudden fall of rock or soil down a slope.
322	ecology	n.	Study of interactions between organisms and environment.
323	ecosystem	n.	Community of organisms interacting with their environment.
324	nonrenewable	adj.	Resource existing in limited quantities, cannot be replaced.
325	hydroelectric	adj.	Related to electricity generated by flowing water.
326	turbine	n.	Machine producing power from fluid pressure on a wheel.
327	alternative energy	n.	Power produced in ways that do not harm environment.
328	fume	n.	Smoke or gas that is harmful if inhaled.
329	preserve	v.	To maintain something in its original condition.
330	slope	n.	Area of land higher at one end than another.
331	pitch-black	adj.	Completely without any light.
332	sub-zero	adj.	Temperature below zero degrees Celsius or Fahrenheit.
333	domestic	adj.	Related to activities, issues, or affairs within a country.
334	federal	adj.	Relating to the central government rather than local.
335	independent	adj.	Functioning without control or influence from others.
336	presidential	adj.	Associated with the role or actions of a president.
337	revolutionary	adj.	Involved in or characteristic of a revolution.
338	congress	n.	Formal meeting of representatives to discuss national issues.
339	Conservative Party	n.	UK political party favoring tradition and gradual change.
340	democrat	n.	Supporter of social equality and active governmental role.
341	Democratic Party	n.	US party advocating social equality and welfare support.
342	labor party	n.	UK party favoring welfare of workers and the poor.
343	back	v.	To support someone or something publicly or politically.
344	debate	v.	To formally discuss a matter, usually in structured setting.
345	govern	v.	To exercise control and authority over a country.
346	government	n.	System or organization that manages a country or state.
347	democracy	n.	Government in which power is vested in the people.
348	kingdom	n.	Nation ruled by a king or queen.
349	monarchy	n.	System of government ruled by a king or queen.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
350	independence	n.	State of being free from control by others.
351	human right	n.	Basic entitlement every person must legally have.
352	nation	n.	Country of people sharing history, language, and governance.
353	plot	v.	To secretly plan to harm someone or commit crime.
354	state	n.	Country governed by one centralized authority.
355	majority	n.	Greater number of votes determining election winner.
356	minister	n.	Head of a specific government department.
357	secretary	n.	Head of a US government department.
358	spokesperson	n.	Person formally speaking for an organization or government.
359	negotiation	n.	Formal discussion aimed at reaching agreement.
360	opposition	n.	Main political party opposing the current government.
361	policy	n.	Official plan or set of ideas guiding action.
362	presidency	n.	Period of time during which a president holds office.
363	run for	v.	To participate as a candidate in an election.
364	seat	n.	Position of membership in a committee or parliament.
365	voting	n.	Process of selecting candidates in an election.
366	territory	n.	Geographic area under a government or authority.
367	negotiate	v.	To discuss terms of an agreement to reach one.
368	conspiracy	n.	Secret plan to commit unlawful or harmful act.
369	crackdown	n.	Severe enforcement of law to suppress certain activities.
370	repression	n.	Controlling people by force or violence.
371	prime minister	n.	Head of government in parliamentary system.
372	lead astray	phr.	Cause someone to make poor decision by misleading.
373	credit	v.	To add money to a bank account.
374	economy	n.	System producing, distributing, and managing wealth.
375	economic	adj.	Related to production, distribution, and management of wealth.
376	accounting	n.	Systematic recording and reporting of financial transactions.
377	asset	n.	Valuable resource with potential to provide future benefit.
378	budget	n.	Specific amount of money set aside for use.
379	capital	n.	Assets used to generate additional assets or wealth.
380	debit	n.	Entry increasing assets or expense, decreasing debts.
381	finance	n.	Managing large sums of money professionally or publicly.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
382	investment	n.	Money put into something to earn future profit.
383	financing	n.	Providing money for projects, business, or individual needs.
384	borrowing	n.	Act of getting money with agreement to repay plus interest.
385	debt	n.	Condition of owing money.
386	grant	n.	Money given by government or organization for a purpose.
387	loan	n.	Borrowed money to be returned with interest.
388	possess	v.	To have something as one's own.
389	distribution	n.	Supplying products to shops and businesses.
390	inflation	n.	Ongoing increase in general price levels.
391	welfare	n.	Government financial aid for sick or unemployed people.
392	profit	n.	Money gained after all expenses and taxes.
393	standard of living	n.	Level of wealth, comfort, and necessities for an individual.
394	balance	n.	Account state where total credits equal debits.
395	bank statement	n.	Document summarizing account financial transactions.
396	collapse	n.	Sudden decrease in value, price, or stock.
397	collapse	v.	To suddenly decrease in amount or value.
398	decrease	n.	Quantity or amount by which something is reduced.
399	loss	n.	Money lost by a company, organization, or individual.
400	analyst	n.	Expert evaluating data to provide informed insights.
401	banker	n.	Person holding a position of authority in a bank.
402	price	v.	To set an amount required for a product or service.
403	purchase	v.	To obtain goods or services in exchange for money.
404	rate	n.	Specified amount of money charged or paid.
405	rip off	v.	To take advantage by overcharging or selling defective goods.
406	rip-off	n.	Something costing much more than its actual value.
407	bull	n.	Investor expecting asset prices to rise for profit.
408	bear	n.	Investor expecting asset prices to fall for profit.
409	run out	v.	To use available supply leaving little or none.
410	refund	n.	Money returned for unsatisfactory goods or services.
411	recipe	n.	Instructions for preparing food with listed required ingredients.
412	ingredient	n.	A component used in a recipe or culinary mixture.
413	beat	v.	To repeatedly mix something using a spoon or utensil.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
414	chop	v.	To cut something into pieces using a knife.
415	garnish	v.	To decorate food to make it visually more appealing.
416	grill	v.	To cook food over or under direct high heat.
417	heat	v.	To raise the temperature of a substance or object.
418	marinate	v.	To soak food in seasoned liquid before cooking.
419	peel	v.	To remove the outer skin or layer from something.
420	poach	v.	To cook food gently in hot liquid or water.
421	roast	v.	To cook food, especially meat, in an oven or fire.
422	slice	v.	To cut food into thin, flat, or even pieces.
423	stir	v.	To move a liquid or mixture to combine ingredients.
424	toast	v.	To brown food such as bread by applying heat.
425	counter	n.	A flat surface or cabinet for working or storage.
426	utensil	n.	An object used for cooking, serving, or eating food.
427	barbecue	n.	A metal frame for cooking food over an open fire.
428	blender	n.	An electric device that mixes or purees ingredients smoothly.
429	frying pan	n.	A flat-bottomed pan for frying or browning foods efficiently.
430	wok	n.	A bowl-shaped pan primarily used for cooking Chinese dishes.
431	mixer	n.	A device used to combine ingredients to desired texture.
432	lid	n.	A removable cover placed on top of a container.
433	mixing bowl	n.	A bowl used for combining or preparing ingredients.
434	wooden spoon	n.	A spoon constructed entirely from wood for cooking purposes.
435	scale	n.	A device for measuring weight of objects or people.
436	pinch	n.	A small quantity held between thumb and index finger.
437	cupful	n.	The amount of substance that fills a standard cup.
438	spoonful	n.	The quantity of substance that fills a single spoon.
439	grade school	n.	An elementary school for children aged six to twelve.
440	junior high school	n.	A school between elementary and high school grades levels.
441	senior high school	n.	A school attended by students aged fourteen through eighteen.
442	prom	n.	A formal dance event for high school students annually.
443	enroll	v.	To officially register oneself or others for participation courses.
444	register	v.	To record one's name on an official institutional list.
445	locker	n.	A small lockable storage space for personal belongings items.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
446	roommate	n.	A person sharing living space with another resident nearby.
447	major	n.	A university student focusing on one primary academic subject.
448	master	v.	To learn a skill thoroughly and perform it expertly.
449	trainee	n.	A person undergoing training for a specific profession currently.
450	tutor	v.	To teach individual students privately or in small groups.
451	thesis	n.	An original research paper submitted for a university degree.
452	seminar	n.	A small university class focused on discussion and research.
453	curriculum	n.	The complete set of courses and learning experiences offered.
454	optional	adj.	Available to choose freely and not required by rules.
455	grade	v.	To evaluate student performance and assign an academic score.
456	coursework	n.	Assigned academic work completed during a course of study.
457	multiple-choice	adj.	Offering several possible answers with only one correct option.
458	buttery	n.	A university room selling food and drinks to students.
459	property	n.	Land or buildings owned by individuals organizations or entities.
460	skyscraper	n.	A very tall modern building commonly found in cities.
461	mansion	n.	A very large impressive house usually owned by wealthy.
462	penthouse	n.	An apartment located on the top floor building typically.
463	duplex	n.	An apartment with two floors connected by internal staircase.
464	complex	n.	A group of similar buildings located together in area.
465	row house	n.	A house built adjoining others in a uniform row.
466	houseboat	n.	A boat designed and equipped for people living aboard.
467	attic	n.	A space beneath roof used for storage or living.
468	basement	n.	A room or area below ground level in buildings.
469	cellar	n.	An underground room used for storing food or wine.
470	nursery	n.	A room designated for a baby sleeping safely inside.
471	patio	n.	A paved outdoor area used for sitting eating outside.
472	rooftop	n.	The outer surface covering the top of building externally.
473	doorstep	n.	A small step located directly outside a doorway entrance.
474	doorway	n.	The opening and surrounding area where a door fits.
475	smoke alarm	n.	A device detecting smoke and emitting warning sounds audibly.
476	bureau	n.	A furniture piece with drawers for clothing storage purposes.
477	drawer	n.	A sliding compartment used for storing organized items inside.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
478	chore	n.	A routine household task performed regularly as duty required.
479	mop	v.	To clean floors by wiping using a wet mop.
480	scrub	v.	To clean surfaces by rubbing hard with brush forcefully.
481	sweep	v.	To clean areas by removing dirt using broom manually.
482	vacuum	v.	To clean surfaces using machine that sucks dirt inside.
483	wipe	v.	To clean or dry surfaces using cloth or towel.
484	furnish	v.	To supply rooms with furniture and necessary items inside.
485	coat	v.	To cover a surface with layer of substance evenly.
486	bold	adj.	Brave and confident, willing to take risks without fear.
487	caring	adj.	Showing concern for others and providing kind supportive help.
488	dishonest	adj.	Not truthful or trustworthy, often engaging in immoral behavior.
489	easy-going	adj.	Calm relaxed and not easily worried or annoyed generally.
490	energetic	adj.	Active lively and full of physical or mental energy.
491	greedy	adj.	Having excessive desire for wealth possessions or personal gain.
492	impatient	adj.	Unable to wait calmly becoming irritated or frustrated easily.
493	logical	adj.	Based on clear reasoning sound judgment and rational thinking.
494	sensitive	adj.	Aware of others' feelings and responsive with care emotionally.
495	sincere	adj.	Genuine honest and expressing true feelings or beliefs openly.
496	strong-willed	adj.	Highly determined firm and persistent in decisions and beliefs.
497	tight-fisted	adj.	Reluctant to spend money or give financial help freely.
498	beloved	adj.	Deeply loved and cherished by many people within group.
499	loved	adj.	Feeling deeply cherished valued and cared for by others.
500	admirer	n.	A person who desires another romantically or sexually intensely.
501	lovebirds	n.	An affectionate couple openly showing love toward each other.
502	significant other	n.	A long-term romantic partner such as spouse or lover.
503	anniversary	n.	The yearly date commemorating a special past event together.
504	bridegroom	n.	A man on or around the day of wedding.
505	propose	v.	To ask someone to marry you formally in commitment.
506	proposal	n.	The act of asking someone to marry formally romantically.
507	broken heart	n.	A state of deep emotional pain after romantic loss.
508	Valentine	n.	A love message sent to someone on Valentine's Day.
509	adore	v.	To love and respect someone very deeply emotionally sincerely.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
510	ask out	v.	To invite someone to go on romantic date together.
511	fall in love	v.	To begin feeling deep romantic affection for someone suddenly.
512	woo	v.	To try to attract someone's love especially marriage intentions.
513	hickey	n.	A bruise caused by passionate kissing or biting skin.
514	drumstick	n.	A stick used to strike drums producing rhythmic sounds.
515	grand piano	n.	A large horizontal piano producing powerful sound and range.
516	trombone	n.	A brass instrument using slide mechanism to vary pitch.
517	heavy metal	n.	A loud rock genre featuring distorted guitars powerful drums.
518	hip-hop	n.	Popular music genre combining rap vocals with electronic beats.
519	R&B	n.	A music genre blending rhythm blues jazz soulful vocals.
520	rock and roll	n.	A popular music genre with strong beats electric guitars.
521	chart	n.	A ranked list showing popular music sales positions periodically.
522	track	n.	A recorded song or musical piece on media formats.
523	rhythm	n.	A repeated pattern of sounds creating musical timing structure.
524	tone	n.	A musical sound characterized by pitch quality intensity levels.
525	volume	n.	The level of loudness produced by audio devices output.
526	record player	n.	A device spinning records to play analog music sound.
527	speaker	n.	A device converting electrical signals into audible sound output.
528	stereo	n.	A sound system using multiple channels creating spatial effect.
529	release	v.	To make music or media available publicly for audiences.
530	deafening	adj.	Extremely loud preventing hearing of any other sounds nearby.
531	punk	n.	A fast aggressive rock genre with rebellious attitude themes.
532	bartender	n.	A person serving drinks behind a bar in establishments.
533	cab driver	n.	A person whose occupation is driving a taxi commercially.
534	cashier	n.	A person handling payments and receiving money in stores.
535	caterer	n.	A professional providing food and drinks for events formally.
536	florist	n.	A person arranging and selling flowers professionally in shops.
537	health professional	n.	Someone working in medicine or health-related care fields.
538	plumber	n.	A worker installing repairing pipes faucets or related systems.
539	sheriff	n.	An elected officer enforcing law in a county region.
540	self-employed	adj.	Working for oneself rather than being employed by another.
541	temporary	adj.	Existing or valid for a limited or short duration.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
542	voluntary	adj.	Working or participating without payment or obligation willingly.
543	out of work	phr.	Having no current employment or paid occupation actively.
544	wage	n.	Payment received by a worker in exchange for labor.
545	golden years	n.	The period of life after retirement from work actively.
546	age	n.	A period in history defined by specific major events.
547	calendar	n.	A system dividing the year into months weeks days.
548	schedule	v.	To plan an event or task for a time.
549	fortnight	n.	A period lasting exactly two weeks or fourteen days.
550	millennium	n.	A period of one thousand years often historically measured.
551	time zone	n.	A geographical region following the same standard time.
552	local time	n.	The standard time measured in a specific region.
553	chronometer	n.	A highly precise timepiece used for navigation or accuracy.
554	hourglass	n.	A glass device measuring time via sand flowing downward.
555	pendulum clock	n.	A clock using swinging weight to regulate measured time.
556	stopwatch	n.	A device to measure short time intervals precisely during events.
557	sundial	n.	An ancient instrument using shadows to indicate the hour.
558	twilight	n.	The period after sunset but before full nighttime darkness.
559	lateness	n.	The quality of arriving or occurring after expected time.
560	chronological	adj.	Arranged in the order that events actually occurred sequentially.
561	for the moment	adv.	At present time, situation may change soon thereafter.
562	lately	adv.	Occurring recently within a short or recent period.
563	day-to-day	adj.	Happening or occurring as part of daily routine activities.
564	annual	adj.	Happening or performed once every single calendar year.
565	annually	adv.	Occurring in a way that happens each year.
566	monthly	adv.	Occurring or performed once every calendar month regularly.
567	momentarily	adv.	For a very short time, or happening very soon.
568	now and again	adv.	Occurring occasionally but not in a regular pattern.
569	overtime	adv.	Time worked beyond the standard or normal period scheduled.
570	later on	adv.	At a time following the present or previously mentioned.
571	acupuncture	n.	A treatment involving thin needles inserted into body.
572	clinic	n.	A medical facility providing care without overnight stays.
573	ward	n.	A hospital section for patients with similar conditions.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
574	emergency room	n.	A hospital room providing immediate medical care urgently.
575	ENT	n.	Medical specialty dealing with ear, nose, throat issues.
576	inpatient	n.	A patient staying in hospital for ongoing medical treatment.
577	outpatient	n.	A patient receiving hospital care without overnight stay.
578	mental health	n.	The state of psychological and emotional well-being regularly.
579	specialist	n.	A doctor trained in a particular area of medicine.
580	orthodontist	n.	A dentist specializing in correcting teeth and jaw alignment.
581	pediatrician	n.	A doctor specialized in medical treatment of children.
582	surgeon	n.	A medical professional performing operations to treat patients.
583	therapist	n.	A professional treating mental health issues via counseling.
584	procedure	n.	A medical operation performed to diagnose or treat conditions.
585	protection	n.	The act of keeping people or things safe from harm.
586	transplant	n.	An organ or tissue transferred from one body to another.
587	surgery	n.	A medical practice involving cutting body parts for treatment.
588	dose	n.	A measured quantity of medicine given at one time.
589	painkiller	n.	A medicine used to reduce or eliminate physical pain.
590	therapy	n.	Medical treatment of disease, injury, or psychological disorder.
591	come down with	phr.	To begin showing symptoms of an illness or disease.
592	heal	v.	To restore health physically or emotionally after injury.
593	hit the hay	phr.	To go to bed to sleep at night.
594	implant	v.	To insert artificial or living tissue into body surgically.
595	inject	v.	To introduce a substance into the body using a needle.
596	pass out	v.	To lose consciousness temporarily due to illness or exhaustion.
597	relieve	v.	To reduce pain, stress, or discomfort effectively safely.
598	scan	v.	To examine body part using imaging equipment carefully.
599	shower	v.	To bathe under flowing water for hygiene and cleanliness.
600	cuisine	n.	A style or method of cooking specific to region.
601	carbohydrate	n.	Organic compound providing energy, found in various foods.
602	bagel	n.	Ring-shaped bread with dense chewy texture often boiled.
603	baguette	n.	Long narrow loaf of bread commonly baked in France.
604	cereal	n.	Grains from grass plants used for flour or breakfast.
605	pastry	n.	Baked dough often sweet or filled with ingredients.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
606	herb	n.	Plant used for cooking or medicinal purposes frequently.
607	beet	n.	Round dark red root vegetable used in cooking.
608	green pepper	n.	Hollow green fruit eaten raw or cooked for flavor.
609	red pepper	n.	Red spicy fruit commonly used to season foods.
610	goat cheese	n.	Cheese produced from the milk of a goat.
611	margarine	n.	Butter substitute made from vegetable oils or animal fats.
612	sour cream	n.	Cream fermented with lactic bacteria for tart flavor.
613	raspberry	n.	Small soft edible berry, red or black in color.
614	spice	n.	Dried plant used to add flavor or color.
615	sweet potato	n.	Starchy vegetable with sweet taste and soft flesh.
616	zucchini	n.	Long green summer squash often cooked or grilled.
617	wheat	n.	Common cereal grain used for flour and baking.
618	beefsteak	n.	Thick cut of beef typically grilled or pan-fried.
619	kebab	n.	Meat and vegetables roasted on a skewer for cooking.
620	meatloaf	n.	Mixture of meat baked in loaf shape for meals.
621	mayonnaise	n.	Thick cold dressing made with oil, egg, vinegar.
622	mustard	n.	Condiment from seeds, spicy, used cold on foods.
623	soy sauce	n.	Dark liquid made from fermented soybeans, salty taste.
624	ketchup	n.	Tomato-based cold sauce served with various foods.
625	vinegar	n.	Sour liquid used in cooking, preservation, or cleaning.
626	white sauce	n.	Creamy sauce made from milk, butter, and flour.
627	chewing gum	n.	Flavorful substance for chewing without swallowing, non-edible.
628	hard candy	n.	Sugar-based confection boiled and cooled into solid shapes.
629	lollipop	n.	Candy mounted on a stick for sucking or licking.
630	popsicle	n.	Flavored frozen water or juice on a stick.
631	pudding	n.	Sweet creamy dessert typically made with milk and sugar.
632	portion	n.	Amount of food served to a single individual.
633	supper	n.	Evening meal typically lighter than dinner consumed.
634	takeout	n.	Meal purchased from restaurant to eat elsewhere.
635	roll	n.	Small individual loaf of bread for single person.
636	tomato paste	n.	Concentrated soft substance made from cooked tomatoes.
637	driving school	n.	Institute where people are taught how to drive.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
638	license number	n.	Numbers and letters displayed on vehicle registration plates.
639	motor vehicle	n.	Any vehicle powered by an engine for transportation.
640	bumper	n.	Bar attached to vehicle reducing damage during collisions.
641	emergency brake	n.	Hand-operated brake used to hold vehicle in place.
642	hood	n.	Metal cover over a vehicle's engine compartment.
643	plate	n.	Flat metal displaying vehicle registration numbers or letters.
644	safety belt	n.	Strap keeping passengers secured to prevent injuries.
645	tailpipe	n.	Pipe through which exhaust gases exit a vehicle.
646	tank	n.	Container holding fuel for a vehicle or machine.
647	tire	n.	Circular rubber covering vehicle wheel for traction, support.
648	trunk	n.	Rear storage space in a vehicle for items.
649	turn signal	n.	Blinking light indicating vehicle's lane change intention.
650	windshield	n.	Large front glass window of a vehicle protecting driver.
651	windshield wiper	n.	Device clearing rain or snow from vehicle windshield.
652	crash	n.	Accident in which a vehicle collides with something.
653	bend	n.	Curve or turn in a road, river, or path.
654	crossing	n.	Place where two roads intersect or meet each other.
655	intersection	n.	Point where two or more roads cross one another.
656	U-turn	n.	Complete vehicle turn reversing direction along same road.
657	GPS	n.	Satellite system showing exact position of object.
658	rush hour	n.	Time period when traffic is heaviest during commuting.
659	speeding	n.	Driving faster than the legally allowed maximum limit.
660	brake	v.	To slow down or stop a moving vehicle.
661	exit	v.	To leave a place, vehicle, or area quickly.
662	pull up	v.	To stop a vehicle at a particular location.
663	navigate	v.	To guide a vehicle using map or other method.
664	rush	v.	To move or act very quickly or hastily.
665	slow	v.	To reduce speed of a moving vehicle or object.
666	fuel	v.	To supply energy or power to a vehicle.
667	progress	n.	Forward movement toward a specific destination or goal.
668	steering wheel	n.	Wheel a driver turns to change vehicle direction.
669	handlebar	n.	Bar used to control direction of bicycle or motorcycle.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
670	zebra crossing	n.	Road area with white stripes for pedestrians to cross.
671	gearshift	n.	Handle used to change gears in a vehicle.
672	stoplight	n.	Red light indicating braking or stopping to drivers.
673	road rage	n.	Aggressive behavior of drivers in heavy traffic situations.
674	sip	v.	To drink a liquid in small amounts each time.
675	sober up	v.	To reduce alcohol effects and regain clear state.
676	thirst	n.	The condition of needing water or another drink.
677	ice cube	n.	Small block of frozen water used to chill beverages.
678	straw	n.	Thin tube used for sucking liquids into mouth.
679	liquor store	n.	Shop selling alcoholic drinks without serving them.
680	booze	n.	Alcoholic beverage, typically strong or intoxicating.
681	Bloody Mary	n.	Alcoholic cocktail made with vodka and tomato juice.
682	Bourbon	n.	American whiskey with at least fifty-one percent corn.
683	cider	n.	Alcoholic beverage produced from fermented crushed apples.
684	gin	n.	Strong alcoholic drink flavored primarily with juniper berries.
685	ginger ale	n.	Clear carbonated soft drink flavored with ginger root.
686	ice tea	n.	Cold tea, usually lemon-flavored and served iced.
687	liquor	n.	Any distilled alcoholic beverage like vodka, rum, or whiskey.
688	margarita	n.	Cocktail with tequila, lime juice, and sometimes salt.
689	martini	n.	Cocktail made with gin or vodka and vermouth, garnished.
690	mojito	n.	Rum cocktail with mint, lime juice, sugar, and ice.
691	refill	n.	Additional serving of a drink previously consumed.
692	punch	n.	Mixed drink of fruit juice, water, spices, and alcohol.
693	cappuccino	n.	Coffee beverage made with espresso and frothed milk.
694	herbal tea	n.	Infusion of herbs, flowers, or fruits in hot water.
695	skim milk	n.	Milk from which almost all fat has been removed.
696	abbreviation	n.	A shortened form of a word or phrase.
697	article	n.	A determiner showing whether a noun is specific.
698	auxiliary verb	n.	A verb used with another to express tense.
699	conjunction	n.	A word connecting phrases, sentences, or words.
700	preposition	n.	A word indicating location, time, or relationship.
701	proper noun	n.	A capitalized name of a person, place, or thing.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
702	pronoun	n.	A word replacing a noun or noun phrase.
703	prefix	n.	Letters added at a word's start to alter meaning.
704	suffix	n.	Letters added at a word's end to change meaning.
705	active	adj.	Describing a verb where the subject performs action.
706	passive	adj.	Describing a verb where the subject receives action.
707	comparative	adj.	Describing words showing difference in degree or quality.
708	superlative	adj.	Describing words indicating the highest degree of something.
709	plural	adj.	Describing words indicating more than one person or thing.
710	singular	adj.	Describing words indicating only one person or thing.
711	grammatical	adj.	Following the rules of grammar correctly in writing.
712	conditional	adj.	Describing clauses true only if something else occurs.
713	perfect	adj.	Indicating a completed action or state in grammar.
714	past participle	n.	A verb form ending in "ed" for tenses or adjectives.
715	continuous	adj.	Describing verbs showing an action is in progress.
716	progressive	adj.	Describing verbs showing action continuing over time.
717	collocation	n.	Words that are frequently used together in combination.
718	possessive	adj.	Describing nouns or pronouns that indicate ownership.
719	pronunciation	n.	The way in which a word is spoken aloud correctly.
720	stress	n.	Added force on a syllable when pronouncing a word.
721	tag question	n.	A short question added at the end of a statement.
722	punctuation	n.	Use of marks like period or comma in writing.
723	exclamation point	n.	The mark "!" used to indicate excitement or surprise.
724	question mark	n.	The mark "?" placed at sentence end indicating a question.
725	comma	n.	The mark "," used to separate items or indicate pause.
726	spell	v.	To write letters in correct order to form a word.
727	border	v.	To be a neighboring country or region next.
728	honor	v.	To show great respect or admiration toward someone.
729	aristocracy	n.	People of highest social class with power and wealth.
730	dynasty	n.	A line of rulers governing over generations.
731	empire	n.	A territory ruled by an emperor or empress.
732	Renaissance	n.	European period reviving classical art and philosophy.
733	the Middle Ages	n.	European era from AD 1000 to 1500.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
734	castle	n.	Large strong building for royal family protection.
735	fortress	n.	Military structure designed for defending against enemies.
736	armor	n.	Protective metal clothing worn by soldiers in battle.
737	coat of arms	n.	Symbol representing a nation, family, or monarchy.
738	arrow	n.	Weapon with pointed head and feathers on shaft.
739	sword	n.	Long metal blade with handle used as weapon.
740	emblem	n.	Design representing a nation, monarchy, or organization.
741	royal	adj.	Relating to a king, queen, or monarchy.
742	royalty	n.	Kings, queens, and their immediate family members.
743	noble	adj.	Belonging to highest social or political class.
744	nobility	n.	People holding top social or political ranks.
745	count	n.	Noble title ranking below marquess but above viscount.
746	countess	n.	Woman holding rank equivalent to a count or earl.
747	knight	n.	Medieval soldier of high rank loyal to king.
748	duchess	n.	Female holding the noble rank of a duke.
749	king	n.	Male ruler of a territory with royal authority.
750	queen	n.	Female ruler of a kingdom or territory.
751	kingdom	n.	Territory governed by a king or queen.
752	lady	n.	Title given to wife of a lord.
753	majesty	n.	Title used when addressing a king or queen.
754	lord	n.	Man of high rank within the noble class.
755	monarch	n.	Person ruling a kingdom or empire, usually inherited.
756	prince	n.	Male royal heir, typically son of king or queen.
757	princess	n.	Female royal family member, typically king's or queen's daughter.
758	Duke	n.	Man of high rank below prince but above count.
759	slavery	n.	Practice of owning people, denying rights, forcing labor.
760	animation	n.	The act or process of creating animated programs.
761	virtual	adj.	Existing as software-generated representation of real things.
762	programming	n.	Process of writing instructions for a computer program.
763	bug	n.	An error or fault in a computer program.
764	code	v.	To write instructions that create a computer program.
765	command	n.	Instruction telling a computer to perform a specific task.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
766	instruction	n.	Line of command telling a computer what to do.
767	database	n.	Structured collection of data for easy information access.
768	file name	n.	Name assigned to a computer file for identification.
769	firewall	n.	Program limiting data access to prevent cyber attacks.
770	icon	n.	Small picture representing a program on computer screen.
771	input	n.	Act of inserting information into a computer system.
772	output	n.	Data produced by a computer after processing input.
773	crash	v.	To suddenly stop functioning properly in computing.
774	hack	v.	To illegally access a computer system or network.
775	import	v.	To transfer data into another computer program.
776	export	v.	To convert and send a file for use elsewhere.
777	network	v.	To connect computers or devices for information exchange.
778	process	v.	To handle and manipulate data using a computer.
779	select	v.	To highlight or choose an item on a computer screen.
780	CD-ROM	n.	Disk capable of storing a fixed amount of data for computers.
781	disk	n.	Flat, round object used to store computer data.
782	mouse pad	n.	Surface improving computer mouse tracking and control.
783	scanner	n.	Device creating digital copies of documents or photos.
784	touchscreen	n.	Display enabling user interaction by touch input.
785	geek	n.	Person with deep knowledge and passion for computers.
786	metaverse	n.	Virtual reality space combining multiple digital environments.
787	alien	n.	A creature believed to exist on other planets.
788	space	n.	Any area beyond the Earth's atmosphere.
789	outer space	n.	The space existing beyond Earth's atmosphere.
790	universe	n.	All that exists physically, including planets, galaxies, and stars.
791	asteroid	n.	Rocky body orbiting sun, mostly between Mars and Jupiter.
792	black hole	n.	Region in space with gravity so strong it absorbs everything.
793	galaxy	n.	Large system of stars bound by gravity.
794	solar system	n.	Sun and planets orbiting it, including Earth.
795	Mercury	n.	First, smallest planet closest to the sun.
796	Venus	n.	Second planet in solar system between Mercury and Earth.
797	Mars	n.	Fourth planet located between Earth and Jupiter.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
798	Jupiter	n.	Fifth and largest planet of the solar system.
799	Saturn	n.	Sixth planet in solar system with prominent rings.
800	Neptune	n.	Eighth planet with icy ring system around it.
801	astronomy	n.	Branch of science studying space, planets, and stars.
802	astronomer	n.	Scientist who observes planets, stars, and universe phenomena.
803	landing	n.	Act of an aircraft or spacecraft arriving safely.
804	outer	adj.	Situated on the exterior of something else.
805	orbit	n.	Path followed by object around star, planet, or moon.
806	orbit	v.	To move around a star, planet, or large object.
807	rocket	n.	Spacecraft propelled upward by gas from burning fuel.
808	satellite	n.	Object sent into space to orbit and relay information.
809	launch	v.	To send an object, satellite, or missile into space.
810	takeoff	n.	Process when aircraft leaves ground to begin flying.
811	spacecraft	n.	Vehicle designed specifically to travel in space.
812	spaceman	n.	Person, such as astronaut, traveling in outer space.
813	spaceship	n.	Type of spacecraft used for space exploration by humans.
814	space station	n.	Large structure serving as long-term base in space.
815	spacesuit	n.	Protective clothing worn by astronauts in space.
816	voyage	n.	Long journey undertaken on a ship or spacecraft.
817	bachelor party	n.	Party held for a man before he gets married.
818	bachelorette party	n.	Party held for a woman before her marriage.
819	best man	n.	Man chosen to assist the groom during wedding.
820	bridesmaid	n.	Woman chosen by bride to help her on wedding.
821	fiance	n.	Man who is formally engaged to be married.
822	fiancee	n.	Woman who is formally engaged to be married.
823	maid of honor	n.	Woman chosen by bride as her main wedding attendant.
824	bouquet	n.	Flowers arranged attractively for ceremony or gift.
825	reception	n.	Formal party celebrating an event or welcoming someone.
826	speech	n.	Formal talk about a topic given to audience.
827	toast	n.	Act of raising glass honoring someone or wishing well.
828	engagement ring	n.	Ring given to partner after agreeing to marry each other.
829	wedding ring	n.	Ring given by spouse during marriage ceremony.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
830	wedding gown	n.	Formal dress worn by bride during her wedding.
831	veil	n.	Fabric covering bride's head, face, or draping back.
832	tuxedo	n.	Formal men's suit typically worn for black-tie events.
833	aisle	n.	Passageway between rows of seats in a church.
834	confetti	n.	Small pieces of colored paper thrown during celebration.
835	elope	v.	To secretly run away to marry someone.
836	exchange	v.	To give and receive something with another person.
837	vow	n.	Serious promise made formally during wedding ceremony.
838	bell	n.	Metal object producing ringing sound when moved.
839	dance floor	n.	Area at an event designated for people to dance.
840	honeymoon	n.	Holiday taken by newlyweds immediately after wedding.
841	newlywed	n.	Person who has recently gotten married.
842	pregnant	adj.	Carrying a baby inside the body of a woman or female animal.
843	branch	n.	Part of a tree dividing into smaller parts with leaves.
844	root	n.	Underground plant part absorbing water and nutrients.
845	trunk	n.	Main woody body of a tree.
846	twig	n.	Small thin branch growing from larger branch.
847	bush	n.	Small plant with several stems growing from ground.
848	ash	n.	European tree with tall trunk and compound leaves.
849	bamboo	n.	Tropical plant with hollow wooden stems.
850	eucalyptus	n.	Tree growing mainly in Australia, strong smelling.
851	evergreen	n.	Plant with leaves remaining green throughout year.
852	fir	n.	Evergreen tree with needle-shaped leaves.
853	ivy	n.	Climbing evergreen plant with dark green leaves.
854	oak	n.	Large tree known for strong wood and acorns.
855	palm	n.	Tropical tree with large trunk and fan-like leaves.
856	pine	n.	Evergreen tree with needle-shaped leaves growing in forests.
857	vine	n.	Climbing plant producing grapes as fruit.
858	willow	n.	Tree growing near water with thin, flexible leaves.
859	weeping willow	n.	Tree near water with long branches touching ground.
860	bloom	v.	To produce flowers and display them in full color.
861	blossom	v.	To bear flowers, especially ones not fully open.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
862	bud	n.	Plant part from which new flowers, leaves, or stems develop.
863	leaf	n.	Usually green part of plant where photosynthesis occurs.
864	stem	n.	Main plant part connecting roots to leaves and flowers.
865	thorn	n.	Sharp part attached to plant stem.
866	daffodil	n.	Tall flower with trumpet shape and yellow-white color.
867	daisy	n.	Small wild flower with yellow center and white petals.
868	lotus	n.	Flower growing on lakes with white or pink petals.
869	tulip	n.	Cup-shaped flower blooming in spring with bright colors.
870	violet	n.	Plant with tiny purple or white flowers, sweet-smelling.
871	lavender	n.	Plant with purple flowers and pleasant fragrance.
872	weed	n.	Wild plant harming crops or garden growth.
873	aerobics	n.	Exercise designed to strengthen lungs and heart with music.
874	athletic	adj.	Related to athletes or their sports-related activities.
875	locker room	n.	Room containing lockers for changing clothes in schools.
876	barbell	n.	Metal bar with heavy discs at each end for exercise.
877	dumbbell	n.	Two weights connected by short handle for strength training.
878	horizontal bar	n.	Bar fixed horizontally for gripping and pulling exercises.
879	jump rope	n.	Rope swung over head and under feet while jumping.
880	mat	n.	Thick material for landing, lying, or exercising on.
881	punching bag	n.	Hanging bag for practicing strikes in boxing or martial arts.
882	trampoline	n.	Elastic surface mounted on frame for jumping exercises or fun.
883	treadmill	n.	Moving platform allowing walking or running in place.
884	bounce	v.	To jump repeatedly, especially on a stretchy surface.
885	hop	v.	To jump using one leg only.
886	stretch	v.	To extend body or body parts to full length.
887	strengthen	v.	To make muscles or body parts more powerful over time.
888	squat	v.	Bend knees with thighs near heels, maintaining balance.
889	sweat	v.	Produce liquid droplets on skin from physical activity.
890	chin-up	n.	Exercise pulling body upward until chin is above bar.
891	sit-up	n.	Exercise moving from lying to sitting to strengthen abdomen.
892	jumping jack	n.	Exercise jumping with legs apart and arms raised overhead.
893	massage	v.	To press or rub body part to promote relaxation.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
894	muscle memory	n.	Body's ability to regain muscle efficiency after inactivity.
895	six-pack	n.	Highly visible abdominal muscles due to fitness.
896	martial arts	n.	Sports involving combat techniques, often from Far East.
897	weight-lift	v.	To lift heavy weights as strength training exercise.
898	work out	v.	To exercise for improved health or strength.
899	pace	n.	Speed at which a person walks, runs, or moves.
900	burn off	v.	To consume energy by performing physical activity.
901	dressing room	n.	Room for changing clothes and preparing before activity.
902	pound for pound	phr.	Describes athlete's skill or ability regardless of size.
903	acknowledge	v.	To openly accept something as true or real.
904	aid	v.	To help or support someone in doing something.
905	age limit	n.	Rule preventing people of certain age from acting.
906	ban	n.	Official rule prohibiting certain activities or behaviors.
907	bar	v.	To not allow someone to do something.
908	condition	n.	Rule or term that must be met for agreement.
909	demand	v.	To ask something from someone urgently and forcefully.
910	enable	v.	To give someone the means or ability to act.
911	exception	n.	Person or thing not following general rule or group.
912	guideline	n.	Principle instructing someone how to act in situations.
913	necessity	n.	Fact that something must happen or is required.
914	permit	n.	Official document allowing someone to do something.
915	permit	v.	To allow someone or something to do something.
916	regulation	n.	Rule made by authority to control particular area.
917	obligation	n.	Action one must perform due to legal or moral force.
918	requirement	n.	Something essential or indispensable for a purpose.
919	restrict	v.	To limit someone or something using rules or laws.
920	restriction	n.	Rule limiting what a person can do or happen.
921	rule book	n.	Set of rules to be followed in organization or occupation.
922	forbid	v.	To not give permission using authority or rules.
923	forbidden	adj.	Not allowed to be done or used.
924	acceptable	adj.	Agreed upon by most people in a society.
925	grant	v.	To let someone have something requested.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
926	compulsory	adj.	Forced to be done by law or authority.
927	illegal	adj.	Forbidden or prohibited by law.
928	mandatory	adj.	Ordered or required by law or rule.
929	impose	v.	To force someone to do what they do not want.
930	insist	v.	To urgently demand something or action to occur.
931	strictness	n.	Quality of being uncompromising enforcing rules or standards.
932	sanction	n.	Official order limiting trade or contact with country.
933	provided that	conj.	Used to state conditions necessary for something.
934	beg	v.	To humbly ask for something urgently or desperately.
935	get rid of sb/sth	phr.	To remove person or thing to no longer have them.
936	objection	n.	Act of expressing disapproval or opposition to something.
937	bewitch	v.	To use a magic spell against someone.
938	charm	v.	To gain control over someone using magic.
939	curse	v.	To put an evil spell on someone to harm.
940	enchant	v.	To put someone under a magic spell.
941	haunt	v.	Of a ghost, to appear repeatedly in a place.
942	demon	n.	An evil supernatural creature.
943	dragon	n.	Large fictional winged creature usually breathing fire.
944	dwarf	n.	Small fictional human-like creature living underground.
945	fairy	n.	Small magical creature sometimes able to grant wishes.
946	ghost	n.	Spirit of a dead person or animal appearing alive.
947	giant	n.	Extremely large and powerful human-like fictional creature.
948	ghoul	n.	Evil fictional spirit eating buried dead bodies.
949	goblin	n.	Small mischievous fictional creature causing trouble for humans.
950	golem	n.	Fictional clay figure brought to life using magic.
951	goddess	n.	Female divine being worshipped in various religions.
952	leprechaun	n.	Small mythical man hiding gold at rainbow's end.
953	mermaid	n.	Fictional half-woman, half-fish creature living in sea.
954	monster	n.	Large scary fictional creature with supernatural abilities.
955	nymph	n.	Fictional young female-shaped creature living in nature.
956	ogre	n.	Large scary fictional creature that eats humans.
957	phoenix	n.	Mythical bird reborn from fire and ashes.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
958	siren	n.	Sea creature luring sailors through singing to danger.
959	sorcerer	n.	Fictional man possessing magic powers.
960	sorceress	n.	Fictional woman possessing magical powers.
961	spirit	n.	Immaterial supernatural being perceived by humans.
962	tooth fairy	n.	Creature leaving coins for each fallen tooth of children.
963	troll	n.	Fictional Scandinavian creature, large or mischievous.
964	unicorn	n.	Fictional horse with a straight horn on forehead.
965	voodoo doll	n.	Doll believed to control or harm someone magically.
966	werewolf	n.	Human cursed to transform into wolf during full moon.
967	zombie	n.	Dead being brought back to life through supernatural means.
968	demigod	n.	Mythological half-god, half-human figure with powers.
969	fabled	adj.	Originating from a myth, legend, or story.
970	assure	v.	To make someone feel confident about something.
971	bet	v.	To express confidence in something happening.
972	ensure	v.	To make sure that something will happen.
973	forecast	v.	To predict future events based on present data.
974	guarantee	v.	To make sure that something will occur.
975	hesitate	v.	To pause before acting due to uncertainty or nervousness.
976	ought to	v.	Used to indicate what is expected to happen.
977	recall	v.	To bring back something from memory.
978	should	v.	Used to express likely or expected action.
979	suspect	v.	To think something is probably true without proof.
980	would	v.	Used to express an uncertain opinion or choice.
981	bound	adj.	Likely to happen or certain to occur.
982	sure	adj.	Expected or certain to happen.
983	convinced	adj.	Having a strong belief in something.
984	expected	adj.	Anticipated or predicted to happen based on knowledge.
985	inevitable	adj.	Unable to be prevented from occurring.
986	rash	adj.	Done without carefully considering consequences.
987	positive	adj.	Having no doubt, providing clear proof.
988	probable	adj.	Likely to happen or be true based on evidence.
989	uncertain	adj.	Lacking confidence or showing doubt about something.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
990	unclear	adj.	Not exactly known or expressed, causing ambiguity.
991	no doubt	adj.	Likely to happen or certainly true.
992	certainty	n.	The state of being sure about something.
993	confidence	n.	Belief that one can trust or rely on someone.
994	confusion	n.	A state of disorder or lack of clarity.
995	probability	n.	Likelihood or chance of an event occurring.
996	deceive	v.	To make someone believe something untrue.
997	somehow	adv.	In a way not known or certain.
998	scheme	n.	A secret plan intended to deceive others.
999	not necessarily	phr.	Used to show that something may not be true.
1000	you bet	phr.	Used to strongly affirm a statement.
1001	check out	v.	To closely examine if something is true or suitable.
1002	odds	n.	Likelihood or probability of something happening.
1003	in stone	phr.	In a way that cannot be changed.
1004	palm off	v.	To dispose of something through deception or persuasion.
1005	plastic	adj.	Not seeming real, natural, or genuine.
1006	question	v.	To express doubt or uncertainty about something.
1007	analytical	adj.	Describing a method using logic and detailed thinking.
1008	descriptive	adj.	Providing detailed information about how something behaves.
1009	cite	v.	To refer to something as an example or proof.
1010	classify	v.	To put people or things into different categories.
1011	compile	v.	To gather information to produce a report or book.
1012	conduct	v.	To direct or participate in execution or management.
1013	demonstrate	v.	To show clearly something is true using proof.
1014	derive	v.	To figure out something through logical reasoning.
1015	detect	v.	To notice or discover something difficult to find.
1016	document	v.	To support a claim by providing facts and evidence.
1017	estimate	v.	To guess quantity, value, size, or number without calculation.
1018	evaluate	v.	To judge the quality or effectiveness of something.
1019	imply	v.	To suggest that one thing logically follows another.
1020	interpret	v.	To explain the meaning of something.
1021	observe	v.	To carefully watch something to gain knowledge.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1022	outline	v.	To give a brief description without detailed information.
1023	survey	v.	To collect information by asking people questions.
1024	case study	n.	A recorded analysis of a person, group, or situation.
1025	chart	n.	An information sheet shown as a graph, table, or diagram.
1026	diagram	n.	A graphic representation intended to explain something.
1027	document	n.	A file, paper, or book used as evidence or reference.
1028	evaluation	n.	A judgment about the quality and quantity of something.
1029	hypothesis	n.	An explanation based on limited facts that is unproven.
1030	experiment	n.	A test performed to prove a hypothesis's truthfulness.
1031	sample	n.	A part of a group selected for study to draw conclusions.
1032	variable	n.	Something that can change and affect experimental results.
1033	instrument	n.	A device or tool requiring knowledge to be used correctly.
1034	questionnaire	n.	A paper with questions for collecting information statistically.
1035	reference	n.	A note in a book giving the source of information.
1036	trial	n.	A process to decide effectiveness, safety, or accuracy.
1037	trial and error	n.	Testing a method repeatedly to achieve desired outcomes.
1038	finding	n.	A piece of information discovered from research.
1039	law	n.	A scientific principle always occurring under specific conditions.
1040	model	n.	A simplified description showing how a process works.
1041	principle	n.	A fundamental rule considered true for reasoning or behavior.
1042	procedure	n.	A set of actions conducted in a specific way.
1043	proof	n.	Information or evidence proving the truth of something.
1044	affirm	v.	To strongly state that a belief or statement is true.
1045	air	v.	To broadcast a program on radio or television.
1046	break	v.	To release news or make it known to the public.
1047	comment	v.	To express an opinion about something or someone.
1048	contribute	v.	To write articles or stories for newspapers or magazines.
1049	deny	v.	To refuse to admit the truth or existence of something.
1050	detail	v.	To explain something thoroughly with specific information.
1051	distribute	v.	To share something among a large number of people.
1052	inform	v.	To give information about someone or something officially.
1053	involve	v.	To include something as a necessary part of an activity.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1054	news agency	n.	Organization that gathers news for newspapers, TV, or radio.
1055	coverage	n.	Reporting of specific news or events by the media.
1056	fake news	n.	News that is false, misleading, or unconfirmed.
1057	announcer	n.	Radio or TV presenter giving information about programs.
1058	broadcaster	n.	Person who presents or talks on radio or television.
1059	news desk	n.	Department collecting and reporting news for media outlets.
1060	panel	n.	Group of experts gathered to discuss or advise on issues.
1061	talk show	n.	TV or radio program featuring guests answering questions.
1062	news conference	n.	Meeting where an important person speaks to journalists.
1063	columnist	n.	Journalist who regularly writes articles on a specific subject.
1064	source	n.	Individual providing information.
1065	editorial	n.	Newspaper article expressing editor's opinion on a topic.
1066	feature	n.	Lengthy article in a publication about a specific topic.
1067	report	n.	Written or spoken description of an event intended for media.
1068	reporting	n.	Job of producing news stories for publication or broadcast.
1069	trend	n.	Overall direction in which something is changing or developing.
1070	relevant	adj.	Having a close connection with the subject or situation.
1071	confirmation	n.	Statement proving the truth of something.
1072	in the dark	phr.	Being uninformed about important events or issues.
1073	adventurous	adj.	Eager to try new, exciting things and take risks.
1074	alarm	v.	To make someone feel scared or anxious.
1075	alarmed	adj.	Feeling worried due to sudden or unexpected danger.
1076	daring	adj.	Brave enough to take risks and do dangerous things.
1077	at-risk	adj.	Likely to be harmed or experience negative outcomes.
1078	risk	n.	Chance of harm, loss, or negative consequences from actions.
1079	critical	adj.	Very serious situation requiring urgent attention or action.
1080	deadly	adj.	Capable of causing death.
1081	desperate	adj.	Behaving dangerously due to extreme circumstances.
1082	harmless	adj.	Causing no danger or damage.
1083	high-risk	adj.	Very likely to become dangerous or harmful.
1084	low-risk	adj.	Having minimal likelihood of danger, harm, or failure.
1085	secure	adj.	Protected and free from danger or risk.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1086	harmful	adj.	Causing damage or negative effects to someone or something.
1087	insecure	adj.	Vulnerable to danger or risk.
1088	sound	adj.	Financially stable, reliable, and free from significant risk.
1089	nasty	adj.	Extremely serious, dangerous, or difficult to deal with.
1090	risky	adj.	Involving the possibility of loss, harm, or failure.
1091	encounter	v.	To face an unexpected difficulty during a process.
1092	endanger	v.	To expose someone or something to potential harm or risk.
1093	harm	v.	To physically hurt or damage someone or something.
1094	pose	v.	To introduce a threat, danger, or problem.
1095	threaten	v.	To declare intention to harm if demands are unmet.
1096	happening	n.	An event or occurrence currently taking place.
1097	rescue	v.	To save someone or something from danger or harm.
1098	rescuer	n.	Person who saves others from critical or harmful situations.
1099	threat	n.	Something posing danger or potential harm.
1100	out of harm's way	phr.	Being in a place safe from danger or damage.
1101	disturb	v.	To trouble someone and make them uneasy.
1102	offend	v.	To cause someone to feel disrespected or upset.
1103	off the hook	phr.	No longer facing difficulty, danger, or punishment.
1104	scream	v.	To make a loud, sharp cry expressing strong emotion.
1105	neutral	adj.	Not favoring any side in conflict or debate.
1106	alert	v.	To warn someone of possible danger or a problem.
1107	disrespectful	adj.	Behaving in a way that is inconsiderate or offensive.
1108	on a razor's edge	phr.	In a critical situation with uncertain outcomes.
1109	fearsome	adj.	Intimidating or frightening in appearance or nature.
1110	address book	n.	Notebook for recording names, addresses, phones, and emails.
1111	answering machine	n.	Device that records messages when calls are missed.
1112	phone booth	n.	Enclosed public place with a pay telephone.
1113	handset	n.	Part of a phone held to the ear for speaking and listening.
1114	landline	n.	Phone connection via underground or pole cables, not satellite.
1115	dial	v.	To enter a phone number to make a call.
1116	call around	v.	Make several phone calls to get information.
1117	call back	v.	To contact someone after a missed or unsuccessful first call.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1118	call up	v.	To phone someone.
1119	caller	n.	Person making a phone call.
1120	operator	n.	Person managing telephone connections at a switchboard.
1121	caller ID	n.	System displaying the number of an incoming call.
1122	cut off	v.	To end a phone call while the other party is still on the line.
1123	hang on	v.	To remain on the phone while waiting for someone.
1124	hang up	v.	To end a phone call by disconnecting.
1125	hold	v.	To wait on the line until the other person answers.
1126	put through	v.	To connect a caller to the person they wish to reach.
1127	available	adj.	Free to be contacted or seen.
1128	busy	adj.	Phone line engaged in another call.
1129	social media	n.	Websites/apps for sharing content and connecting communities.
1130	home page	n.	Opening page of a website linking to other pages.
1131	HTTP	n.	System in HTML for sending and receiving data on the Web.
1132	follower	n.	Person who follows a social media account.
1133	friend	v.	To add someone to a list of social media contacts.
1134	friend request	n.	Online invitation to connect as a social media contact.
1135	attachment	n.	File or document sent along with an email.
1136	hate mail	n.	Offensive or threatening letters or emails sent anonymously.
1137	Skype	n.	Platform for video calls and online communication.
1138	web chat	n.	Real-time text communication over the Internet.
1139	net surfer	n.	Person who spends significant time navigating the Internet.
1140	aid	n.	Food or financial help sent to support someone.
1141	beg	v.	To ask people for money or food publicly.
1142	bias	n.	A prejudice preventing fair consideration of something.
1143	biased	adj.	Showing unfair preference toward one side or viewpoint.
1144	consequence	n.	A phenomenon that follows from a previous action.
1145	contribute	v.	To give something, especially money, to help achieve.
1146	hunger	n.	Serious state caused by lack of food or nourishment.
1147	relationship	n.	The connection between two or more people or things.
1148	dismiss	v.	To remove someone from their job or position.
1149	donation	n.	Something voluntarily given to help a person or organization.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1150	equal	adj.	Having the same rights, opportunities, or status equally.
1151	majority	n.	The larger part or number within a given group.
1152	minority	n.	A small group differing in race, religion, or culture.
1153	noncitizen	n.	A person not legally recognized as a country's citizen.
1154	racist	n.	A person believing one race is superior to others.
1155	sexist	n.	Someone treating people unfairly based on their gender.
1156	minimum wage	n.	The lowest legally set level of salary or payment.
1157	quality of life	n.	A person's overall level of health, comfort, or happiness.
1158	social class	n.	Group of individuals sharing similar economic or cultural status.
1159	slum	n.	A very poor and overcrowded urban residential area.
1160	shelter	n.	A place providing food and housing to very poor people.
1161	blame	v.	To say or feel someone is responsible for problem.
1162	march	v.	To walk with a group as sign of protest.
1163	starve	v.	To die due to complete lack of necessary food.
1164	strike	v.	To stop working as a protest against work conditions.
1165	get together	v.	To meet with someone for cooperation or socialization.
1166	disrespect	n.	An action or speech that offends a person or thing.
1167	beggar	n.	Someone who survives by asking others for food or money.
1168	homeless	n.	People lacking stable housing, living on streets.
1169	child labor	n.	Use of children in work harmful to their development.
1170	alcohol abuse	n.	Excessive drinking causing harm to health and relationships.
1171	AA	n.	International organization helping people stop drinking alcohol.
1172	alcoholic	n.	A person with a habit of drinking too much alcohol.
1173	prostitution	n.	Business or act of exchanging sex for money.
1174	deed	n.	An action or behavior performed by a person.
1175	attempted	adj.	Not done successfully, especially regarding crime or effort.
1176	big	adj.	Demanding much time, effort, money, or resources.
1177	desperate	adj.	Feeling extreme sadness mixed with hopelessness.
1178	failed	adj.	Not successful in achieving the desired goal.
1179	fatal	adj.	Causing severe harm or complete failure.
1180	problematic	adj.	Presenting difficulties or concerns needing careful attention.
1181	unambitious	adj.	Lacking strong desire or motivation to succeed.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1182	badly	adv.	In a way that is unsatisfactory or unsuccessful.
1183	hopeless	adj.	Having no expectation of improvement or success.
1184	loser	n.	Someone who usually fails and is unlikely to succeed.
1185	address	v.	To think about a problem and begin dealing with it.
1186	battle	v.	To overcome challenges, defend beliefs, or achieve something.
1187	bear	v.	To endure an unpleasant person, thing, or situation.
1188	comfort	v.	To lessen someone's emotional pain by showing kindness.
1189	confront	v.	To face a problem or difficult situation directly.
1190	loss	n.	The act or process of no longer having something.
1191	fulfill	v.	To accomplish something that was wished or promised.
1192	gain	v.	To obtain or achieve something desired or needed.
1193	handle	v.	To deal with a situation or problem successfully.
1194	obtain	v.	To get something, often requiring effort or difficulty.
1195	overcome	v.	To defeat someone or something in contest or challenge.
1196	ruin	v.	To cause severe damage or harm beyond repair.
1197	optimism	n.	Tendency to expect positive outcomes or good events.
1198	optimist	n.	A person expecting good things to happen confidently.
1199	pessimism	n.	Tendency to expect the worst possible outcomes.
1200	pessimist	n.	A person expecting bad events or seeing worst side.
1201	reach	v.	To achieve something after thinking or discussion.
1202	resolve	v.	To find a way to solve a disagreement or problem.
1203	struggle	n.	A great effort to fight back or break free.
1204	struggle	v.	To put effort into overcoming difficulties or achieving goals.
1205	let down	v.	To make someone disappointed by unmet expectations.
1206	go nowhere	phr.	To fail to achieve success despite efforts made.
1207	presentation	n.	The act of giving something formally to a person.
1208	chance	n.	A possibility arising from favorable circumstances.
1209	fault	n.	Responsibility attributed for a mistake or misfortune.
1210	duty	n.	An obligatory task required as part of one's job.
1211	target	n.	A goal or objective someone tries to achieve.
1212	determination	n.	Quality of pursuing something despite facing difficulties.
1213	disappoint	v.	To fail to meet someone's expectations, causing unhappiness.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1214	give up on	phr.	To stop believing in someone's possible positive development.
1215	rewarding	adj.	Producing satisfaction through desirable or valuable outcome.
1216	weakness	n.	Lack of ability, power, or effectiveness; flaw present.
1217	electric razor	n.	An electric device used for shaving facial or body hair.
1218	shaver	n.	An electric tool used to shave hair efficiently.
1219	sunscreen	n.	A cream applied to protect skin from harmful sun.
1220	shampoo	n.	A liquid used for cleaning hair thoroughly.
1221	conditioner	n.	A liquid or cream applied after shampooing hair.
1222	balm	n.	A soothing or healing substance applied to skin.
1223	lotion	n.	Any liquid put on skin to protect or moisturize.
1224	cosmetics	n.	Substances applied to skin to enhance appearance.
1225	gel	n.	A clear, jelly-like substance used on skin or hair.
1226	hairspray	n.	Cosmetic sprayed on hair to hold it in position.
1227	eyeliner	n.	A black cosmetic worn along eyes to enhance appearance.
1228	eyeshadow	n.	Colored powder or cream applied to eyelids decoratively.
1229	blush	n.	Powder or cream applied to cheeks for color.
1230	concealer	n.	Skin-toned cream or liquid hiding dark circles or blemishes.
1231	face powder	n.	Cosmetic powder applied to reduce shine and imperfections.
1232	foundation	n.	Cream, powder, or liquid applied to prepare skin for cosmetics.
1233	lip gloss	n.	Liquid or gel applied to lips for shine and color.
1234	lipstick	n.	Waxy colored make-up worn on lips.
1235	mascara	n.	Black make-up used to darken and lengthen eyelashes.
1236	nail polish	n.	Cosmetic liquid applied to nails for color or shine.
1237	face mask	n.	Substance temporarily applied to soothe or heal skin.
1238	dye	n.	Colored substance used to change material or hair color.
1239	tweezers	n.	Small tool used for gripping and plucking hairs or objects.
1240	cologne	n.	Liquid applied to skin or clothes to smell pleasant.
1241	deodorant	n.	Substance applied to skin to reduce or mask odor.
1242	mouthwash	n.	Antibacterial liquid rinsed in mouth for freshness and health.
1243	dental floss	n.	Soft thread used to clean between teeth.
1244	nail file	n.	Rough metal surface used to shape and smooth nails.
1245	cotton swab	n.	Small stick with cotton at ends for hygiene or cosmetics.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1246	makeup	n.	Substance applied to face to enhance appearance.
1247	nail clippers	n.	Tool used to cut and shorten fingernails or toenails.
1248	tampon	n.	Cotton material inserted to stop menstrual bleeding.
1249	beat	v.	To strike someone repeatedly, usually causing injury.
1250	clap	v.	To strike palms together forcefully to show appreciation.
1251	drag	v.	To pull something with effort along a surface.
1252	grab	v.	To take someone or something suddenly or violently.
1253	punch	v.	To hit someone or something quickly with a closed fist.
1254	shake	v.	To move someone's hand up and down for greeting.
1255	bend	v.	To move the upper part of the body downward.
1256	bow	v.	To bend the head or upper body as a sign of respect.
1257	lean	v.	To bend from straight position to rest against support.
1258	slouch	v.	To adopt a drooping, slumped, or lazy posture.
1259	kneel	v.	To support body weight on one or both knees.
1260	leap	v.	To jump very high or across a long distance.
1261	tiptoe	v.	To walk slowly and carefully on one's toes.
1262	crawl	v.	To move slowly on hands and knees near the ground.
1263	lie down	v.	To put the body in flat position for resting or sleeping.
1264	blink	v.	To open and close eyes quickly for a brief moment.
1265	gaze	v.	To look at someone or something without moving eyes.
1266	squint	v.	To look with eyes half-opened, often against bright light.
1267	stare	v.	To look at someone or something without blinking for long.
1268	wink	v.	To quickly open and close one eye as signal or joke.
1269	chuckle	v.	To laugh quietly with closed lips, showing mild amusement.
1270	giggle	v.	To laugh in a light, silly, or nervous way uncontrollably.
1271	smirk	v.	To give a half-smile showing satisfaction or superiority.
1272	march	v.	To walk firmly with regular, rhythmic steps.
1273	nod	v.	To move the head up and down in agreement or greeting.
1274	pace	v.	To walk back and forth repeatedly due to anxiety or thought.
1275	trip	v.	To slip or hit something causing momentary loss of balance.
1276	give sb bunny ears	phr.	To make V-shaped fingers behind someone's head jokingly.
1277	crouch	v.	To sit on calves with chest close to knees.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1278	wake	v.	To become conscious again after sleeping or resting.
1279	hammer	n.	Tool with metal head and handle used for striking.
1280	mallet	n.	Hammer-like tool with large wooden or rubber head.
1281	saw	n.	Metal tool with toothed blade used for cutting materials.
1282	chainsaw	n.	Engine-powered tool with toothed chain for cutting wood.
1283	drill	n.	Handheld tool using rotation to create holes or drive screws.
1284	wrench	n.	Hand tool with jaws used to grip, turn, or hold objects.
1285	screw	n.	Pointed metal piece fastened into objects with screwdriver.
1286	screwdriver	n.	Tool with metal tip used to turn screws.
1287	nail	n.	Pointed metal fastener hammered into surfaces to hold objects.
1288	glue	n.	Substance used to stick things together firmly.
1289	file	n.	Rough metal tool used to smooth wood or metal edges.
1290	chisel	n.	Tool with flat-edged blade used to shape hard materials.
1291	bolt	n.	Metal piece used to secure parts via holes and nut.
1292	nut	n.	Flat metal piece with hole used to fasten a bolt.
1293	washer	n.	Small flat ring used between nut and bolt to tighten connection.
1294	shovel	n.	Tool with broad curved metal end for moving soil or snow.
1295	wheelbarrow	n.	Object with handles and wheel used for carrying materials.
1296	toolbox	n.	Portable container for organizing and storing tools.
1297	pliers	n.	Tool with jaws used for gripping, bending, or cutting materials.
1298	wire cutter	n.	Hand tool designed for cutting wires or cables.
1299	duct tape	n.	Sticky silver tape used for repairing or securing objects.
1300	plunger	n.	Tool with rubber cup and handle for clearing blocked drains.
1301	crowbar	n.	Iron bar used as lever to lift or pry objects.
1302	staple gun	n.	Tool that uses staples to attach paper or materials.
1303	box cutter	n.	Small razor with adjustable blade used for cutting boxes.
1304	function	v.	To work or perform properly as intended.
1305	adjustable wrench	n.	Wrench with movable part to turn or hold various sizes.
1306	tape	n.	Flexible measuring strip used to measure lengths accurately.
1307	sledgehammer	n.	Large tool with heavy metal head used to break objects.
1308	ax	n.	Tool with long handle and heavy blade used for chopping wood.
1309	account	n.	A general description of an idea, theory, or event.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1310	approve	v.	To officially agree to a plan, proposal, or action.
1311	approval	n.	A formal agreement to something, idea, or plan.
1312	assess	v.	To form judgment on quality, worth, or importance.
1313	assessment	n.	The act of judging or evaluating carefully based on standards.
1314	associate	v.	To connect someone or something with another in mind.
1315	assume	v.	To think something is true without proof or evidence.
1316	case	n.	A series of facts supporting a theory or argument.
1317	common sense	n.	The ability to make sound judgments practically.
1318	conflict	n.	An instance of serious opposition between ideas or interests.
1319	estimate	n.	A judgment of size, value, or extent without exact details.
1320	controversy	n.	A strong disagreement or argument involving many people.
1321	controversial	adj.	Causing strong public disagreement or discussion frequently.
1322	consistent	adj.	Following the same course of action or behavior over time.
1323	furthermore	adv.	Used to introduce additional information or points.
1324	forum	n.	Public meeting place for discussion and exchanging views.
1325	counterargument	n.	An opposing argument challenging a theory or idea.
1326	disagreement	n.	A contrast of facts or opinions between two or more sides.
1327	incident	n.	A serious conflict or disagreement often involving countries.
1328	criticize	v.	To judge something based on positive or negative points.
1329	debate	n.	A discussion about a particular issue between opposing sides.
1330	defend	v.	To support someone or justify an action, plan, or decision.
1331	differ	v.	To disagree or hold different opinions or beliefs.
1332	divide	v.	To cause disagreement or separation among people.
1333	emphasize	v.	To give special attention or importance to something.
1334	fall out	v.	To no longer be friends due to an argument or dispute.
1335	fit	v.	To agree with or be suitable for a particular purpose.
1336	hold	v.	To have a specific opinion or belief about something.
1337	infer	v.	To reach an opinion based on available evidence.
1338	appreciate	v.	To value something or someone's good qualities.
1339	inference	n.	A conclusion reached from available evidence or facts.
1340	superficial	adj.	Not done thoroughly; only concerned with surface details.
1341	in a nutshell	phr.	Used to summarize or describe something very briefly.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1342	if you ask me	phr.	Used to introduce a personal opinion or perspective.
1343	figure	v.	To form an opinion based on available information.
1344	justify	v.	To provide valid reason or explanation for an action.
1345	in the first place	adv.	Used to explain the main reason or starting point.
1346	object	v.	To give a fact or opinion against something.
1347	objective	adj.	Based only on facts, not influenced by personal feelings.
1348	subjective	adj.	Based on personal feelings or opinions rather than facts.
1349	maintain	v.	To persistently express an opinion as true and valid.
1350	may	v.	To admit a statement is true before making another.
1351	name	v.	To state the name of someone or something clearly.
1352	oppose	v.	To strongly disagree with and try to prevent something.
1353	opposed	adj.	Trying to stop something because of strong disagreement.
1354	reckon	v.	To think or have an opinion about something.
1355	regard	v.	To think about someone or something in a specified way.
1356	remark	v.	To express one's opinion through a statement.
1357	speculate	v.	To form a theory or opinion without knowing all facts.
1358	speculation	n.	Creation of theories or opinions without facts or proof.
1359	stance	n.	A deliberate mental or emotional attitude toward something.
1360	stand	v.	To have a certain opinion regarding an issue.
1361	sum up	v.	To express a brief conclusion based on available information.
1362	misunderstanding	n.	The act of interpreting something incorrectly.
1363	perception	n.	The idea formed based on one's understanding of something.
1364	position	n.	An opinion held in opposition to another in a dispute.
1365	proof	n.	Act of testing or verifying truth using evidence or argument.
1366	public opinion	n.	Collective attitudes, beliefs, and views held by population.
1367	reason	n.	Mind's power to understand or think logically.
1368	remark	n.	Something said showing one's opinion about something.
1369	reputation	n.	General opinion public holds about someone based on past.
1370	right	int.	Used to show one's agreement or acknowledgment.
1371	side	n.	One of the people or groups involved in an argument.
1372	while	conj.	Used to indicate contrast between two ideas or actions.
1373	sign	v.	To use sign language to communicate with others.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1374	likewise	int.	Used to show agreement or willingness to do the same.
1375	judgment	n.	An opinion formed after careful thinking or consideration.
1376	altar	n.	The table in a church used for giving communion.
1377	cross	n.	A representation of the structure on which Jesus died.
1378	atheism	n.	The belief rejecting the existence of God or higher power.
1379	Buddhism	n.	An Indian religion following teachings of Siddhartha Gautama.
1380	Christian	n.	A person who believes in Jesus' teachings or is baptized.
1381	Hindu	n.	A person who believes in Hinduism and its traditions.
1382	Jew	n.	A person who believes in Judaism and is part of community.
1383	Jewish	adj.	Related to the religion, culture, or people of Judaism.
1384	Muslim	n.	A person who believes in Islam and follows its teachings.
1385	pagan	n.	A person believing in many deities, often pre-major religions.
1386	bible	n.	The holy Christian book consisting of Old and New Testaments.
1387	sin	n.	Any act that goes against the law of God.
1388	vice	n.	Any immoral act considered against the law of God.
1389	grace	n.	A state of being under divine influence or favor.
1390	pride	n.	Excessive self-esteem considered a sin in religious beliefs.
1391	greed	n.	Intense selfish desire for wealth, power, or possessions.
1392	lust	n.	Excessive sexual desire considered a deadly sin.
1393	envy	n.	Dissatisfaction from wanting what others have.
1394	laziness	n.	Indifference or inactivity in moral or virtuous practice.
1395	confess	v.	To admit one's faults or sins in front of a priest.
1396	convert	v.	To change one's religious beliefs to a different one.
1397	forgive	v.	To stop being angry and choose not to punish someone.
1398	trust	v.	To believe someone is sincere, reliable, or competent.
1399	devil	n.	Spirit opposing God and tempting people to do wrong.
1400	prophet	n.	Someone believed to speak by divine inspiration.
1401	service	n.	Religious ceremony of worship following a particular form.
1402	soul	n.	Spiritual part of a person believed to be their life essence.
1403	spiritual	adj.	Relating to sacred matters such as religion or church.
1404	grave	n.	Hole in the ground for burying a dead body.
1405	godchild	n.	Child whose godparent promises religious guidance and care.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1406	devout	adj.	Believing firmly in a particular religion.
1407	godfather	n.	Man promising to care for and teach child about religion.
1408	godmother	n.	Woman promising to care for and teach child about religion.
1409	angle	n.	Space between two lines or surfaces joined together.
1410	curve	n.	A line or shape that bends gradually, not straight.
1411	form	n.	The shape or outline of someone or something.
1412	curved	adj.	Having a shape that is rounded rather than straight.
1413	horizontal	adj.	Positioned across and parallel to the ground.
1414	vertical	adj.	Positioned at right angles to the horizon or ground.
1415	parallel	adj.	Having equal distance from each other at all points.
1416	shaped	adj.	Having a particular external structure or form.
1417	cube	n.	Three-dimensional figure with six square or rectangular faces.
1418	pentagon	n.	Geometric shape with five angles and five sides.
1419	oval	n.	Shape wide in the middle and narrow at both ends.
1420	rectangle	n.	Flat shape with four right angles and opposing equal sides.
1421	triangle	n.	Flat shape consisting of three straight sides and angles.
1422	hollow	adj.	Having an empty space inside or within something.
1423	pointed	adj.	Having an end or tip that is sharp or tapered.
1424	level	adj.	Having a surface that is flat and horizontal.
1425	steep	adj.	(Of an angle) measuring less than ninety degrees.
1426	paleness	n.	The quality of having a light or faded color.
1427	dye	v.	To change the color of something using liquid substance.
1428	light-colored	adj.	Having a bright or pale shade of a color.
1429	deep	adj.	(Of a color) showing darkness and intensity.
1430	blood-red	adj.	Having a deep red color resembling blood or fresh berries.
1431	chocolate	n.	Having a dark or deep brown color like chocolate.
1432	coffee	n.	Shade ranging from pale brown to medium brown.
1433	lemon	adj.	Having a bright yellow color like lemon fruit.
1434	navy blue	adj.	Having a very dark blue color like deep sea.
1435	maroon	adj.	Having a dark brownish-red color.
1436	violet	adj.	Having a bluish-purple color.
1437	rose	adj.	Having a pink color between red and magenta on spectrum.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1438	budget	adj.	Economical and not expensive, suitable for saving money.
1439	lounge	n.	Comfortable area where people relax, wait, or socialize.
1440	checkout	n.	Time when a guest leaves hotel and pays bills.
1441	resident	n.	Someone staying temporarily in a hotel or lodging.
1442	room service	n.	Hotel service delivering food, drinks, or amenities to room.
1443	travel agency	n.	Business arranging trips and vacations for people.
1444	E-ticket	n.	Online ticket received electronically instead of paper format.
1445	vacationer	n.	Person traveling away from home for leisure or relaxation.
1446	excursion	n.	Short trip taken for pleasure, often organized for group.
1447	get away	v.	To go on vacation away from home for leisure.
1448	trek	v.	To go on a long walk or journey, often adventurous.
1449	aisle	n.	Narrow passage separating rows of seats in venue.
1450	cabin	n.	Area where passengers sit inside an airplane.
1451	cabin crew	n.	Group responsible for looking after aircraft passengers.
1452	baggage claim	n.	Airport area where passengers collect luggage after landing.
1453	jet lag	n.	Confusion and tiredness from rapid multi-time zone travel.
1454	terminal	n.	Building where trains, planes, or buses start or finish journey.
1455	main line	n.	Important railroad line connecting two major cities or towns.
1456	cruise	v.	To go on vacation by traveling on a ship or boat.
1457	delay	v.	To arrive later than expected or originally planned.
1458	navigate	v.	To travel across water by ship or boat safely.
1459	caravan	n.	Vehicle pulled by car where people sleep and live.
1460	railroad crossing	n.	Place where road meets railway with signals or gates.
1461	compartment	n.	Separate section within passenger train carriage with seats.
1462	rest stop	n.	Area near road for people to eat, rest, or refresh.
1463	gift shop	n.	Store selling souvenirs or small items suitable for gifts.
1464	hot-air balloon	n.	Large balloon filled with hot air to float in sky.
1465	April Fools' Day	n.	April 1st when people play pranks on each other.
1466	Independence Day	n.	July 4th celebrating American independence from Britain.
1467	New Year's Eve	n.	Evening of December 31st, last day of the year.
1468	St. Patrick's Day	n.	March 17th holiday honoring Saint Patrick of Ireland.
1469	Mardi Gras	n.	Day before Lent celebrated with parades and costumes.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1470	transportation	n.	Act or business of moving people or goods from place.
1471	act	n.	Main part of a play, opera, or ballet performance.
1472	adapt	v.	To change work so it can be made into movie.
1473	box office	n.	Total income a movie earns from selling tickets.
1474	appear	v.	To take part in a play, TV show, or movie.
1475	cast	v.	To choose a performer to play a role in production.
1476	project	v.	To make an image or movie appear on flat surface.
1477	screen	v.	To show video or film in theater or on television.
1478	rerun	n.	Rebroadcast of a program on television or other media.
1479	screening	n.	Showing of a movie to an audience at scheduled time.
1480	shoot	v.	To film or photograph something for production.
1481	stage	v.	To present a play or other event to audience.
1482	cinephile	n.	Someone who loves movies very much and passionately.
1483	animated	adj.	Images or drawings in movie made to appear in motion.
1484	clip	n.	Short part of a movie or broadcast viewed separately.
1485	cue	n.	Few words or actions hinting another performer's next action.
1486	double	n.	Person substituting for actor, often in dangerous scenes.
1487	stunt	n.	Dangerous and difficult action performed to entertain people.
1488	lighting engineer	n.	Technician in charge of lights on set or stage.
1489	manager	n.	Person handling business affairs of actor, musician, or player.
1490	screenwriter	n.	Person whose job is to write scripts for movies.
1491	opening	n.	First public presentation of play, movie, or other entertainment.
1492	preview	n.	Showing of movie, play, or exhibition to select audience.
1493	rehearsal	n.	Session where performers practice for public performance.
1494	rehearse	v.	To practice a play, music, or performance before showing.
1495	show business	n.	Industry or profession providing public entertainment.
1496	subtitle	n.	Transcribed or translated words appearing at bottom of screen.
1497	sound effect	n.	Artificial sound created to enhance realism of production.
1498	wind machine	n.	Machine used to create artificial wind on set or stage.
1499	account for	v.	To serve as the reason for a specific outcome.
1500	alter	v.	To cause something to undergo a noticeable change.
1501	arise	v.	To begin to exist or become apparent suddenly.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1502	boost	v.	To increase or improve growth, success, or progress.
1503	build up	v.	To become more powerful, intense, or larger gradually.
1504	climb	v.	To increase in amount, value, or intensity steadily.
1505	contribute	v.	To help cause or support a particular event happening.
1506	contribution	n.	Someone or something's role in achieving a positive result.
1507	decline	v.	To reduce in size, amount, intensity, or strength.
1508	enhance	v.	To improve or increase quality, strength, or value.
1509	extend	v.	To enlarge or lengthen an object, action, or period.
1510	straighten	v.	To make something move or extend in a single direction.
1511	gain	v.	To increase in value, particularly currency, price, or quantity.
1512	jump	v.	To increase sharply, especially a rate, price, or quantity.
1513	lower	v.	To decrease in amount, degree, quality, or strength.
1514	modify	v.	To make minor changes so that something becomes better.
1515	mount	v.	To gradually rise, increase, or grow in intensity.
1516	multiply	v.	To increase significantly in quantity, number, or intensity.
1517	recover	v.	To return to normal condition after a period of difficulty.
1518	trigger	v.	To cause something to happen, often suddenly or directly.
1519	expansion	n.	An increase in size, amount, importance, or degree.
1520	implication	n.	A possible consequence or effect that may result.
1521	means	n.	A method, system, or object used to achieve a goal.
1522	outcome	n.	The result or consequence produced by an action or event.
1523	reduction	n.	A decline in quantity, degree, or level of something.
1524	root	n.	The primary cause or origin of a particular event.
1525	responsible	adj.	Being the main cause or source of a particular outcome.
1526	increasingly	adv.	Gradually growing in degree, extent, or frequency over time.
1527	life-changing	adj.	Having such impact that it can transform someone's life.
1528	significant	adj.	Important or great enough to attract attention or have impact.
1529	significantly	adv.	To a noticeable or considerable degree or extent.
1530	following	prep.	Occurring as a result of or after a particular event.
1531	hence	adv.	Used to indicate a result or consequence of something.
1532	thus	adv.	Used to introduce a conclusion based on prior information.
1533	inspire	v.	To fill someone with motivation or desire to act positively.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1534	ground zero	n.	Initial stage or location where a major event begins.
1535	flash	v.	To shine brightly for a brief and sudden time.
1536	humidity	n.	The amount of moisture present in the surrounding air.
1537	airless	adj.	Lacking sufficient circulation of fresh or moving air.
1538	seasonal	adj.	Typical or customary for a specific period of year.
1539	falling	adj.	Becoming less in quantity, intensity, or value gradually.
1540	rising	adj.	Increasing in degree, number, height, or intensity steadily.
1541	changeable	adj.	Characterized by frequent, unpredictable, or sudden changes.
1542	cloudless	adj.	Completely clear or free from clouds in the sky.
1543	heavy	adj.	Sky covered with dark clouds, often indicating rain.
1544	regional	adj.	Related to or involving a particular geographic area.
1545	stable	adj.	Remaining constant, steady, or not subject to change.
1546	steady	adj.	Not subject to significant change, fluctuation, or decline.
1547	windless	adj.	Calm and without any noticeable movement of air.
1548	chill	n.	The physical feeling or sensation of coldness.
1549	warmth	n.	The quality or state of moderate or comfortable heat.
1550	frosty	adj.	Extremely cold weather causing thin ice layers to form.
1551	dry season	n.	Period of the year during which there is little or no rain.
1552	dust storm	n.	Strong winds lifting soil or dust clouds, reducing visibility.
1553	flooding	n.	Presence of water covering normally dry land areas.
1554	mist	n.	Thin fog-like cloud made of tiny suspended water droplets.
1555	rainbow	n.	Arc of bent lines of different colors appearing after rain.
1556	tsunami	n.	Very high wave caused by undersea earthquake or eruption.
1557	typhoon	n.	Tropical storm with violent winds forming over western Pacific.
1558	rain cats and dogs	v.	To rain extremely hard or pour heavily.
1559	shadow	n.	Dark shape cast by an object blocking light from a surface.
1560	overcast	adj.	Sky filled with dark clouds, dull, and gloomy weather.
1561	thunderbolt	n.	Flash of lightning occurring simultaneously with loud thunder.
1562	cornfield	n.	A farming land in which corn is planted for harvest.
1563	plantation	n.	A large land used for growing crops in hot regions.
1564	cowboy	n.	A male rider who manages cattle, especially in western America.
1565	crop	n.	All fruit, vegetables, or grain harvested during a farming season.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1566	groundwater	n.	Water held in soil, rocks, or beneath the earth surface.
1567	erosion	n.	Gradual destruction of soil and rock by natural forces.
1568	pesticide	n.	A chemical used for killing insects or small animals.
1569	agricultural	adj.	Related to the practice or science of farming crops.
1570	edible	adj.	Safe or suitable for consumption as food by humans.
1571	fertile	adj.	Able to produce offspring, fruit, or seed naturally.
1572	produce	n.	Products grown or made on a farm like fruits and vegetables.
1573	barley	n.	A single seed or grain from the cereal plant barley.
1574	legume	n.	A plant whose pods contain seeds, such as beans.
1575	hay	n.	Cut and dried grass used as feed for animals.
1576	soy	n.	A leguminous plant used for food and protein replacement.
1577	sugar cane	n.	A tall tropical plant from which sugar is extracted.
1578	dig	v.	To remove earth or another substance using hands or tools.
1579	harness	v.	To secure and connect an animal to equipment for work.
1580	harvest	v.	To collect crops or fish for human consumption or storage.
1581	keep	v.	To own and care for animals on a farm or property.
1582	load	v.	To fill or pack a space with specified items efficiently.
1583	package	v.	To pack items for selling or transporting purposes safely.
1584	pile	v.	To lay objects on top of each other in layers.
1585	uproot	v.	To remove a plant completely by pulling it from the ground.
1586	livestock	n.	Animals such as cows, pigs, or sheep kept on a farm.
1587	boar	n.	A domestic male pig typically used for breeding purposes.
1588	calf	n.	The young offspring of a cow or bull under one year old.
1589	hog	n.	A domestic pig raised mainly for its meat.
1590	pony	n.	A small horse breed, typically less than standard height.
1591	honeycomb	n.	A structure made by bees with hexagonal cells storing honey.
1592	poultry	n.	Turkeys, chickens, geese, or ducks kept for eggs and meat.
1593	ostrich	n.	A large, flightless bird with long neck and legs, native to Africa.
1594	appeal	v.	To attract or gain interest, approval, or admiration from others.
1595	consult	v.	To seek information or advice from someone before deciding.
1596	favorite	n.	Someone or something liked more than others of the same kind.
1597	shy away from	v.	To avoid an activity or person due to fear or lack of confidence.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1598	pick out	v.	To choose one item or person from a larger group or collection.
1599	turn to	v.	To seek guidance, help, or advice from a person or source.
1600	dislike	n.	The feeling of not liking someone or something in particular.
1601	preference	n.	A tendency to favor one option over other available alternatives.
1602	resolution	n.	A firm decision to act or behave in a certain way consistently.
1603	taste	n.	The ability to recognize good quality or high-standard things.
1604	liking	n.	A positive feeling or preference toward someone or something.
1605	alternatively	adv.	As a second choice or another possible option to consider.
1606	instead	adv.	As a replacement or in place of another option or thing.
1607	disrespect	v.	To act toward someone showing lack of respect or courtesy.
1608	die	v.	To have a strong longing or intense desire for something.
1609	ask for	v.	To state that one wants to see or speak someone.
1610	back down	v.	To admit defeat and retreat from a position or claim.
1611	believe in	v.	To firmly trust in the goodness or value of something.
1612	bring up	v.	To mention or introduce a particular subject for discussion.
1613	catch up	v.	To go faster and reach someone or something ahead.
1614	cheer up	v.	To make oneself or someone feel happy or satisfied.
1615	clean up	v.	To make oneself or a place neat, tidy, or clean.
1616	come across	v.	To discover, meet, or find someone or something by chance.
1617	eat out	v.	To eat at a restaurant instead of eating at home.
1618	end up	v.	To eventually reach a place, condition, or situation unexpectedly.
1619	fall apart	v.	To break into pieces due to extremely bad condition or neglect.
1620	figure out	v.	To find the answer to a question, problem, or situation.
1621	give away	v.	To give something as a gift or donation to someone freely.
1622	go over	v.	To thoroughly review, examine, or check something carefully.
1623	hang on	v.	To ask someone to wait briefly or pause for a short moment.
1624	hang out	v.	To spend time in a specific place or with someone casually.
1625	pass away	v.	To no longer be alive; to die or cease living.
1626	see to	v.	To attend to or take responsibility for a specific task or duty.
1627	show up	v.	To arrive at an event or appointment where one is expected.
1628	sort out	v.	To organize things and resolve a problem by finding a solution.
1629	throw away	v.	To get rid of something that is no longer needed or wanted.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1630	turn down	v.	To decline an invitation, request, or offer politely.
1631	put in	v.	To interrupt someone in order to say or add something.
1632	wipe out	v.	To entirely remove or destroy something completely.
1633	pile up	v.	To stack objects on top of each other in a growing accumulation.
1634	put out	v.	To make something stop burning, shining, or functioning.
1635	root for	v.	To support someone, a team, or hope for their success.
1636	come away	v.	To leave a place with a certain impression or feeling about it.
1637	fly into	v.	To suddenly enter an intense emotional or mental state quickly.
1638	stash away	v.	To secretly store something for later use or safekeeping.
1639	capitalize on	v.	To use an opportunity effectively to gain benefit or advantage.
1640	pick up	v.	To retrieve an item from a place where it was left previously.
1641	aggressive	adj.	Behaving angrily with tendency to be violent toward others.
1642	astonished	adj.	Feeling very surprised or impressed by something unexpected.
1643	bitter	adj.	Refusing to let go of anger or past resentment.
1644	breathhtaking	adj.	Extremely impressive, beautiful, or astonishing to the viewer.
1645	cheerless	adj.	Lacking joy, positivity, or happiness in mood or environment.
1646	delighted	adj.	Filled with great pleasure, joy, or satisfaction at something.
1647	depressing	adj.	Causing feelings of sadness, hopelessness, or low spirits.
1648	disgusting	adj.	Extremely unpleasant, offensive, or repulsive to senses or mind.
1649	down	adj.	Experiencing temporary sadness or low emotional state.
1650	dreadful	adj.	Very bad or unpleasant, often causing anger or annoyance.
1651	dull	adj.	Boring, uninteresting, or lacking excitement and liveliness.
1652	emotional	adj.	Easily affected by or expressing strong feelings and emotions.
1653	empty	adj.	Lacking emotion, feeling, or meaningful content internally.
1654	fascinated	adj.	Intensely interested or captivated by someone or something.
1655	exhausting	adj.	Causing extreme tiredness or depletion of energy.
1656	fearful	adj.	Filled with fear, anxiety, or apprehension about something.
1657	fed up	adj.	Feeling annoyed, frustrated, or tired of a situation repeatedly.
1658	homesick	adj.	Feeling sadness due to being away from one's home.
1659	satisfied	adj.	Content or pleased with a result, outcome, or situation.
1660	terrifying	adj.	Causing extreme fear, panic, or horror in a person.
1661	uncomfortable	adj.	Feeling uneasy, embarrassed, or anxious about a situation.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1662	amaze	v.	To greatly surprise or astonish someone unexpectedly.
1663	regret	v.	To feel sorrow or longing for something lost or missed.
1664	panic	n.	A sudden feeling of extreme fear and inability to think clearly.
1665	pity	n.	Feeling sadness for another person's suffering or misfortune.
1666	shock	n.	Sudden and intense feeling of surprise, distress, or disbelief.
1667	stress	n.	A feeling of anxiety, worry, or pressure caused by life problems.
1668	terror	n.	A feeling of extreme fear, dread, or panic.
1669	thrill	n.	A sudden feeling of excitement, pleasure, or intense emotion.
1670	worry	n.	A state of anxiety or concern about potential problems.
1671	depression	n.	A state of persistent sadness, hopelessness, and low energy.
1672	rage	n.	Extreme anger that is difficult to control or contain.
1673	entertainment	n.	The act of providing activities or performances to amuse people.
1674	recreation	n.	Activities done in free time for pleasure or enjoyment.
1675	charades	n.	A silent game using gestures to express words or phrases.
1676	jigsaw puzzle	n.	A picture cut into pieces that must fit together to complete.
1677	playmate	n.	Someone a child plays with during free time or games.
1678	playing card	n.	One card in a set used for various card games.
1679	club	n.	A red-black leaf-shaped suit in a deck of playing cards.
1680	diamond	n.	A red diamond-shaped suit in a deck of playing cards.
1681	heart	n.	A red heart-shaped suit in a deck of playing cards.
1682	spade	n.	A black pointed-leaf suit in a deck of playing cards.
1683	hand	n.	The set of cards a player is dealt in a game.
1684	rag doll	n.	A soft doll made from pieces of cloth shaped like a human.
1685	piece	n.	A small object that a player moves in a board game.
1686	Lego	n.	A toy with colored plastic blocks that fit together for building.
1687	monopoly	n.	A board game using currency to buy streets or buildings.
1688	scrabble	n.	A board game forming words using lettered blocks on a board.
1689	scoreboard	n.	A board displaying the score in a game or contest.
1690	avatar	n.	An image representing a player or account in a game or online.
1691	joystick	n.	A lever moved to control a character or object in a video game.
1692	action	n.	The act of fighting a war or military battle.
1693	advance	n.	A forward movement of soldiers toward an objective or position.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1694	camp	n.	A military facility where troops are stationed for operations.
1695	military	adj.	Relating to soldiers or armed forces and their operations.
1696	air force	n.	The branch of armed forces operating aircraft in combat.
1697	navy	n.	The branch of armed forces operating at sea using warships.
1698	strategy	n.	The planning of attacks or defense in military operations.
1699	arms	n.	Weapons, especially those used by military forces.
1700	grenade	n.	A small bomb that explodes, thrown by hand or fired.
1701	handgun	n.	A firearm that can be operated using only one hand.
1702	mine	n.	An explosive device placed on or under ground or sea.
1703	campaign	n.	A series of military operations toward a specific objective.
1704	command	v.	To have authority over or be in charge of troops.
1705	invade	v.	To enter a territory using armed forces to occupy or control.
1706	recruit	v.	To find and enlist people into the armed forces.
1707	strike	v.	To hit using hands, weapons, or military force.
1708	gunfight	n.	A fight between two or more parties using guns.
1709	armed	adj.	Equipped with weapons or firearms for combat.
1710	civil	adj.	Involving ordinary people not part of the military forces.
1711	occupied	adj.	Controlled or held by foreign military forces.
1712	parade	n.	A military display of troops, units, and equipment in formation.
1713	prisoner of war	n.	Someone captured by the enemy during a military conflict.
1714	rank	n.	The hierarchical level held by a member of armed forces.
1715	refugee	n.	A person forced to leave their country due to war or disaster.
1716	volunteer	n.	Someone who enlists in the armed forces willingly.
1717	tank	n.	A heavily armored military vehicle with a large gun and tracks.
1718	warship	n.	A ship built for combat and equipped with weapons.
1719	target	n.	A person, building, or area marked for attack.
1720	wreck	v.	To damage or destroy something severely, often intentionally.
1721	spoil	n.	Valuables taken by force, especially during war or raids.
1722	wound	v.	To cause physical injury or harm to someone.
1723	dogfight	n.	Aerial combat between two or more fighter aircraft.
1724	marine	n.	A soldier trained for operations on land and at sea.
1725	gun down	v.	To seriously injure or kill someone by shooting them.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1726	sidearm	n.	A weapon, usually gun or knife, carried on the body's side.
1727	bulletproof	adj.	Constructed to prevent penetration by bullets or projectiles.
1728	abandoned	adj.	Left and no longer used, wanted, or cared for.
1729	classical	adj.	Related to language, literature, art, or ancient culture.
1730	external	adj.	Located on the outer surface of an object or structure.
1731	industrial	adj.	Related to large-scale manufacturing or production of goods.
1732	open-plan	adj.	Rooms or buildings designed with few or no internal walls.
1733	spacious	adj.	Large in size with a lot of open space inside.
1734	construct	v.	To build something such as a house, bridge, or machine.
1735	brick	n.	A rectangular block of baked clay used for building structures.
1736	column	n.	A vertical structural element supporting weight above it.
1737	development	n.	Land on which new buildings are being built or planned.
1738	digger	n.	A machine used to remove or move earth efficiently.
1739	passage	n.	A narrow corridor giving access to rooms or areas.
1740	exit	n.	Part of a road allowing vehicles to leave or continue elsewhere.
1741	hut	n.	A small simple house or shelter with typically one room.
1742	level	v.	To completely destroy a building, area, or structure.
1743	ruin	n.	The remains of a building or structure after severe damage.
1744	curb	n.	The raised edge along a street, usually made of stone.
1745	landfill	n.	Land where waste material is buried under the surface.
1746	sewer	n.	Underground system for carrying away used water and waste.
1747	landmark	n.	A historically significant structure or notable location.
1748	monument	n.	A structure built to honor a public figure or significant event.
1749	facility	n.	A building designed for a specific function or purpose.
1750	casino	n.	A place where people gamble by playing games of chance.
1751	courthouse	n.	A building containing judicial courts and offices of judges.
1752	disco	n.	A venue or party where people dance to music.
1753	nursing home	n.	Private institute for caring for elderly people.
1754	schoolhouse	n.	A small building, often in villages, used as a school.
1755	structure	n.	Anything built from multiple parts, such as houses or bridges.
1756	funeral home	n.	Place where bodies are prepared for burial or cremation.
1757	graveyard	n.	Land where deceased people are buried, often near a church.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1758	tomb	n.	A large grave, overground or underground, often built of stone.
1759	biochemistry	n.	The study of chemical processes occurring in living organisms.
1760	biological	adj.	Related to the study of living organisms and their functions.
1761	artificial	adj.	Made by humans rather than occurring naturally in nature.
1762	being	n.	A living entity such as a human, animal, or plant.
1763	genetics	n.	The study of inheritance and passing traits through genes.
1764	solution	n.	A homogeneous mixture of two or more liquids or substances.
1765	boiling point	n.	The temperature at which a liquid begins to vaporize or boil.
1766	freezing point	n.	The temperature at which a liquid solidifies completely.
1767	advance	v.	To help something progress, improve, or succeed effectively.
1768	absorb	v.	To take in or soak up energy, liquid, or other substances.
1769	activate	v.	To make a substance radioactive or chemically reactive.
1770	generate	v.	To produce energy such as electricity, heat, or mechanical power.
1771	field	n.	Space within which a particular force or effect exists.
1772	wire	n.	Long, thin piece of metal that conducts electricity.
1773	live wire	n.	Wire carrying current that can cause electric shock if touched.
1774	motion	n.	Natural process involving a change in position or orientation.
1775	monitor	v.	To observe, check, or track something carefully over time.
1776	rate	n.	The number of times something occurs during a specific period.
1777	weathering	n.	Changes in rocks due to sunlight, wind, or water over time.
1778	impervious	adj.	Not allowing liquids or substances to pass through or penetrate.
1779	arc	n.	A curved segment forming part of a circle.
1780	area	n.	Measurement of the surface of a flat or irregular space.
1781	point	n.	An exact position with no size or dimension.
1782	space	n.	An empty area available for use or occupation.
1783	volume	n.	Amount of space occupied by a substance or inside an object.
1784	addition	n.	Calculation of the total of two or more numbers combined.
1785	deduction	n.	Process of subtracting an amount from a total.
1786	division	n.	Calculating how many times one number fits into another.
1787	multiplication	n.	Repeated addition of a number a specific number of times.
1788	times	prep.	Used to indicate one number is multiplied by another.
1789	fraction	n.	A number representing part of a whole or ratio of integers.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1790	percentage	n.	A fraction of a total expressed as parts of one hundred.
1791	probability	n.	Likelihood or chance of a specific event occurring.
1792	equal sign	n.	Symbol = indicating two quantities are identical in value.
1793	amount to	v.	To reach a total when several amounts are combined.
1794	digit	n.	Any numeral from zero to nine used in calculations.
1795	minus	n.	Symbol - indicating subtraction or a negative number.
1796	plus	n.	Symbol + representing addition or a positive number.
1797	graph	n.	Visual representation of relationships between variables.
1798	pie chart	n.	Graph showing parts of a whole divided into circular segments.
1799	mathematician	n.	Specialist or expert in mathematics.
1800	measure	n.	Unit representing size, amount, or degree of something.
1801	acre	n.	Unit of land equal to 4047 square meters or 4840 square yards.
1802	degree	n.	Unit for measuring angles, usually shown with ° symbol.
1803	statistic	n.	Number representing measurements, facts, or data in context.
1804	rank	v.	To assign a position according to quality, importance, or value.
1805	rate	v.	To judge and assign a score according to a specific scale.
1806	massive	adj.	Extremely large, heavy, or substantial in size or quantity.
1807	multiple	adj.	Consisting of or involving several parts, elements, or people.
1808	numerous	adj.	Existing in or indicating a very large quantity or amount.
1809	vast	adj.	Extremely great in size, area, extent, or scope.
1810	section	n.	Each individual part into which a place or object is divided.
1811	accompany	v.	To go somewhere together with another person or group.
1812	acquire	v.	To gain knowledge, skills, or possessions through effort.
1813	approach	v.	To come near a particular object, amount, or condition.
1814	concern	v.	To cause worry or anxiety to someone about something.
1815	deserve	v.	To merit a particular treatment or outcome based on actions.
1816	emerge	v.	To become visible after being hidden or obscured.
1817	engage	v.	To actively participate or become involved with an activity.
1818	excuse	v.	To forgive someone for an error or unintended offense.
1819	interrupt	v.	To temporarily stop or hinder a process or activity.
1820	range	v.	To include or cover a variety of different things.
1821	rely	v.	To depend completely on someone or something for support.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1822	retain	v.	To continue to hold or keep something over time.
1823	seek	v.	To attempt to find or obtain a particular object or information.
1824	sense	v.	To perceive something using the body's sensory mechanisms.
1825	shape	v.	To give a specific form or structure to something.
1826	shift	v.	To move from one place, position, or state to another.
1827	split	v.	To divide into parts or separate sections or groups.
1828	spot	v.	To notice or identify something difficult to see or detect.
1829	surround	v.	To be all around something or someone on every side.
1830	swear	v.	To assert strongly that something is true or binding.
1831	tear	v.	To pull apart forcibly into pieces or segments.
1832	transfer	v.	To move a person or object from one place to another.
1833	transform	v.	To change the form, appearance, or nature of something.
1834	urge	v.	To strongly recommend or encourage someone to take action.
1835	vary	v.	To change or differ according to situations, conditions, or time.
1836	whisper	v.	To speak very quietly so others nearby cannot easily hear.
1837	soil	v.	To make dirty or stain something, usually with mud or filth.
1838	go	v.	To change into a particular state, often undesirable.
1839	sound	v.	To convey a specific impression when heard or read.
1840	concern	v.	To involve or relate to someone or something.
1841	oversleep	v.	To wake later than intended after sleeping for too long.
1842	preserve	v.	To protect something from harm, decay, or destruction.
1843	resurface	v.	To appear again after being absent or unseen for some time.
1844	aside	adv.	Toward the side, away from the main path or focus.
1845	apparently	adv.	Seemingly true based on the available evidence or observation.
1846	approximately	adv.	Not exact, but close in number, amount, or measurement.
1847	basically	adv.	In a simple or fundamental manner, ignoring minor details.
1848	consistently	adv.	In a manner that remains the same over time.
1849	constantly	adv.	Without pause or interruption; occurring all the time.
1850	critically	adv.	In a way that expresses fault-finding or disapproval.
1851	daringly	adv.	In an adventurous or bold manner, showing courage.
1852	deeply	adv.	Expressing strong intensity of emotion or concern.
1853	deliberately	adv.	Done consciously and intentionally, not by accident.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1854	disappointingly	adv.	Falling short of expectations or desired standards.
1855	elsewhere	adv.	At, in, or to another place, not here.
1856	entirely	adv.	Completely; to the fullest degree possible.
1857	gradually	adv.	In small amounts over an extended period of time.
1858	harmlessly	adv.	In a manner that does not cause harm or danger.
1859	hopelessly	adv.	In a manner that cannot be improved or corrected.
1860	initially	adv.	At the starting point of a process or situation.
1861	inevitably	adv.	In a way that cannot be stopped; certain to happen.
1862	largely	adv.	For the greatest part; mostly or primarily.
1863	literally	adv.	Exactly as stated, without exaggeration or figurative meaning.
1864	nevertheless	adv.	Used to introduce a statement that contrasts prior information.
1865	occasionally	adv.	Not occurring regularly; happening at infrequent intervals.
1866	otherwise	adv.	Referring to a different outcome if conditions were different.
1867	overall	adv.	Including everything; taking all factors into account.
1868	partly	adv.	To a specific degree, but not completely.
1869	precisely	adv.	In an exact and accurate manner, emphasizing correctness.
1870	relatively	adv.	To a specific degree, especially in comparison to others.
1871	strictly	adv.	Demanding full adherence; completely in accordance with rules.
1872	somewhat	adv.	To a moderate or limited degree; partially.
1873	subsequently	adv.	After a particular event or time; following in order.
1874	truly	adv.	In a sincere and genuine manner; with heartfelt honesty.
1875	ultimately	adv.	After considering everything; in the end or final analysis.
1876	unsuccessfully	adv.	Failing to achieve the desired or intended outcome.
1877	way	adv.	To emphasize the extent or intensity of something.
1878	a tad	n.	A small amount or slight degree of something.
1879	widely	adv.	To a great extent; covering or affecting many areas or people.
1880	gently	adv.	In a kind, tender, or considerate manner.
1881	alongside	adv.	Close or next to the side of something or someone.
1882	accordingly	adv.	In a manner appropriate to the given circumstances.
1883	beyond	adv.	At or to the side that is further; exceeding a point.
1884	absolute	adj.	Complete and total, without imperfections or exceptions.
1885	accurate	adj.	Free from errors; matching facts or reality precisely.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1886	actual	adj.	Existing in reality rather than being imagined or theoretical.
1887	additional	adj.	Added or extra to what already exists.
1888	advance	adj.	Done, provided, or arranged before the expected future event.
1889	apparent	adj.	Easy to see, notice, or perceive clearly.
1890	appropriate	adj.	Suitable or acceptable for a specific situation or purpose.
1891	blind	adj.	Not able to see; lacking visual perception.
1892	brief	adj.	Short in duration; lasting only a limited time.
1893	broad	adj.	Having a large distance between one side and another.
1894	capable	adj.	Having the ability or capacity to perform a task.
1895	characteristic	adj.	Serving to identify or distinguish someone or something.
1896	chief	adj.	Having the highest importance or rank; principal.
1897	complicated	adj.	Involving many parts or elements, making it difficult.
1898	concerned	adj.	Feeling worried or troubled about a situation or issue.
1899	confusing	adj.	Not clear or easily understood; causing uncertainty.
1900	conscious	adj.	Aware of and responsive to one's surroundings or actions.
1901	constant	adj.	Happening continuously without stopping; persistent.
1902	corporate	adj.	Relating to a large company or organization.
1903	crucial	adj.	Extremely important or essential for success.
1904	deliberate	adj.	Done intentionally; carefully planned or considered.
1905	detailed	adj.	Including many specific pieces of information.
1906	downward	adj.	Facing or pointing toward a lower level or position.
1907	entire	adj.	Involving or describing the whole of something.
1908	ethical	adj.	Conforming to moral principles and obligations.
1909	even	adj.	Uniform in dimensions, quantity, or surface level.
1910	executive	adj.	Having authority to decide and implement important matters.
1911	extraordinary	adj.	Remarkable or very unusual, often in a positive way.
1912	flexible	adj.	Capable of bending easily without breaking.
1913	folding	adj.	Designed to be bent or folded to occupy less space.
1914	former	adj.	Referring to the first of two previously mentioned things.
1915	so-called	adj.	Used to show disapproval of an assigned or assumed name.
1916	neat	adj.	Carefully arranged and orderly in appearance or organization.
1917	bizarre	adj.	Strange or unexpected in appearance, style, or behavior.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1918	superficial	adj.	Appearing to have a quality but lacking it in reality.
1919	out of sight	adj.	Hidden or no longer visible to one's eyes.
1920	forward	adj.	Facing or directed toward the front or ahead.
1921	fundamental	adj.	Related to the core or most basic and important parts.
1922	grand	adj.	Magnificent in size, appearance, or overall impression.
1923	hilarious	adj.	Extremely funny; causing great amusement or laughter.
1924	honorable	adj.	Morally good, deserving respect, admiration, or recognition.
1925	humorous	adj.	Making people laugh; amusing or entertaining in nature.
1926	initial	adj.	Related to the beginning or first stage of a series or process.
1927	inner	adj.	Situated inside of something else; internal or central.
1928	intended	adj.	Planned, aimed for, or desired as a specific goal or purpose.
1929	literal	adj.	Referring directly to the true meaning without exaggeration.
1930	mass	adj.	Affecting a large number of things or people collectively.
1931	material	adj.	Related to physical possessions, wealth, or worldly concerns.
1932	minor	adj.	Having little importance, effect, or seriousness; relatively small.
1933	mixed	adj.	Consisting of different types combined together.
1934	overall	adj.	Including or considering everything or everyone in a group.
1935	potential	adj.	Having the possibility to develop into something in the future.
1936	prime	adj.	First in importance, rank, or quality.
1937	principal	adj.	Having the highest importance or influence; primary.
1938	pure	adj.	Not combined or mixed with anything else; clean or unmixed.
1939	rapid	adj.	Happening or moving very quickly; fast in action or progress.
1940	representative	adj.	Standing for or symbolizing something else.
1941	routine	adj.	Occurring regularly as part of a usual process or pattern.
1942	slight	adj.	Small in amount, degree, or extent; not significant.
1943	sticky	adj.	Having a thick substance that clings to surfaces; adhesive.
1944	stiff	adj.	Not flexible; difficult to bend or change shape.
1945	unconscious	adj.	Unresponsive and unaware of surroundings, usually from injury.
1946	upper	adj.	Located above something else of the same type.
1947	very	adj.	Used to emphasize exactness; referring to the precise entity.
1948	willing	adj.	Ready or enthusiastic to do something; showing consent.

2 — 1 ()

2076 . . . /
; .

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1	amphibian	n.	Any cold-blooded animal living both on land and water.
2	indigenous	adj.	Found and developed only in a specific natural location.
3	rodent	n.	Any small mammal with strong front teeth for gnawing.
4	predator	n.	Any animal surviving by hunting and eating other animals.
5	den	n.	The hidden living place of a wild predatory animal.
6	camouflage	v.	To blend in with surroundings to avoid detection.
7	growl	v.	To make a rumbling sound as a warning signal.
8	baboon	n.	A large monkey with doglike face and big teeth.
9	badger	n.	A nocturnal animal of weasel family with short legs.
10	buffalo	n.	Large wild herbivore with curved horns, native to Africa.
11	coyote	n.	North American wild animal resembling a small wolf.
12	cougar	n.	Large wild cat with tawny fur living in mountains.
13	hare	n.	Rabbit-like animal with long legs and ears, running fast.
14	jaguar	n.	Large wild cat with yellow fur covered in black spots.
15	panther	n.	Large wild cat with brown or gray fur in Americas.
16	rhinoceros	n.	Very large mammal with thick skin and one or two horns.
17	trunk	n.	The long flexible nose of an elephant.
18	tusk	n.	A long pointed tooth protruding from certain animals' mouths.
19	flock	n.	A group of birds of the same type together.
20	cuckoo	n.	Medium-sized bird laying eggs in other birds' nests.
21	dove	n.	A small bird, often white, symbolizing peace.
22	falcon	n.	Predatory bird flying fast and trained for hunting.
23	peacock	n.	Male bird with large colorful tail raised for display.
24	raven	n.	Large black crow-family bird with shiny feathers.
25	swallow	n.	Small fast-flying insect-eating bird with pointed wings.
26	dragonfly	n.	Flying insect with colorful wings, often near rivers.
27	grasshopper	n.	Leaping insect with long back legs making chirping sounds.
28	wasp	n.	Winged insect with sting and black-and-yellow colors.
29	crab	n.	Sea creature with eight legs, pincers, and hard shell.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
30	python	n.	Large non-venomous snake killing prey by squeezing.
31	hippo	n.	Large African mammal with thick skin, tusks, near water.
32	orca	n.	Large black-and-white marine mammal, apex predator globally.
33	beauty salon	n.	Place where people receive hair, makeup, and treatments.
34	alike	adj.	Having very similar qualities, characteristics, or appearances.
35	awkward	adj.	Moving uncomfortably without grace or confidence.
36	delicate	adj.	Small, attractive, and finely shaped or structured.
37	graceful	adj.	Moving or behaving in an elegant, pleasing manner.
38	elegant	adj.	Having refined and stylish appearance or manner.
39	mature	adj.	Fully grown and physically or mentally developed.
40	hideous	adj.	Extremely ugly and unpleasant to look at.
41	scruffy	adj.	Having unshaven or untidy appearance for a long time.
42	shabby	adj.	Wearing worn, old, or untidy clothing.
43	suntanned	adj.	Having darkened skin after exposure to sunlight.
44	upright	adj.	Standing or sitting with straight back or posture.
45	slender	adj.	Attractively thin in shape or body form.
46	buff	adj.	Physically attractive with well-developed muscles.
47	muscular	adj.	Having large, strong, and well-defined muscles.
48	big-boned	adj.	Having a large body frame without excess fat.
49	stout	adj.	Slightly fat and heavy in body build.
50	grotesque	adj.	Extremely ugly in a strange or bizarre way.
51	homely	adj.	Not very attractive in appearance.
52	presentable	adj.	Clean and neat enough to be publicly acceptable.
53	appealing	adj.	Pleasing and likely to attract interest or desire.
54	alluring	adj.	Mysteriously attractive or exciting to notice.
55	magnificent	adj.	Extremely impressive, beautiful, or grand in appearance.
56	charming	adj.	Having an attractive and pleasing quality or manner.
57	striking	adj.	Exceptionally eye-catching or remarkable in appearance.
58	superb	adj.	Extremely good, excellent, or of very high quality.
59	terrific	adj.	Extremely great, impressive, or astonishing in quality.
60	youthful	adj.	Possessing characteristics typical of young people.
61	wrinkly	adj.	Having many lines, creases, or folds on the surface.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
62	petite	adj.	Small and attractively delicate in size or form.
63	shapely	adj.	Having curves in an attractive and well-proportioned body.
64	plump	adj.	Pleasantly rounded or slightly full-bodied in appearance.
65	curvy	adj.	Attractively shaped with noticeable curves, especially female.
66	gross	adj.	Fat in an unattractive or excessive way.
67	godlike	adj.	Possessing extraordinary qualities similar to a deity.
68	browse	v.	To check a webpage or text without reading fully.
69	navigate	v.	To move through a website or find one's way online.
70	photobomb	v.	To ruin someone's photo by appearing unexpectedly.
71	spam	v.	To send unwanted advertisements or messages online.
72	dead	adj.	Not functioning due to lack of power or activity.
73	broadband	n.	Internet system allowing simultaneous data sharing.
74	call-in	n.	Program where audience participates by telephone calls.
75	cookie	n.	Data a server sends to browser for identification or tracking.
76	domain	n.	Last part of website address like .com, .org, etc.
77	emoji	n.	Small digital icon showing tone or emotion in messages.
78	laugh out loud	int.	Used online or in text to indicate strong laughter.
79	oh my God	int.	Expressing shock, surprise, or excitement online or offline.
80	payphone	n.	Public telephone requiring payment, usually via prepaid cards.
81	telegraph	n.	System for sending messages electrically over long distances.
82	directory	n.	Area on computer containing organized files for reference.
83	extension	n.	Extra telephone connected to the main line at home.
84	fax	n.	Device that sends and prints documents via telephone lines.
85	teleconference	n.	Meeting held among participants at different locations online.
86	Internet of Things	n.	Data exchange among everyday objects connected via Internet.
87	meme	n.	Video, image, or joke spread quickly by Internet users.
88	phablet	n.	Device combining features of mobile phone and tablet.
89	selfie	n.	Photo taken by oneself, usually shared on social media.
90	vlog	n.	Video blog where creators share personal experiences online.
91	clickbait	n.	Online content designed to attract attention and clicks.
92	cyberbullying	n.	Using electronic communication to harass or intimidate others.
93	art director	n.	Person in charge of artistic elements like props, costumes.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
94	dresser	n.	Person helping actors with costumes or dressing for plays.
95	lead	n.	Actor performing the main role in a play or movie.
96	moviegoer	n.	Someone who regularly goes to the cinema for entertainment.
97	Bollywood	n.	Indian film industry based in the city of Mumbai.
98	adaptation	n.	Movie, TV show, or play based on a preexisting book.
99	backdrop	n.	Painted cloth hung behind stage scenery in theater.
100	camerawork	n.	Style and technique in which a movie is filmed.
101	casting	n.	Process of assigning actors to roles in productions.
102	screenplay	n.	Script containing dialogue and instructions for a film.
103	climax	n.	Most intense or dramatic moment in a story or movie.
104	closeup	n.	Detailed, tightly framed shot of a subject at close range.
105	cut	v.	To stop filming or recording a scene immediately.
106	dramatize	v.	To turn a story or event into a play or movie.
107	dub	v.	To replace a film or show's original language with another.
108	narrate	v.	To explain events occurring in a movie or documentary.
109	portray	v.	To act as or represent a character in a performance.
110	epic	n.	Long movie featuring adventures, often historical or heroic.
111	feature film	n.	Full-length movie telling a complete narrative story.
112	frame	n.	One of many images forming part of a movie or video.
113	floodlight	n.	Powerful lamp casting wide illumination for outdoor areas.
114	projector	n.	Device displaying images or videos onto a flat surface.
115	reel	n.	Circular object around which film or tape is wound.
116	interpretation	n.	Actor's representation of artistic or musical performance.
117	premiere	n.	First public screening or performance of a film or play.
118	score	n.	Music composed specifically for a movie or performance.
119	spotlight	n.	Strong beam of light directed at someone or something.
120	backstage	n.	Area of theater hidden from audience where crew works.
121	legendary	adj.	Extremely famous, admired, or celebrated by many people.
122	theatrical	adj.	Relating to theater as an art form or profession.
123	break a leg	sentence	Expression wishing good luck to performers before acting.
124	foyer	n.	Large entrance area in theater or hotel for meeting or waiting.
125	artichoke	n.	Round green vegetable with thick leaves forming edible bud.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
126	asparagus	n.	Long green vegetable with edible stems eaten raw or cooked.
127	basil	n.	Aromatic mint-family plant eaten fresh or in cooking.
128	bell pepper	n.	Hollow fruit, often red or green, eaten or cooked.
129	cauliflower	n.	White flower head of cabbage-family plant eaten as vegetable.
130	fennel	n.	Plant with feathery leaves and thick stem, edible or flavoring.
131	ginger	n.	Thick spicy root used as seasoning in cooking, often powdered.
132	leek	n.	Onion-family plant with green leaves and white stem used.
133	turnip	n.	Root vegetable with creamy flesh and purple-white skin.
134	thyme	n.	Aromatic leaves used fresh or dried to season food.
135	lentil	n.	Small round dried seed, high in protein, used in cooking.
136	baked goods	n.	Food made by baking batter or dough in an oven.
137	breadcrumbs	n.	Tiny pieces of bread used to coat food before frying.
138	bun	n.	Small round and flat bread roll, often eaten plain or filled.
139	fish stick	n.	Piece of fish coated in breadcrumbs and fried.
140	tofu	n.	Soft white food made from mashed soybeans.
141	currant	n.	Small, dark dried grape, usually seedless, used in baking.
142	guava	n.	Tropical fruit with pink flesh, native to Central America.
143	persimmon	n.	Tomato-like orange fruit with bittersweet taste.
144	quince	n.	Yellow hard fruit resembling pear, aromatic, often used in jam.
145	passion fruit	n.	Tropical fruit with purple skin and many seeds inside.
146	kumquat	n.	Small orange-like fruit with sweet skin and bitter flesh.
147	lasagna	n.	Layered pasta dish with meat or vegetables and sauce, baked.
148	poultry	n.	Meat from chickens, turkeys, or ducks.
149	stew	n.	Dish of meat or vegetables cooked slowly in liquid.
150	marmalade	n.	Sweet spread made from cooked citrus fruit.
151	mousse	n.	Cold dessert with smooth fluffy texture, often chocolate or fruit.
152	tart	n.	Pie without top crust filled with sweet or savory ingredients.
153	syrup	n.	Thick sweet liquid made from sugar, often used as sauce.
154	act on	v.	To adjust actions or behavior based on advice or information.
155	hand out	v.	To give intangible things like advice, praise, or judgment.
156	nominate	v.	To assign or designate someone to a position or responsibility.
157	preach	v.	To give advice about behavior in a repetitive or annoying way.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
158	prompt	v.	To encourage someone to say or do something.
159	propose	v.	To put forward a plan, idea, or suggestion for consideration.
160	put to	v.	To present a plan or offer to someone for consideration.
161	consultant	n.	Someone who provides professional advice on a specific subject.
162	counselor	n.	Expert giving guidance and advice on personal problems.
163	nominee	n.	Person officially suggested for a position, award, or honor.
164	connotation	n.	Suggested or implied meaning beyond a word's literal definition.
165	counseling	n.	Process of providing guidance and support for personal issues.
166	hint	n.	Slight suggestion or piece of advice pointing toward solution.
167	tip	n.	Helpful suggestion or piece of advice about what to do.
168	sure thing	n.	Something that is certain or guaranteed to happen.
169	advisory	adj.	Aimed at providing advice or guidance to someone.
170	encouraging	adj.	Giving hope, support, or confidence to another person.
171	guiding	adj.	Exerting control, direction, or influence over actions or people.
172	implicit	adj.	Suggested or implied without being directly stated.
173	how-to	adj.	Providing detailed instructions on performing a specific task.
174	straight	adj.	Honest, direct, and without distortion, deception, or deceit.
175	receptive	adj.	Open to listening to or considering suggestions and new ideas.
176	supportive	adj.	Providing help, encouragement, or assistance to someone.
177	if I were you	phr.	Expression used to advise someone about what they should do.
178	now then	phr.	Expression used to draw attention to something being said.
179	anatomy	n.	Branch of science studying physical structure of organisms.
180	optical	adj.	Relating to sight, vision, or visual perception.
181	oral	adj.	Pertaining to the mouth, mouth region, or oral structures.
182	lens	n.	Clear elastic part of eye focusing light for vision.
183	pupil	n.	Small round black eye area allowing light to enter.
184	cheekbone	n.	Bone located just below the eye in face.
185	roof of the mouth	n.	Hard inside top surface of the mouth cavity.
186	jawbone	n.	Bone forming upper or lower jaw structure.
187	baby tooth	n.	Temporary tooth in children later replaced permanently.
188	limb	n.	Arm, leg, or wing of humans, animals, or birds.
189	fingertip	n.	Area at the very end of a finger.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
190	fist	n.	Hand with fingers tightly bent toward the palm.
191	gland	n.	Organ producing and releasing chemical substances for use.
192	adrenaline	n.	Hormone released in fear, anger, or excitement situations.
193	flesh	n.	Soft tissue parts of the human body.
194	torso	n.	Upper body excluding arms and head.
195	gut	n.	Lower digestive tract responsible for nutrient absorption.
196	nipple	n.	Round area on chest; female ones provide milk for infants.
197	navel	n.	Middle stomach mark formed after cutting umbilical cord.
198	hipbone	n.	Large pelvic bone located on each side of body.
199	lap	n.	Flat surface formed by upper legs when seated.
200	groin	n.	Area where legs join front body, including sex organs.
201	genitals	n.	External sexual organs of male or female body.
202	ovary	n.	Female organ producing eggs for reproduction.
203	womb	n.	Female organ where baby develops before birth.
204	white blood cell	n.	Cell protecting body against diseases and infections.
205	red blood cell	n.	Cell carrying oxygen throughout the body.
206	fiber	n.	Strand of muscle or nerve tissue.
207	inhale	v.	To take air or substances into lungs by breathing.
208	exhale	v.	To breathe air, smoke, or gas out through mouth or nose.
209	secrete	v.	To produce and release liquid substance from a gland.
210	blood clot	n.	Thickened mass of blood potentially obstructing circulation.
211	prostate	n.	Male gland producing semen fluid and surrounding urethra.
212	liver	n.	Vital organ filtering harmful substances from blood.
213	adjacent	adj.	Situated next to or very near another object.
214	architectural	adj.	Relating to designing, constructing, or studying buildings.
215	interior	adj.	Located on the inner part of a structure or object.
216	exterior	adj.	Situated on the outer surface of a structure or object.
217	municipal	adj.	Relating to city or town government administration.
218	residential	adj.	Designed specifically for people to live in.
219	godforsaken	adj.	Remote place lacking appeal or interesting features.
220	suburban	adj.	Characteristic of residential areas outside a city.
221	vacant	adj.	Empty or unoccupied and available for use.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
222	assemble	v.	To make something by joining separate parts together.
223	decay	v.	To gradually deteriorate, rot, or decline in quality.
224	demolish	v.	To completely destroy or tear down a building or structure.
225	erect	v.	To build or raise a structure in an upright position.
226	refurbish	v.	To make a building look better by repairing and redecorating.
227	renovate	v.	To restore a building or place by repairing or improving it.
228	bungalow	n.	Single-story house, usually with low roof and no stairs.
229	court	n.	Open area surrounded by walls or buildings.
230	dome	n.	Rounded roof structure covering a building.
231	sauna	n.	Small steam-heated room for relaxation or health purposes.
232	igloo	n.	Dome-shaped house built from ice or snow blocks.
233	high-rise	n.	Very tall multi-story building.
234	lighthouse	n.	Coastal tower with powerful light guiding ships.
235	premises	n.	Building and surrounding land used or owned by a business.
236	arch	n.	Curved structure supporting weight above it.
237	beam	n.	Long bar supporting weight of a building or structure.
238	tile	n.	Flat piece of material covering floors, walls, or roofs.
239	marble	n.	Hard smooth rock often white with colored veins.
240	crane	n.	Large machine used for lifting heavy objects vertically.
241	addition	n.	Newly constructed room added to an existing building.
242	flooring	n.	Material covering the floor of a building or room.
243	layout	n.	Specific arrangement of spaces, objects, or features.
244	plumbing	n.	System of pipes for distributing water in a building.
245	chalet	n.	Wooden house with steep sloping roof, often in mountains.
246	windowpane	n.	Single piece of glass in a window frame.
247	lobby	n.	Entrance area of public building for reception or waiting.
248	thatched	adj.	Having roof made of dried straw, leaves, or similar material.
249	shovel-ready	adj.	Prepared for construction phase to begin immediately.
250	able	adj.	Having skill, intelligence, or capability to perform tasks.
251	absurd	adj.	So unreasonable or illogical that it provokes disbelief.
252	alert	adj.	Able to notice things quickly and respond appropriately.
253	accomplished	adj.	Possessing notable skill or proficiency in a particular field.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
254	articulate	adj.	Able to express ideas clearly and effectively.
255	brainy	adj.	Very intelligent or highly clever.
256	brutal	adj.	Extremely violent, harsh, or cruel in behavior.
257	competent	adj.	Having required knowledge, skill, or ability to succeed.
258	argumentative	adj.	Often inclined to argue or dispute with others.
259	bad-tempered	adj.	Easily annoyed, irritable, and quick to anger.
260	cheeky	adj.	Impolitely bold in an amusing or endearing way.
261	clumsy	adj.	Lacking coordination or grace, often causing accidents.
262	conceited	adj.	Excessively proud of oneself or one's abilities.
263	coward	n.	Person lacking courage or bravery in challenging situations.
264	eccentric	adj.	Unconventional or slightly strange in behavior or appearance.
265	harsh	adj.	Unkind, cruel, or severe in treatment of others.
266	infamous	adj.	Well-known for a negative quality or deed.
267	intolerant	adj.	Not willing to accept beliefs, opinions, or lifestyles.
268	insensitive	adj.	Not caring about other people's feelings or needs.
269	judgmental	adj.	Tending to form critical opinions about others prematurely.
270	narrow-minded	adj.	Not open to new ideas, perspectives, or opinions.
271	assertive	adj.	Confidently expressing opinions or needs clearly.
272	attentive	adj.	Paying careful attention or showing concentration.
273	cautious	adj.	Careful to avoid danger, risk, or mistakes.
274	affectionate	adj.	Expressing love, warmth, and care toward others.
275	charitable	adj.	Generous in giving money, time, or support to others.
276	considerate	adj.	Thoughtful and mindful of other people's feelings.
277	courageous	adj.	Showing bravery in the face of danger or difficulty.
278	dignified	adj.	Displaying calmness, seriousness, and deserving respect.
279	faithful	adj.	Loyal and committed to a person, idea, or group.
280	frank	adj.	Open, honest, and direct in expressing thoughts.
281	heroic	adj.	Exhibiting bravery comparable to a heroic figure.
282	hospitable	adj.	Treating guests or visitors with friendliness and warmth.
283	jolly	adj.	Cheerful, playful, and showing happiness.
284	duplicitous	adj.	Intentionally deceitful or dishonest toward others.
285	just	adj.	Acting in a morally correct, fair, and righteous way.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
286	reluctant	adj.	Unwilling to do something undesirable or unpleasant.
287	snake	n.	Dishonest person who deceives others for personal gain.
288	butterfingers	n.	Person who frequently drops or mishandles objects.
289	dirtbag	n.	Hateful or detestable individual due to immoral behavior.
290	freeloader	n.	Person who takes advantage of others' generosity habitually.
291	wretch	n.	Someone who behaves in an evil or immoral manner.
292	unruly	adj.	Refusing to obey rules, authority, or control.
293	sassy	adj.	Rude or disrespectful while showing confident attitude.
294	weasel	n.	Deceitful and sneaky person who manipulates situations.
295	beforehand	adv.	At an earlier time before something else occurs.
296	forthcoming	adj.	About to happen or appear very soon.
297	chronologically	adv.	In the order that events actually happened.
298	indefinitely	adv.	For an unspecified or unlimited period of time.
299	to date	adv.	Up until the present moment or current time.
300	for the time being	adv.	For a limited period, until circumstances change.
301	from time to time	adv.	Occasionally; without a fixed schedule or pattern.
302	in due course	adv.	At the appropriate or expected moment in time.
303	yearlong	adj.	Continuing for the entire duration of a year.
304	instant	n.	A very brief or exact point in time.
305	spell	n.	A short period characterized by a particular activity.
306	chapter	n.	A distinct period in history or someone's life.
307	dusk	n.	Time after sunset when darkness has not fully arrived.
308	eternity	n.	Time that continues endlessly without limitation.
309	midsummer	n.	Middle part of summer when temperatures are highest.
310	midwinter	n.	Middle of winter when it is coldest.
311	solstice	n.	Either of two times when the sun reaches extreme positions.
312	quarter	n.	A period of three months, typically in financial contexts.
313	leap year	n.	A year occurring every four years with 366 days.
314	alternate	adj.	Happening every other time or in turn.
315	continual	adj.	Happening repeatedly, often annoyingly or persistently.
316	consecutive	adj.	Happening one after another without interruption.
317	successive	adj.	Occurring in uninterrupted sequence, one after another.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
318	eternal	adj.	Continuing or existing forever, without end.
319	eventual	adj.	Happening at the end of a process or period.
320	imminent	adj.	Likely to occur very soon, especially unpleasant events.
321	lengthy	adj.	Continuing for an excessively long period of time.
322	occasional	adj.	Happening from time to time without regularity or pattern.
323	prospective	adj.	Likely to become a reality in the future.
324	simultaneous	adj.	Occurring at exactly the same moment in time.
325	latter	adj.	Closest to the end of a particular period or event.
326	nightly	adj.	Occurring every night without exception.
327	yearly	adj.	Happening once per year.
328	year-round	adj.	Occurring continuously throughout the entire year.
329	extension	n.	A period added to prolong an existing activity or term.
330	around the clock	adv.	Non-stop, continuing throughout the entire day and night.
331	get-go	n.	The point in time when something begins or starts.
332	longstanding	adj.	Having existed or persisted for a significant duration.
333	longtime	adj.	Existing or being in use for a long period.
334	AD	adv.	Referring to a date after the birth of Christ.
335	in the same breath	phr.	Happening almost simultaneously with another event.
336	BC	adv.	Marking years before Christ's birth.
337	CE	adv.	Denoting years after the birth of Christ.
338	dip	v.	To momentarily put something into a liquid.
339	hook	v.	To attach or secure using a curved or angled object.
340	crush	v.	To forcibly push something until it breaks or deforms.
341	stab	v.	To push a sharp object into someone to injure.
342	slash	v.	To violently cut with a quick movement using a knife.
343	torture	v.	To violently hurt a person for punishment or information.
344	whip	v.	To strike forcefully with a flexible tool or cord.
345	leak	v.	To let gas or liquid escape through a crack or hole.
346	manipulate	v.	To skillfully control or manage a system or object.
347	seize	v.	To suddenly and forcibly take hold of something.
348	plug	v.	To tightly fill or block a hole with something.
349	pop	v.	To make a sudden light sound like a small explosion.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
350	rip	v.	To tear or cut something forcefully and quickly.
351	reside	v.	To live in a specific place for a period of time.
352	rock	v.	To move gently back and forth from one side to another.
353	rotate	v.	To turn or move around a central axis or point.
354	pump	v.	To move gas or liquid in a certain direction mechanically.
355	probe	v.	To investigate or explore deeply to obtain information.
356	screw	v.	To firmly attach or tighten using a turning metal fastener.
357	shatter	v.	To break suddenly into many pieces.
358	shed	v.	To get rid of something unwanted or unnecessary.
359	shrink	v.	To become smaller, often due to heat or washing.
360	tighten	v.	To hold, fasten, or turn something firmly.
361	shrug	v.	To raise shoulders briefly to express indifference.
362	sigh	v.	To release a long breath expressing sadness or tiredness.
363	smash	v.	To forcibly break something into several pieces.
364	snap	v.	To suddenly break with a sharp sound.
365	soar	v.	To rise high while flying or moving upward.
366	span	v.	To cover or extend across a period of time.
367	spark	v.	To emit small flashes of electricity or fire.
368	spin	v.	To turn rapidly around a center repeatedly.
369	stumble	v.	To hit something accidentally with the foot and nearly fall.
370	steer	v.	To control the direction of a moving vehicle or object.
371	suck	v.	To pull air, liquid, or substance into the mouth using lips.
372	swing	v.	To move or cause to move back and forth while suspended.
373	trail	v.	To be pulled along behind a leading object or force.
374	twist	v.	To bend something into a particular shape or position.
375	unveil	v.	To remove a cover for public viewing, often ceremonially.
376	yell	v.	To shout loudly, often to express anger or call attention.
377	amber	adj.	Having a yellowish-brown color.
378	emerald	adj.	Having a bright green color.
379	ruby	adj.	Purplish-red in color.
380	turquoise	adj.	Greenish-blue in color.
381	beige	adj.	Having a pale light brown color like sand.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
382	bronze	adj.	Deep reddish-brown in color.
383	burgundy	adj.	Deep red in color.
384	chestnut	adj.	Having a red-brown color.
385	creamy	adj.	Having a color between yellow and white.
386	ebony	adj.	Having a dark black color.
387	hazel	adj.	Having a greenish-brown color.
388	khaki	adj.	Having a dull yellowish-brown color.
389	olive	adj.	Grayish-green in color.
390	scarlet	adj.	Having a bright red color.
391	sea-green	adj.	Bluish-green in color.
392	sky-blue	adj.	Light blue color like a cloudless sky.
393	coal-black	adj.	Having a very dark black color.
394	snow-white	adj.	Having a pure white color like snow.
395	subtle	adj.	Difficult to notice due to slight or delicate nature.
396	transparent	adj.	Able to be seen through.
397	vibrant	adj.	(Of colors) bright and strong.
398	dull	adj.	(Of colors) not bright or vibrant.
399	contrast	n.	Differences in color or brightness for visual effect.
400	arch	n.	Anything with a curved top and parallel sides.
401	circular	adj.	Having a shape like a circle.
402	cone	n.	3D shape with circular base rising to a single point.
403	curl	n.	Something resembling a spiral or coil.
404	cylinder	n.	Solid or hollow shape with parallel sides and circular ends.
405	dimension	n.	A measure of height, length, or width of an object.
406	right angle	n.	An angle measuring exactly 90 degrees.
407	fragile	adj.	Easily damaged or broken.
408	immense	adj.	Extremely large or vast in physical size.
409	intact	adj.	Undamaged and complete.
410	invisible	adj.	Not capable of being seen with the naked eye.
411	linear	adj.	Involving lines or shaped like a straight line.
412	spiral	n.	Curved shape gradually winding around a center.
413	minute	adj.	Very small.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
414	rear	adj.	Situated near the back of something.
415	accessible	adj.	Able to be reached, entered, or used by anyone at all.
416	down	adj.	Temporarily not working or functional on a computer system.
417	Blu-ray	n.	Blue-colored disc storing large data like movies or videos.
418	byte	n.	Unit of digital data consisting of exactly eight bits.
419	kilobyte	n.	Data measurement equal to 1024 bytes in computer storage.
420	megabyte	n.	Data measurement equal to 1024 kilobytes in storage.
421	gigabyte	n.	Data measurement equal to 1024 megabytes in storage.
422	backup	n.	Copy of files stored to restore lost or damaged computer data.
423	storage	n.	System or device used for keeping digital information safely.
424	flash drive	n.	Small portable device used to store or transfer data.
425	drop-down menu	n.	List of options appearing on screen for user selection.
426	hacker	n.	Person illegally accessing computer systems or private data.
427	computerize	v.	To perform manual tasks using computer systems efficiently.
428	encode	v.	To convert information into a specific coded digital format.
429	format	v.	To prepare storage media by deleting existing data completely.
430	load	v.	To transfer data or programs into computer memory.
431	retrieve	v.	To find and access stored digital information on demand.
432	game	v.	To play an electronic or video game on a device.
433	RAM	n.	Temporary memory storing data for fast computer access.
434	SSD	n.	Solid-state drive storing data faster than traditional hard drives.
435	bond	v.	To develop a lasting relationship or connection with someone.
436	ally	n.	Someone who helps or supports another in specific activities.
437	acquaintance	n.	A person known but not considered a close friend.
438	BFF	n.	Someone regarded as one's best friend, especially online.
439	buddy	n.	A close friend providing companionship and support regularly.
440	pal	n.	A friendly companion or close friend typically used casually.
441	co-parent	n.	A person sharing responsibility for raising a child with another.
442	half-brother	n.	A brother sharing only one biological parent with someone.
443	half-sister	n.	A sister sharing only one biological parent with someone.
444	next of kin	n.	One's closest living relative, usually legally recognized.
445	orphan	n.	A child whose parents have both passed away.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
446	descendant	n.	Someone related by blood to a person who lived earlier.
447	adoptive	adj.	Related to a child or parent through legal adoption.
448	elder	adj.	Older person, especially in comparison to someone younger.
449	intimate	adj.	Having a very close and personal relationship with someone.
450	sisterly	adj.	Showing qualities characteristic of a sister or sister-like care.
451	branch	n.	Subdivision of a family sharing common ancestors or lineage.
452	brotherhood	n.	Kinship, bond, or solidarity among male siblings or members.
453	clan	n.	Large group of people related by blood or extended family ties.
454	inheritance	n.	Property or assets legally passed to heirs after owner's death.
455	parenting	n.	The process of raising and caring for one's children responsibly.
456	devotion	n.	Strong love, loyalty, and support expressed toward someone.
457	lifelong	adj.	Lasting or continuing throughout an entire person's life.
458	dump	v.	To end a romantic relationship, often unexpectedly or unfairly.
459	homeboy	n.	Male friend from the same neighborhood or social circle.
460	bare	adj.	Not covered by clothing, exposing part of the body.
461	bead	n.	Small ball, often strung together for decoration or jewelry.
462	buckle	n.	Device with pin used for fastening belts or straps.
463	bib	n.	Cloth or plastic protecting clothing while eating or drinking.
464	bow	n.	Decorative piece of cloth tied in a knot or ribbon.
465	pearl	n.	Shiny ball inside oyster shell, highly valued gem.
466	brief	adj.	Short and revealing, typically in reference to clothing.
467	checked	adj.	Fabric having pattern of small squares in two colors.
468	elaborate	adj.	Very detailed and complicated in design, style, or decoration.
469	fitted	adj.	Closely shaped or designed to cover the body tightly.
470	low-cut	adj.	Clothing with neckline that dips low at the front.
471	open-necked	adj.	Shirt worn without tie, collar left open at neck.
472	skintight	adj.	Very tight clothing that clings closely to the body.
473	sleeveless	adj.	Clothing without any sleeves, exposing arms completely.
474	tailored	adj.	Clothing cut and fitted to conform perfectly to wearer's body.
475	garment	n.	Any item of clothing worn on the body for covering.
476	boxers	n.	Men's loose underwear covering the thighs partially.
477	nightie	n.	Loose-fitting clothing worn by women or girls before sleeping.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
478	cape	n.	Sleeveless garment fastened at neck, hanging over shoulders.
479	cloak	n.	Loose overgarment worn without sleeves, fastened at neck.
480	shawl	n.	Long piece of fabric draped over shoulders or head.
481	cuff	n.	Sleeve end at wrist that can be folded or turned.
482	fastener	n.	Device used to close, secure, or lock items in place.
483	strap	n.	Narrow strip used for fastening, carrying, or holding something.
484	cut	n.	Way a garment is shaped or styled during construction.
485	glamour	n.	Attractive quality making person, place, or thing desirable.
486	footwear	n.	Items worn on feet such as shoes, boots, or sandals.
487	shoelace	n.	Thin cord passed through shoe hooks to fasten securely.
488	velvet	n.	Soft, thick fabric, usually made of cotton or silk.
489	waistline	n.	Measurement around the narrowest part of the body.
490	wig	n.	Artificial hairpiece worn to cover or change one's hair.
491	inappropriate	adj.	Not suitable or acceptable for a particular context or situation.
492	wetsuit	n.	Tight rubber suit worn underwater to keep swimmer warm.
493	title page	n.	Front page of a book showing title, author, publisher names.
494	footnote	n.	Additional information placed at the bottom of a printed page.
495	backstory	n.	Events that happened to a character before main story begins.
496	narration	n.	Method of telling or explaining a story in literature or film.
497	twist	n.	Unexpected turn or change in the sequence of events.
498	inspiration	n.	Mental spark that motivates creativity or unusual activity.
499	co-author	v.	To write a book or article together with another person.
500	compose	v.	To write a literary work thoughtfully and carefully.
501	jot down	v.	To quickly write a note in an informal way.
502	proofread	v.	To read and correct errors in a written or printed text.
503	script	v.	To write the words intended for a movie, play, or show.
504	autobiography	n.	Life story of a person written by that same individual.
505	comic strip	n.	Series of illustrated boxes that narrate a story visually.
506	fable	n.	Short story teaching a moral, often with animal characters.
507	pamphlet	n.	Small book with information about a specific topic or subject.
508	paperback	n.	Book with cover made from thick, flexible paper.
509	prose	n.	Ordinary written or spoken language, not structured as poetry.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
510	dramatist	n.	Writer who creates plays for theater, television, or radio.
511	engaging	adj.	Attractive and interesting, capturing attention or involvement.
512	gripping	adj.	Exciting or fascinating in a way that holds attention.
513	ironic	adj.	Using words that convey opposite meaning, often humorously.
514	tragic	adj.	Related to or characteristic of tragic events or literature.
515	trilogy	n.	Set of three related books, movies, or similar works.
516	romance	n.	Story or movie primarily focused on love and relationships.
517	true crime	n.	Genre involving real crimes, criminals, and historical events.
518	infinitive	n.	Base form of a verb without any tense, person, or number.
519	transitive verb	n.	Verb that requires a direct object to complete its meaning.
520	intransitive verb	n.	Verb that does not take a direct object in sentences.
521	number	n.	Word form indicating singular, dual, or plural quantity of nouns.
522	feminine	adj.	Referring to female entities or forms in a language's grammar.
523	masculine	adj.	Referring to male entities or forms in a language's grammar.
524	intonation	n.	Rising and falling pitch of voice during spoken language.
525	proverb	n.	Short saying expressing general truth, wisdom, or advice.
526	punctuate	v.	To insert punctuation marks to clarify meaning in written text.
527	colon	n.	Punctuation mark : introducing a list, quotation, or explanation.
528	semicolon	n.	Punctuation mark ; separating clauses or items in a complex list.
529	hyphen	n.	Small line connecting words or parts of compound words.
530	slash	n.	Symbol / indicating alternatives, fractions, or separation in text.
531	particle	n.	Adverb or preposition forming phrasal verb with main verb.
532	e.g.	adj.	Used before giving one or more examples for clarification.
533	ungrammatical	adj.	Not conforming to standard grammar rules or correct usage.
534	anchor	n.	Person presenting news on live TV or radio broadcasts.
535	weathergirl	n.	Woman reporting weather conditions on TV or radio.
536	contributor	n.	Person submitting written pieces to newspapers or magazines.
537	correspondent	n.	Reporter covering news for media outlets in specific locations.
538	subscriber	n.	Person paying regularly to receive publications or services.
539	antenna	n.	Device for sending or receiving electronic signals or broadcasts.
540	frequency	n.	Number of waves passing a point each second in a signal.
541	receive	v.	To pick up broadcast signals using a device or receiver.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
542	televisе	v.	To broadcast or show content on television to viewers.
543	tune in	v.	To watch a TV program or listen to a radio broadcast.
544	bulletin	n.	Brief news program broadcast on radio or television channels.
545	commentary	n.	Spoken description of an event as it occurs, usually on media.
546	lead story	n.	News item given most prominence in a broadcast or publication.
547	prime time	n.	Period when largest audience watches TV or listens to radio.
548	circulation	n.	Total copies of a publication distributed, sold, or delivered.
549	clipping	n.	Article or story cut from publication for keeping or reference.
550	issue	n.	One edition of a series of regularly published materials.
551	photojournalism	n.	Reporting news primarily using photographs in publications.
552	periodical	n.	Publication produced regularly, often focused on specific topics.
553	quarterly	n.	Publication produced four times annually, at regular intervals.
554	citizen journalism	n.	News coverage by ordinary people, shared on the Internet.
555	anonymous	adj.	Person whose identity is unknown or deliberately concealed.
556	high-profile	adj.	Attracting significant public attention or media interest.
557	nationwide	adj.	Existing, occurring, or distributed across an entire country.
558	ballot	n.	Document listing options or candidates for voting purposes.
559	clear up	v.	To become free of clouds, rain, or stormy conditions.
560	drift	v.	To move slowly through air or water naturally without control.
561	changeability	n.	Quality or tendency to change frequently or suddenly over time.
562	soak	v.	To make completely wet by water or other liquid substance.
563	downpour	n.	Brief, heavy rainfall falling intensely over a short period.
564	front	n.	Boundary where two air masses of different temperatures meet.
565	gale	n.	Very strong and powerful wind moving over a distance.
566	puddle	n.	Small pool of water or liquid, typically caused by rain.
567	snowdrift	n.	Mass of snow accumulated by wind into a mound or pile.
568	torrent	n.	Fast-moving, powerful stream of water or liquid substance.
569	vapor	n.	Tiny liquid droplets suspended in air due to heating.
570	thundercloud	n.	Large dark cloud producing lightning and associated thunder.
571	whirlwind	n.	Very strong spinning wind causing destruction in its path.
572	cloudburst	n.	Sudden, heavy rainfall over a short, concentrated area.
573	breezy	adj.	Characterized by gentle, refreshing wind or airflow.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
574	climatic	adj.	Relating to the typical weather of a specific geographic region.
575	dense	adj.	Thick and hard to see through, often describing fog or smoke.
576	dull	adj.	Overcast or cloudy weather lacking brightness or sunlight.
577	extreme	adj.	Very high in intensity, degree, or intensity of conditions.
578	unpredictable	adj.	Impossible to forecast due to frequent and sudden changes.
579	hazy	adj.	Air condition reducing visibility due to mist, heat, or dust.
580	thaw	v.	To melt or become softer after being frozen solidly.
581	scorching hot	n.	Weather or temperature extremely high, causing intense heat.
582	price tag	n.	Label indicating how much a product or item costs.
583	dressing room	n.	Room in store where customers try clothes before purchase.
584	bargain	v.	To negotiate better terms, price, or agreement for purchase.
585	barter	v.	To exchange goods or services directly without using money.
586	sell out	v.	To completely sell all tickets, products, or seats available.
587	chain store	n.	One of a series of stores under the same ownership or brand.
588	florist	n.	Shop or person selling flowers, plants, and floral arrangements.
589	grocer	n.	Seller of food and daily necessities in small stores or markets.
590	stationer	n.	Seller of writing materials like pens, paper, and office supplies.
591	transaction	n.	Process of buying or selling goods or services between parties.
592	on sale	phr.	Available for purchase at a store or discounted price.
593	promotion	n.	Activity increasing product sales by attracting public attention.
594	voucher	n.	Paper or digital code used instead of money or for discounts.
595	half-price	adj.	Reduced to fifty percent of the original cost or previous price.
596	foot traffic	n.	Number of people visiting a shop or location during a period.
597	attendance	n.	State of being present at school, class, or event.
598	detention	n.	Punishment where a student stays after school for misbehavior.
599	principal	n.	Person in charge of managing and leading a school effectively.
600	chair	n.	Position held by a professor leading an academic department.
601	dropout	n.	Student who leaves school or college before completing studies.
602	scholar	n.	Person with extensive knowledge in a particular academic field.
603	truant	n.	Student who stays away from school without official permission.
604	confer	v.	To grant an official degree, title, or right to someone.
605	expel	v.	To forcefully remove a student from school or organization.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
606	skip	v.	To deliberately not participate in an activity or class session.
607	flag	v.	To mark something in order to make it more noticeable.
608	doctorate	n.	Highest academic degree awarded by a university.
609	field day	n.	School day for outdoor activities and competitive sports games.
610	literate	adj.	Having the ability to read and write competently.
611	prestigious	adj.	Highly respected and honored in a particular field or society.
612	vocational	adj.	Related to skills or knowledge needed for a specific occupation.
613	residence hall	n.	University building where students live on campus temporarily.
614	theology	n.	Academic study of religion, faith, and spiritual beliefs.
615	AWOL	adj.	Being absent from duty or school without permission or notice.
616	applaud	v.	To clap hands as a sign of approval or praise.
617	bat	v.	To quickly open and close one's eyes to attract attention.
618	glance	v.	To briefly look at someone or something for observation.
619	articulate	v.	To clearly express thoughts or feelings verbally and effectively.
620	bind	v.	To tie someone or something to prevent movement or escape.
621	cling	v.	To tightly hold on to someone or something for support.
622	craft	v.	To skillfully make something by hand or with tools.
623	creep	v.	To move slowly and quietly to avoid being noticed by others.
624	circulate	v.	To constantly move around a gas, liquid, or air inside space.
625	descend	v.	To move downward toward a lower level or position.
626	exert	v.	To put force or influence on someone or something effectively.
627	forge	v.	To shape or create metal by heating and hammering into form.
628	grasp	v.	To take and tightly hold something with your hand.
629	grip	v.	To firmly hold or secure an object to prevent movement.
630	preside	v.	To act in an authoritative role during meeting or ceremony.
631	resemble	v.	To have a similar appearance or characteristic to someone else.
632	simulate	v.	To imitate or reproduce the qualities of something realistically.
633	slam	v.	To forcefully shut or close a door, lid, or other object.
634	unify	v.	To become or make whole or united as one entity.
635	utilize	v.	To put something to effective use for a particular purpose.
636	tempt	v.	To feel a strong desire to do something often forbidden.
637	weave	v.	To create fabric by interlacing threads or strands in a pattern.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
638	regain	v.	To get back something lost, particularly a quality or ability.
639	pioneer	v.	To be the first to invent, discover, or implement something.
640	enrich	v.	To improve or enhance the quality of something substantially.
641	notify	v.	To officially let someone know about an event or action.
642	maximize	v.	To increase something to its highest possible level effectively.
643	minimize	v.	To reduce something to the smallest possible amount or level.
644	log	v.	To officially record events, data, or actions systematically.
645	insult	v.	To deliberately say or do something disrespectful to someone.
646	confine	v.	To keep someone or something within limits or boundaries.
647	imprison	v.	To put someone in prison or restrict their freedom forcibly.
648	drown	v.	To die due to being submerged under water for too long.
649	dispose	v.	To arrange or put someone or something in a proper order.
650	acquisition	n.	The act of buying or obtaining something, usually valuable.
651	retailer	n.	A store or business selling goods directly to the public.
652	commodity	n.	An unprocessed material that can be traded in markets.
653	merchandise	n.	Goods that are bought, sold, or offered for sale commercially.
654	cooperative	n.	An organization jointly owned and run by its members.
655	deficit	n.	Amount by which resources or money are insufficient for needs.
656	expenditure	n.	The act of spending money on goods, services, or obligations.
657	invoice	n.	A detailed list of purchased goods or services with total cost.
658	margin	n.	Difference between production cost and sale price of an item.
659	turnover	n.	Overall profit made by a business during a specific time period.
660	Ltd	n.	Indicates owners' liability is limited to their invested amount.
661	net	adj.	Final amount remaining after deducting all costs or expenses.
662	incorporated	adj.	Legally recognized as a corporate business entity.
663	administer	v.	To manage a company, organization, or its affairs efficiently.
664	merge	v.	To combine two or more entities into a single unified whole.
665	take over	v.	To gain control of a company by buying majority shares.
666	shipping	n.	The process of transporting goods, particularly via sea or land.
667	warehouse	n.	Large building used to store raw materials or finished products.
668	accomplishment	n.	A significant goal achieved through effort, skill, or hard work.
669	advancement	n.	The process of improvement or progress in a career or field.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
670	aspiration	n.	A valued goal or ambition that one strongly wishes to achieve.
671	boom	n.	A period of rapid economic growth or expansion.
672	glory	n.	Popularity, honor, or praise received after a great success.
673	achiever	n.	Someone who attains high levels of success in their profession.
674	big time	n.	The highest and most successful level in a particular profession.
675	attain	v.	To succeed in reaching a desired goal through effort or work.
676	blossom	v.	To develop in a healthier, more successful, or confident way.
677	congratulate	v.	To express praise or good wishes for someone's achievement.
678	consolidate	v.	To strengthen a position of power or success for lasting effect.
679	flourish	v.	To grow or develop quickly and successfully.
680	fly high	v.	To be experiencing great success or recognition.
681	pay off	v.	(Of actions) To succeed and produce desired positive results.
682	prosper	v.	To grow successfully, especially financially or professionally.
683	strive	v.	To work as hard as possible to achieve a goal.
684	thrive	v.	To grow, develop, or succeed exceptionally well.
685	drive	n.	Coordinated efforts aimed at achieving a goal or objective.
686	effectiveness	n.	The quality of producing the desired outcome successfully.
687	perseverance	n.	Persistent effort despite difficulties or obstacles.
688	resolve	n.	Strong determination to achieve something of value.
689	desirable	adj.	Worth having, obtaining, or achieving.
690	distinguished	adj.	Highly successful, respected, and recognized in a field.
691	favorable	adj.	Expressing approval, support, or advantage.
692	feasible	adj.	Capable of being done successfully; practical and achievable.
693	fulfilled	adj.	Feeling satisfied and happy with one's achievements or life.
694	notable	adj.	Deserving attention due to being remarkable or important.
695	live up to	v.	To meet expectations or standards set by oneself or others.
696	with flying colors	n.	In a very successful or outstanding manner.
697	concede	v.	To reluctantly admit something is true after initial denial.
698	cooperate	v.	To work jointly with others toward a shared objective or goal.
699	interfere	v.	To get involved in a situation unnecessarily, often annoyingly.
700	seal	v.	To finalize or confirm a contract, deal, or agreement.
701	sign	v.	To agree formally to a contract by putting one's signature on it.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
702	undertake	v.	To accept responsibility or promise to perform a specific task.
703	violate	v.	To disobey or break a law, rule, or formal agreement.
704	raise hell	phr.	To complain loudly or object angrily to something.
705	wrap up	v.	To complete or conclude a meeting, task, or agreement.
706	compliance	n.	The act of following rules, regulations, or orders.
707	consensus	n.	General agreement reached collectively by all group members.
708	convention	n.	Socially accepted behavior considered appropriate in society.
709	breach	n.	An act of violating a law, rule, or formal agreement.
710	commitment	n.	Dedication or obligation to a cause, task, or person.
711	fuss	n.	A quarrel or complaint about something unimportant.
712	settlement	n.	An official resolution that ends a dispute or disagreement.
713	submission	n.	Yielding to authority or accepting defeat without resistance.
714	mutual	adj.	Done or shared reciprocally between two or more individuals.
715	contrary	adj.	Completely opposed or different in nature or usual behavior.
716	joint	adj.	Shared, controlled, or done by two or more people.
717	persuasive	adj.	Able to convince others to believe or take a particular action.
718	settled	adj.	Agreed upon, resolved, or decided officially.
719	inconsistent	adj.	Not remaining the same; unpredictable in quality or behavior.
720	demonstration	n.	Public display of support or protest via meetings or marches.
721	off the table	phr.	Unavailable or no longer open for consideration or discussion.
722	like hell	phr.	Emphasizes extreme intensity or speed, often ironically.
723	loudmouth	n.	A person who talks excessively, often offensively or foolishly.
724	cynical	adj.	Distrustful, believing people act mainly from selfish motives.
725	loony	adj.	Showing foolish, irrational, or eccentric behavior.
726	naive	adj.	Lacking experience, judgment, or worldly wisdom.
727	flawed	adj.	Having defects, weaknesses, or imperfections.
728	noble	adj.	Having admirable moral qualities deserving respect and honor.
729	obsessive	adj.	Giving excessive, unhealthy attention to something or someone.
730	persistent	adj.	Continuing despite difficulties, resistance, or discouragement.
731	pushy	adj.	Aggressively forceful in pursuing personal goals.
732	malicious	adj.	Intending to cause harm, suffering, or distress.
733	rebellious	adj.	Resisting authority, control, or established rules.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
734	resentful	adj.	Feeling bitterness or anger over perceived unfair treatment.
735	secretive	adj.	Inclined to conceal thoughts, feelings, or information.
736	self-centered	adj.	Excessively focused on oneself, ignoring others' needs.
737	superficial	adj.	Lacking depth, seriousness, or meaningful understanding.
738	suspicious	adj.	Distrustful and doubtful of others' honesty or intentions.
739	timid	adj.	Lacking confidence, courage, or assertiveness.
740	vain	adj.	Excessively proud of appearance, abilities, or achievements.
741	villainous	adj.	Showing cruel, immoral, or evil behavior.
742	knowledgeable	adj.	Possessing extensive information or expertise.
743	open-minded	adj.	Willing to consider different ideas or opinions.
744	mature	adj.	Behaving responsibly and sensibly, like an adult.
745	plain	adj.	Simple, direct, and without embellishment.
746	principled	adj.	Guided by strong moral values and integrity.
747	prominent	adj.	Well-known and important due to influence or status.
748	rational	adj.	Using logic rather than emotions when deciding.
749	relatable	adj.	Easy for others to understand or connect with.
750	renowned	adj.	Widely known and admired by many people.
751	dedicated	adj.	Fully committed and loyal to a purpose.
752	humble	adj.	Modest, lacking arrogance or excessive pride.
753	self-motivated	adj.	Driven to work hard without external pressure.
754	straightforward	adj.	Honest, direct, and uncomplicated in behavior.
755	tactful	adj.	Careful to avoid offending or upsetting others.
756	thoughtful	adj.	Showing consideration or deep reflection.
757	tolerant	adj.	Respecting differing opinions or behaviors.
758	trustworthy	adj.	Deserving trust and confidence from others.
759	truthful	adj.	Honest and free from lies or deception.
760	vicious	adj.	Violent, cruel, or deliberately harmful.
761	foolhardy	adj.	Recklessly bold without regard for danger.
762	withdrawn	adj.	Socially distant, avoiding interaction with others.
763	rat	n.	A person who betrays others by informing authorities.
764	poker face	n.	An expression revealing no emotions or reactions.
765	playlist	n.	A selected collection of songs arranged for playback.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
766	acoustic	adj.	Producing sound naturally without electronic amplification.
767	instrumental	adj.	Consisting of music played only by instruments.
768	tuneless	adj.	Lacking melody or pleasant musical sound.
769	amplifier	n.	An electronic device that increases sound volume.
770	jukebox	n.	A machine playing selected music after payment.
771	synthesizer	n.	An electronic instrument generating various musical sounds.
772	anthem	n.	An official song symbolizing a nation or group.
773	ballad	n.	A narrative song or poem telling a story.
774	bagpipe	n.	A traditional wind instrument using air-filled bags.
775	bow	n.	A curved rod with hair used on strings.
776	string	n.	A stretched cord producing sound when plucked.
777	harp	n.	A triangular stringed instrument played with fingers.
778	in tune	phr.	Playing or singing with correct pitch accuracy.
779	concerto	n.	A composition featuring soloists accompanied by orchestra.
780	duo	n.	A musical performance involving two performers.
781	bar	n.	A measured section of music containing beats.
782	key	n.	A tonal framework based on specific notes.
783	pitch	n.	The perceived highness or lowness of sound.
784	scale	n.	A sequence of musical notes ordered by pitch.
785	harmony	n.	Simultaneous notes combined to produce pleasing sound.
786	symphony	n.	A large orchestral composition in multiple movements.
787	melody	n.	A sequence of notes forming a musical tune.
788	movement	n.	A distinct section within a larger musical work.
789	stream	v.	To play media directly from internet sources.
790	hum	v.	To sing softly with lips closed.
791	whistle	v.	To produce sound by blowing through lips.
792	gospel	n.	A religious music genre expressing strong spiritual emotion.
793	funk	n.	A rhythmic music style emphasizing strong groove.
794	brass	n.	Wind instruments made of metal producing sound.
795	soul	n.	A music genre expressing deep emotional intensity.
796	woodwind	n.	Wind instruments producing sound through air vibration.
797	samba	n.	Fast Brazilian dance music with strong rhythms.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
798	percussion	n.	Instruments played by striking, shaking, or scraping.
799	tango	n.	A dramatic partner dance music from Argentina.
800	sue	v.	To file a legal claim against someone.
801	acquit	v.	To officially declare someone not guilty in court.
802	bail	v.	To release someone temporarily after paying court security.
803	condemn	v.	To formally sentence someone to severe legal punishment.
804	convict	v.	To formally declare someone guilty of a crime.
805	enforce	v.	To ensure laws or rules are obeyed.
806	legislate	v.	To create or enact laws through authority.
807	prosecute	v.	To officially charge and try someone in court.
808	testify	v.	To give formal evidence as a court witness.
809	advocate	n.	A legal professional representing clients in court.
810	FBI	n.	A federal agency investigating serious interstate crimes.
811	cop	n.	A police officer enforcing public law.
812	plain-clothes	adj.	Dressed as civilians while performing police duties.
813	handcuff	n.	Metal restraints used to secure prisoners' wrists.
814	patrol	n.	Regular surveillance to prevent crime or disorder.
815	defendant	n.	A person accused or sued in court.
816	juvenile	n.	A person legally under the age of adulthood.
817	magistrate	n.	A judge handling minor legal cases.
818	outlaw	n.	A person operating outside the law.
819	bond	n.	Money paid to secure temporary release from jail.
820	court order	n.	A legally binding instruction issued by a judge.
821	lawsuit	n.	A legal claim brought before a court.
822	hearing	n.	A court session examining evidence and arguments.
823	custody	n.	Legal detention while awaiting trial or judgment.
824	declaration	n.	A formal written statement recognized by law.
825	guilt	n.	Legal responsibility for committing a crime.
826	innocence	n.	The state of not being legally guilty.
827	legalization	n.	The process of making something legally permitted.
828	pro bono	adj.	Provided professionally without charge or payment.
829	plea	n.	A defendant's formal statement of guilt status.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
830	testimony	n.	A sworn statement given as court evidence.
831	verdict	n.	A jury's official decision in a case.
832	warrant	n.	Legal authorization for arrest or search actions.
833	applicable	adj.	Relevant and appropriate under specific circumstances.
834	invalid	adj.	Lacking legal force or official acceptance.
835	judicial	adj.	Relating to courts, judges, or justice system.
836	liable	adj.	Legally responsible for damages or obligations.
837	regulatory	adj.	Relating to rules controlling conduct or activities.
838	undercover	adj.	Operating secretly to investigate criminal activity.
839	lethal	adj.	Capable of causing death or fatal harm.
840	declare	v.	To officially announce something publicly or formally.
841	hearsay	n.	Secondhand testimony not accepted as legal evidence.
842	public prosecutor	n.	A government lawyer prosecuting criminal cases.
843	rat out	v.	To inform authorities about others' crimes.
844	pinch	v.	To arrest or take someone into custody.
845	class action	n.	A lawsuit representing many people with shared claims.
846	carbon-neutral	adj.	Producing no net carbon emissions overall.
847	zero-emission	adj.	Producing no harmful exhaust gases during operation.
848	crude	adj.	Existing in natural raw state without processing.
849	ecological	adj.	Relating to interactions between organisms and environments.
850	radioactive	adj.	Emitting dangerous energy from unstable atomic reactions.
851	free-range	adj.	Allowing animals to roam freely instead confinement.
852	contaminate	v.	To pollute something by introducing harmful substances.
853	compost	v.	To convert organic waste into nutrient-rich soil.
854	dump	v.	To discard waste carelessly or illegally.
855	refine	v.	To remove impurities from a substance.
856	reuse	v.	To use something again for another purpose.
857	conservationist	n.	A person dedicated to protecting nature and wildlife.
858	eco-anxiety	n.	Chronic fear about environmental destruction and future.
859	disposal	n.	The act of getting rid of waste materials.
860	dumper	n.	A truck designed for transporting and unloading waste.
861	tanker	n.	A vehicle designed to transport large liquid quantities.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
862	logging	n.	The activity of cutting down trees commercially.
863	carbon monoxide	n.	A poisonous gas produced by incomplete fuel combustion.
864	microplastic	n.	Extremely small plastic particles polluting ecosystems globally.
865	pylon	n.	A tall structure supporting overhead power cables.
866	reactor	n.	A facility generating controlled nuclear energy reactions.
867	hydroelectricity	n.	Electricity generated using flowing or falling water.
868	ozone layer	n.	Atmospheric layer protecting Earth from ultraviolet radiation.
869	solar cell	n.	A device converting sunlight directly into electricity.
870	sanctuary	n.	A protected area for wildlife safety and conservation.
871	toll	n.	Number of deaths or injuries caused by disasters.
872	wildfire	n.	A fast-spreading uncontrolled fire in natural areas.
873	tidal wave	n.	A massive sea surge flooding coastal land suddenly.
874	herbicide	n.	A chemical used to destroy unwanted plant growth.
875	pollutant	n.	A substance causing environmental contamination or harm.
876	die out	v.	To become extinct or cease existing entirely.
877	rot	n.	Gradual decomposition caused by natural biological processes.
878	oil rig	n.	A structure used for drilling oil or gas.
879	ailment	n.	A minor illness or physical health problem.
880	agony	n.	Extreme physical or mental pain and suffering.
881	syndrome	n.	A set of symptoms indicating a medical condition.
882	acute	adj.	Severe and sudden in onset but short-lived.
883	chronic	adj.	Long-lasting and difficult to cure or manage.
884	contagious	adj.	Capable of spreading disease through close contact.
885	breathless	adj.	Unable to breathe comfortably or normally.
886	dizzy	adj.	Feeling unsteady with spinning or lightheaded sensations.
887	fatal	adj.	Causing death or leading inevitably to death.
888	feverish	adj.	Having symptoms caused by elevated body temperature.
889	swollen	adj.	Enlarged due to injury, infection, or inflammation.
890	asthma	n.	A chronic disease causing breathing difficulty and wheezing.
891	bird flu	n.	A viral disease transmitted from infected birds.
892	diarrhea	n.	Frequent passage of loose or liquid stools.
893	hay fever	n.	An allergic condition causing sneezing and watery eyes.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
894	HIV	n.	A virus attacking immune system cells progressively.
895	measles	n.	A contagious childhood disease causing fever and rash.
896	plague	n.	A deadly infectious disease historically spread by rodents.
897	stroke	n.	Brain damage caused by interrupted blood supply.
898	blister	n.	A fluid-filled skin swelling caused by friction.
899	lump	n.	A swollen mass under skin tissue.
900	rash	n.	Red irritated skin often caused by illness.
901	scar	n.	Permanent mark left after wound healing.
902	swelling	n.	Abnormal enlargement caused by injury or infection.
903	collapse	n.	Sudden loss of consciousness or physical strength.
904	fatigue	n.	Extreme tiredness caused by physical or mental strain.
905	fracture	n.	A break or crack in bone structure.
906	bounce back	v.	To recover health or strength after illness.
907	complain of	v.	To report experiencing pain or illness symptoms.
908	faint	v.	To lose consciousness briefly due to oxygen shortage.
909	infect	v.	To transmit disease-causing organisms to another host.
910	addict	n.	A person dependent on harmful substances compulsively.
911	carrier	n.	An individual spreading disease without showing symptoms.
912	epidemic	n.	Rapid spread of disease within a population.
913	pandemic	n.	A disease outbreak spreading across multiple countries.
914	outbreak	n.	Sudden occurrence of disease cases unexpectedly.
915	parasite	n.	An organism living off another host organism.
916	shiver	n.	Involuntary shaking caused by cold or fear.
917	worn out	adj.	Extremely tired from prolonged physical exertion.
918	stuffy	adj.	Having blocked nasal passages causing breathing difficulty.
919	chafe	v.	To irritate skin by repeated rubbing.
920	destructive	adj.	Causing serious damage, harm, or complete destruction overall.
921	disastrous	adj.	Extremely harmful, resulting in severe failure or loss.
922	elusive	adj.	Difficult to understand, define, or mentally grasp clearly.
923	grave	adj.	Extremely serious, dangerous, or worrying in nature.
924	ineffective	adj.	Not producing intended or expected practical results.
925	undesirable	adj.	Not wanted, unpleasant, or causing negative consequences.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
926	overwhelming	adj.	Too powerful, intense, or extensive to manage successfully.
927	in vain	adv.	Without success or achieving the desired outcome.
928	neglect	v.	To fail to care for properly through inattention.
929	overshadow	v.	To make something appear less important or noticeable.
930	breakdown	n.	Failure of a system, relationship, or process.
931	burden	n.	A responsibility causing stress, hardship, or difficulty.
932	catastrophe	n.	An event causing massive damage and suffering.
933	dead end	n.	A situation offering no possible progress or solution.
934	fail	n.	An unsuccessful attempt or action producing poor results.
935	fall	n.	A decrease in amount, size, or level.
936	fault	n.	A mistake or responsibility for an error.
937	hurdle	n.	A difficulty that must be overcome to succeed.
938	inconvenience	n.	A problem causing discomfort, irritation, or difficulty.
939	malfunction	n.	Failure of a machine or system to function.
940	mess	n.	A confused, problematic, or disorganized situation overall.
941	mishap	n.	A minor accident causing little or no damage.
942	odds	n.	Conditions making success difficult or unlikely.
943	oversight	n.	An error caused by failing to notice something.
944	setback	n.	A problem delaying progress or causing regression.
945	underdog	n.	A competitor expected to lose due to disadvantages.
946	give sb trouble	phr.	To cause someone difficulty, problems, or inconvenience.
947	to no effect	phr.	Without producing any noticeable or useful result.
948	up against	phr.	Facing a difficult or hostile situation directly.
949	in the face of	phr.	Despite difficulty, danger, or opposing circumstances.
950	at the expense of	phr.	Causing loss or harm to gain benefit.
951	evacuate	v.	To leave a place to avoid danger.
952	Murphy's law	n.	Principle stating anything possible to go wrong will.
953	walk a tightrope	phr.	To act carefully in a highly risky situation.
954	lobby	v.	To attempt persuading politicians regarding laws or policies.
955	reform	v.	To improve systems through deliberate structural changes.
956	diplomatic	adj.	Relating to managing peaceful relations between countries.
957	sovereign	adj.	Self-governing and independent from external political control.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
958	radical	adj.	Supporting extreme political or social change ideas.
959	activism	n.	Organized action aimed at achieving political change.
960	activist	n.	A person actively promoting political or social change.
961	ambassador	n.	Senior official representing a country in foreign affairs.
962	dictator	n.	Ruler exercising absolute power, often gained through force.
963	policy maker	n.	Person responsible for creating official policies.
964	propaganda	n.	Biased information used to influence public opinion.
965	autonomy	n.	State of self-governance and political independence.
966	constitution	n.	Fundamental laws defining a state's governance framework.
967	legislation	n.	Process of creating or enacting laws formally.
968	mandate	n.	Authority granted to govern following electoral victory.
969	cabinet	n.	Senior government officials directing national policy decisions.
970	commerce	n.	Exchange of goods and services between parties.
971	free trade	n.	International trade without tariffs or restrictions imposed.
972	poll	n.	Survey measuring public opinion on specific issues.
973	alliance	n.	Formal cooperation agreement between nations or groups.
974	ally	n.	A country supporting another, especially during conflict.
975	coalition	n.	Temporary alliance formed for political or military purposes.
976	coup	n.	Sudden illegal seizure of governmental power violently.
977	exile	n.	Forced absence from one's country for political reasons.
978	wing	n.	Faction within an organization sharing political views.
979	treaty	n.	Formal agreement governing relations between states.
980	capitalism	n.	Economic system based on private ownership and markets.
981	communism	n.	System where state controls resources and property collectively.
982	extremism	n.	Holding extreme political or ideological beliefs.
983	federalism	n.	Power shared between central and regional governments.
984	liberalism	n.	Political ideology promoting freedoms, democracy, and reform.
985	socialism	n.	System where state controls major industries and resources.
986	administrative	adj.	Relating to organization, management, and official operations.
987	congressional	adj.	Relating to the United States legislative body.
988	constitutional	adj.	Conforming to principles established by a constitution.
989	electoral	adj.	Relating to voting processes and elections.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
990	interim	adj.	Temporary, lasting until a permanent arrangement exists.
991	protocol	n.	Official rules governing formal conduct and procedures.
992	table	v.	To formally present a proposal for discussion.
993	entourage	n.	Group accompanying an important or powerful person.
994	appeasement	n.	Policy conceding demands to avoid conflict.
995	abolish	v.	To officially put an end to laws or systems.
996	align	v.	To agree with and actively support a group publicly.
997	allocate	v.	To distribute resources or assign tasks for specific purposes.
998	authorize	v.	To officially grant permission for a particular action legally.
999	betray	v.	To be disloyal by revealing secrets to enemies deliberately.
1000	breach	v.	To break a law contract or formal agreement intentionally.
1001	compel	v.	To force someone to do something unwillingly by pressure.
1002	compensate	v.	To pay someone fairly for work or losses incurred.
1003	conceal	v.	To hide something carefully from others deliberately from view.
1004	conserve	v.	To protect something from damage change or waste overuse.
1005	contemplate	v.	To think carefully about something for extended time periods.
1006	cater	v.	To provide food and drink for events professionally onsite.
1007	cultivate	v.	To prepare land for growing crops or plants successfully.
1008	substitute	v.	To replace one thing or person with another temporarily.
1009	dictate	v.	To authoritatively tell someone what actions to take exactly.
1010	disclose	v.	To reveal information previously kept secret publicly to others.
1011	distort	v.	To twist facts shapes or meanings inaccurately for effect.
1012	embody	v.	To represent or express a quality or idea fully.
1013	entitle	v.	To grant someone a legal right officially under law.
1014	instruct	v.	To officially tell someone how to act properly thereafter.
1015	linger	v.	To remain longer than expected unwilling to leave comfortably.
1016	fade	v.	To gradually disappear lose strength or visibility over time.
1017	outrage	v.	To shock or anger someone extremely by actions taken.
1018	reassure	v.	To comfort someone by reducing fear or worry effectively.
1019	vow	v.	To make a serious promise regarding future actions formally.
1020	resurface	v.	To become noticeable again after being forgotten or ignored.
1021	rehash	v.	To present old ideas again with minor changes only.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1022	inquisitive	adj.	Eager to explore, learn, or ask questions about everything.
1023	astounded	adj.	Extremely shocked, surprised, or filled with great astonishment.
1024	agitated	adj.	Nervous, restless, or unable to think clearly because disturbed.
1025	disgusted	adj.	Feeling intense dislike, revulsion, or strong moral disapproval.
1026	lovable	adj.	Possessing qualities that inspire warmth, affection, or fondness.
1027	desolate	adj.	Feeling lonely, abandoned, or empty emotionally and socially.
1028	ecstatic	adj.	Overwhelmingly happy, thrilled, or filled with intense joy.
1029	horrified	adj.	Feeling intense fear, shock, or disgust at something.
1030	disturbed	adj.	Emotionally upset, troubled, or agitated by an external factor.
1031	uneasy	adj.	Nervous, anxious, or uncomfortable about a possible event.
1032	fierce	adj.	Aggressive, intense, or strong in attitude, behavior, or action.
1033	frozen	adj.	Cold, immobile, or emotionally distant from others.
1034	frustrated	adj.	Feeling annoyed or upset due to inability to achieve something.
1035	protective	adj.	Inclined to guard, defend, or shield someone or something.
1036	provocative	adj.	Causing strong reactions, emotions, or debate intentionally.
1037	speechless	adj.	Temporarily unable to speak due to shock, surprise, or anger.
1038	compassion	n.	Deep sympathy and concern for someone else's suffering.
1039	heartbreak	n.	Intense emotional pain or sorrow from disappointment or loss.
1040	goddamn	adj.	Expressing strong anger, frustration, or annoyance offensively.
1041	atomic	adj.	Related to atoms, their structure, properties, and interactions.
1042	nucleus	n.	(Biology) Central cell part containing most genetic information.
1043	bond	n.	A link that holds atoms or ions together firmly.
1044	density	n.	Degree a substance is compacted, mass divided by volume.
1045	gravity	n.	Universal force attracting any two objects with mass.
1046	particle	n.	Smallest unit of energy or matter, e.g., atom or electron.
1047	property	n.	Feature or quality belonging to or describing something.
1048	metabolism	n.	Chemical processes converting food into energy for body use.
1049	organic	adj.	From or related to living things or their products.
1050	evolution	n.	(Biology) Gradual development of living things over time.
1051	genome	n.	Complete set of genetic material of any living organism.
1052	hybrid	n.	Animal or plant with parents from different breeds or varieties.
1053	clone	n.	Cell or group genetically identical to original source.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1054	reproduce	v.	To produce offspring or more of oneself biologically.
1055	stimulus	n.	Something triggering a reaction in psychology or physiology.
1056	synthesis	n.	Act of producing a substance existing in living beings.
1057	accelerate	v.	To increase the velocity of something in motion.
1058	dissolve	v.	To become one with a liquid by mixing completely.
1059	acid	n.	Water-soluble chemical containing Hydrogen, sour or corrosive.
1060	lead	n.	Heavy soft metal used in bullets, plumbing, and roofing.
1061	conductor	n.	Substance that allows electricity to pass through it efficiently.
1062	crystal	n.	Solid with atoms arranged in a highly regular, repeating pattern.
1063	gunpowder	n.	Explosive powder used in bullets, bombs, and fireworks.
1064	dynamite	n.	Extremely powerful explosive substance used for blasting.
1065	composition	n.	Different elements forming something or their arrangement.
1066	emit	v.	To release heat, light, sound, or radiation from source.
1067	ray	n.	Column of light emitted from a focused source or beacon.
1068	laser	n.	Device producing concentrated beam of light for various uses.
1069	thermal	adj.	Related to heat, temperature, or energy stored as heat.
1070	compress	v.	To press together, reducing size or volume physically.
1071	generator	n.	Machine producing electricity by converting mechanical energy.
1072	evaporate	v.	To become gas or vapor from a liquid state.
1073	vacuum	n.	Space completely empty of all matter and particles.
1074	infinite	adj.	Without limits or end in extent, amount, or space.
1075	residue	n.	Small remaining part of a substance after most is removed.
1076	double-decker	n.	Vehicle with two levels stacked, providing extra seating capacity.
1077	freight car	n.	Railroad car used specifically for transporting goods.
1078	freight train	n.	Train that transports goods rather than carrying passengers.
1079	jeep	n.	Sturdy vehicle designed to travel on rough, uneven surfaces.
1080	minibus	n.	Small passenger vehicle, larger than car but smaller than bus.
1081	airliner	n.	Large aircraft used primarily for passenger transportation.
1082	zeppelin	n.	Large airship originally developed and used in Germany.
1083	vessel	n.	Any vehicle designed for travel across or through water.
1084	cruiser	n.	Large motorboat with cabin for sleeping, used recreationally.
1085	canoe	n.	Narrow, light boat with pointed ends propelled using paddles.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1086	kayak	n.	Light boat with top opening where paddler sits inside.
1087	lifeboat	n.	Boat used to save people whose lives are at risk at sea.
1088	powerboat	n.	Motorboat designed for high speed, often used in races.
1089	speedboat	n.	Boat constructed specifically for rapid movement on water.
1090	RV	n.	Motorized or towable vehicle with living amenities for travel.
1091	submarine	n.	Warship capable of operating both on surface and under water.
1092	folder	n.	Plastic or card cover used for storing sheets of paper.
1093	paperclip	n.	Small wire or plastic piece holding sheets of paper together.
1094	alligator clip	n.	Metal object with toothed jaws and spring for holding items.
1095	post-it	n.	Small sticky colored note easily removable for reminders.
1096	clipboard	n.	Small board with clip on top for holding sheets of paper.
1097	fountain pen	n.	Refillable pen that dispenses ink through its nib.
1098	nib	n.	Tip of a pen that transfers ink onto paper.
1099	ballpoint	n.	Pen with small rolling metal ball putting ink onto paper.
1100	biro	n.	Pen with rolling metal ball that lays ink on paper.
1101	lead	n.	Graphite object inside pencil leaving marks on paper.
1102	Scotch tape	n.	Transparent adhesive tape used for sticking items together.
1103	highlighter	n.	Colored pen used to emphasize words in text or documents.
1104	felt tip	n.	Pen with tip made from pressed fiber called felt.
1105	stapler	n.	Tool fastening sheets of paper together using metal staples.
1106	pencil sharpener	n.	Handheld tool with blade used to sharpen pencils effectively.
1107	Witeout	n.	White liquid applied to cover writing mistakes on paper.
1108	pushpin	n.	Thumbtack with colored top used to fasten paper on surfaces.
1109	thumbtack	n.	Short pin with flat head for attaching paper to wall or board.
1110	punch	n.	Tool or machine for making holes in paper or other materials.
1111	notepad	n.	Set of paper sheets held together for writing notes.
1112	mechanical pencil	n.	Pencil with button to advance lead automatically for writing.
1113	in-basket	n.	Tray on desk where incoming tasks or documents are placed.
1114	out-basket	n.	Desk tray holding completed tasks or documents before filing.
1115	file cabinet	n.	Office furniture with drawers for storing documents securely.
1116	wastebasket	n.	Open container for holding trash, especially paper waste.
1117	handy	adj.	Functional, convenient, and easy to use in practice.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1118	ace	v.	To perform extremely well in a task or test.
1119	appoint	v.	To assign responsibility or a job to someone officially.
1120	collaborate	v.	To work together with others toward a common goal.
1121	commence	v.	To start an action, event, or process formally.
1122	follow up	v.	To investigate or act further based on previous information.
1123	multitask	v.	To simultaneously perform more than one task at once.
1124	postpone	v.	To delay an activity or event until a later time.
1125	recruit	v.	To employ people for a company or organization.
1126	resign	v.	To officially announce one's departure from a job or position.
1127	hectic	adj.	Extremely busy, chaotic, and full of activity constantly.
1128	intensive	adj.	Concentrating heavily on a specific activity or resource.
1129	monotonous	adj.	Boring due to being the same repeatedly over time.
1130	one-on-one	adj.	Activity or interaction occurring between only two people.
1131	stimulating	adj.	Causing excitement, interest, or mental engagement actively.
1132	tedious	adj.	Boring, repetitive, causing weariness due to lack of variety.
1133	underemployed	adj.	Not fully utilized in one's job or having little work.
1134	boardroom	n.	Room where a company's board of directors meets formally.
1135	vacancy	n.	A position or job that is currently available for employment.
1136	supervisor	n.	Person observing or directing work or other people's activities.
1137	amateur	n.	Person not skilled or experienced in a particular activity.
1138	interviewee	n.	Person who answers questions during an interview process.
1139	sick leave	n.	Granted period of absence from work due to illness.
1140	maternity leave	n.	Time for a woman to stay home before and after childbirth.
1141	labor	n.	Work, especially physically demanding or strenuous effort.
1142	discrimination	n.	Treating people less fairly due to category or group differences.
1143	schedule	n.	Plan or timetable outlining sequence of events or activities.
1144	workload	n.	Amount of work assigned to a person or organization over time.
1145	notice	n.	Formal declaration of intention to end a contract or agreement.
1146	increment	n.	Increase in salary or pay occurring at regular intervals.
1147	generalize	v.	To form an opinion based on limited examples or facts.
1148	go against	v.	To disagree with or fail to follow a standard.
1149	invoke	v.	To mention someone or something as support for argument.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1150	plead	v.	To state something as an excuse or justification.
1151	point	v.	To suggest that something is probable, likely, or true.
1152	prejudice	v.	To unfairly influence judgment about someone or something.
1153	reconsider	v.	To think again about an opinion or decision for change.
1154	signpost	v.	To mark a location such as a road with a sign.
1155	sum up	v.	To briefly state the most important points or facts.
1156	yap	v.	To talk excessively or annoyingly without stopping.
1157	ideological	adj.	Based on specific political or economic views or policies.
1158	irrelevant	adj.	Having no importance, connection, or relevance to something.
1159	inclined	adj.	Giving opinion in a way that is not strongly stated.
1160	inflexible	adj.	Fixed, rigid, and not easily changed or adapted.
1161	mistaken	adj.	Wrong in one's judgment, belief, or opinion about something.
1162	moderate	adj.	Not extreme or radical, reasonable by most people.
1163	reserved	adj.	Reluctant to share personal feelings or problems openly.
1164	unstated	adj.	Not clearly expressed, declared, or communicated in words.
1165	vocal	adj.	Expressing opinions loudly or freely without restraint.
1166	no kidding	int.	Used to emphasize the truthfulness of a statement.
1167	honest to God	adj.	Used to stress the speaker is telling the truth.
1168	at all	adv.	To the smallest extent, degree, or amount possible.
1169	that said	phr.	Introducing a statement contrasting what was previously stated.
1170	beyond doubt	adv.	In a way that is absolutely certain and unquestionable.
1171	hostility	n.	Aggressive or unfriendly behavior or feelings toward someone.
1172	objectivity	n.	Being influenced only by facts and statistics, not feelings.
1173	premise	n.	Statement or theory forming the foundation of an argument.
1174	reasoning	n.	Act of thinking logically and rationally about something.
1175	say	n.	Right or opportunity to give one's opinion about something.
1176	voice	n.	Right or opportunity to express opinion on something specific.
1177	solidarity	n.	Support among members sharing opinions, feelings, or goals.
1178	amateur	adj.	Done for recreation or enjoyment rather than as occupation.
1179	snorkel	v.	To swim underwater using a hollow tube for breathing.
1180	wade	v.	To walk through shallow water carefully or steadily.
1181	ballroom dancing	n.	Type of dance with fixed steps performed by two people.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1182	boating	n.	Traveling or recreational activity using a boat.
1183	bodybuilding	n.	Exercising regularly to develop stronger and larger muscles.
1184	brewing	n.	Making beer through fermentation as a business or hobby.
1185	bungee jumping	n.	Jumping from high place with elastic cord attached to ankles.
1186	flower arranging	n.	Skill of arranging cut flowers attractively for display.
1187	modeling	n.	Practice of creating something on a smaller, scaled version.
1188	palm reading	n.	Interpreting character or future by examining someone's palm.
1189	parachuting	n.	Activity of jumping from plane using a parachute for descent.
1190	sewing	n.	Skill or practice of making or repairing clothes with needle.
1191	wine tasting	n.	Event where people taste and compare different types of wine.
1192	astrology	n.	Study of stars and planets thought to influence people's lives.
1193	bullfight	n.	Public entertainment involving fighting or killing a bull.
1194	calligraphy	n.	Art of producing beautiful handwriting with special instruments.
1195	dressage	n.	Special horse movements performed or trained for competition.
1196	paintball	n.	Game where players use guns to shoot paint at opponents.
1197	Sudoku	n.	Number puzzle requiring placing digits 1–9 without repetition.
1198	tarot	n.	Set of illustrated cards used in fortune-telling practices.
1199	Zumba	n.	Fitness program involving Latin-inspired dance movements.
1200	knit	v.	To create fabric or clothing by interlacing yarn using needles.
1201	aristocrat	n.	Member of highest social rank, typically privileged or noble.
1202	baron	n.	Nobleman of varying rank depending on country or region.
1203	earl	n.	British man of high social rank or noble status.
1204	noble	n.	Person holding highest social rank in society.
1205	peer	n.	Person of same age, status, or capability as another.
1206	belonging	n.	Feeling of being comfortable, accepted, or included in group.
1207	citizenship	n.	Legal status of being a recognized member of a country.
1208	alien	adj.	Originating from a place, culture, or context that is unfamiliar.
1209	civic	adj.	Related to duties or activities of a town, city, or local community.
1210	humanitarian	adj.	Showing concern for human welfare and well-being actively.
1211	sexuality	n.	Qualities, feelings, or activities related to sexual behavior.
1212	feminist	adj.	Supporting principles of equality between sexes or genders.
1213	gender-neutral	adj.	Not exclusive to any gender; suitable for all identities.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1214	masculine	adj.	Related to qualities or behaviors typically associated with men.
1215	bisexual	n.	Person sexually attracted to more than one gender.
1216	heterosexual	n.	Person sexually attracted to people of the opposite sex.
1217	homosexual	n.	Person sexually attracted to people of the same sex.
1218	gay	n.	Person, often male, attracted to people of same sex.
1219	lesbian	n.	Woman sexually attracted to other women.
1220	straight	n.	Person attracted sexually to people of the opposite sex.
1221	transgender	adj.	Gender identity does not match the sex assigned at birth.
1222	demographic	n.	Statistical characteristics of a population, like age or gender.
1223	ethnicity	n.	State of belonging to a specific ethnic group or heritage.
1224	rebel	v.	To oppose or resist authority, ruler, or government.
1225	integrate	v.	To become accepted as part of a social group or society.
1226	segregation	n.	Social practice of separating minority groups from majority.
1227	multicultural	adj.	Involving or relating to multiple different cultures within society.
1228	superior	adj.	Higher in rank, status, or quality compared to others.
1229	senior citizen	n.	Elderly person, usually retired and of advanced age.
1230	bourgeoisie	n.	Society's middle class, typically business-owning or professional.
1231	petite bourgeoisie	n.	Lower middle class in society, often small business owners.
1232	protocol	n.	Accepted way of behavior in community or social group.
1233	father	n.	God's title used by Christians, denoting divine authority.
1234	Christ	n.	Man whose teachings form the foundation of Christianity.
1235	Jesus	n.	Believed Son of God, central figure in Christian religion.
1236	Saint	n.	Person officially recognized as very holy after death.
1237	Pope	n.	Person leading the Roman Catholic Church globally.
1238	bishop	n.	High-ranking priest supervising churches and clergy in a city.
1239	pastor	n.	Priest or minister in charge of a Christian church.
1240	brother	n.	Man belonging to a religious group, especially a monk.
1241	missionary	n.	Person sent abroad to teach or promote a religion.
1242	monk	n.	Male member of a religious community living in a monastery.
1243	nun	n.	Female member of a religious community living in a convent.
1244	Catholic	adj.	Related to Western Christian Church led by the Pope.
1245	congregation	n.	Group gathering in a church to pray or worship collectively.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1246	parish	n.	Church district under the care of a local priest.
1247	convert	n.	Person who changes their religion or belief system.
1248	pilgrim	n.	Religious person traveling to a sacred place for devotion.
1249	christening	n.	Ceremony naming a baby and admitting them into Christianity.
1250	blessing	n.	Prayer asking for God's protection, help, or guidance.
1251	Buddhist	n.	Person who follows the teachings of Buddhism.
1252	funeral	n.	Religious ceremony to bury or cremate a deceased person.
1253	Islam	n.	Religion established by Muhammad, based on Quran teachings.
1254	Muhammad	n.	Arab prophet who founded the Islamic religion.
1255	monastery	n.	Building where monks live, pray, and practice religious life.
1256	shrine	n.	Place considered holy for prayer due to sacred association.
1257	ritual	n.	Conducting a series of fixed actions in religious ceremonies.
1258	divine	adj.	Originating from or relating to God or a deity.
1259	sacred	adj.	Connected with God and considered holy or deeply respected.
1260	secular	adj.	Not connected or concerned with religion or spirituality.
1261	preach	v.	To give a religious speech, particularly in a church.
1262	sacrifice	v.	To kill as an act of religious devotion or ritual.
1263	sin	v.	To act against religious or moral rules knowingly.
1264	worship	v.	To honor and respect God or deity through ritual acts.
1265	archbishop	n.	Bishop of highest rank overseeing churches in large area.
1266	God-fearing	adj.	Very faithful to God and devoted sincerely to religious life.
1267	godless	adj.	Lacking faith in or respect for God or religious authority.
1268	fear	v.	To show deep reverence, respect, and awe toward God.
1269	gastronomy	n.	Art and science of preparing and eating quality food.
1270	bistro	n.	Small, inexpensive restaurant serving casual meals.
1271	confectionery	n.	Store selling chocolates, sweets, or similar sugary foods.
1272	diner	n.	Small restaurant typically serving casual meals.
1273	drive-through	n.	Service allowing purchase without leaving one's vehicle.
1274	food court	n.	Public area with multiple small restaurants grouped together.
1275	cholesterol	n.	Fatty substance in blood, high levels risk heart disease.
1276	greasy	adj.	Containing or cooked with a large amount of oil.
1277	oily	adj.	Containing a noticeable quantity of oil.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1278	savory	adj.	Pleasing or agreeable to the taste or flavor.
1279	stale	adj.	No longer fresh due to exposure or prolonged storage.
1280	tasteless	adj.	Lacking flavor or appealing taste entirely.
1281	tender	adj.	Easy to cut or chew, especially referring to food.
1282	yummy	adj.	Tasting very good or highly enjoyable to eat.
1283	self-service	adj.	Customers serve themselves and pay afterward.
1284	appetizer	n.	Small dish eaten before the main part of a meal.
1285	entree	n.	Main portion of a meal, usually the largest course.
1286	specialty	n.	Food or drink a place is particularly known for.
1287	a la carte	n.	Menu where each dish is priced and ordered separately.
1288	gourmet	n.	Person knowledgeable and appreciative of fine food and wine.
1289	schnitzel	n.	Thin meat slice coated in breadcrumbs and fried.
1290	spring roll	n.	Pancake filled with vegetables or meat, fried until crispy.
1291	port	n.	Dark-red sweet wine, typically from Portugal.
1292	wine and dine	v.	Entertain someone with generous food and drink.
1293	pina colada	n.	Drink made from pineapple, coconut, and rum.
1294	frappe	n.	Beverage served with crushed ice or small ice pieces.
1295	adhere	v.	To firmly stick to something.
1296	allege	v.	To claim something is true without proof.
1297	attribute	v.	To say something is caused by a particular source or factor.
1298	await	v.	To wait for someone or something.
1299	cease	v.	To bring an action, activity, or process to an end.
1300	characterize	v.	To describe the qualities of someone or something.
1301	compute	v.	To calculate or determine a value using mathematics.
1302	conceive	v.	To form an idea, plan, or notion in the mind.
1303	counter	v.	To act in opposition to reduce harmful or negative effects.
1304	designate	v.	To choose someone for a specific role or task.
1305	differentiate	v.	To recognize the differences between two or more things.
1306	discard	v.	To throw away or get rid of something no longer needed.
1307	oversee	v.	To supervise an activity to ensure it is performed correctly.
1308	denounce	v.	To publicly condemn or express disapproval of something.
1309	dissolve	v.	To make a substance mix completely with a liquid.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1310	elevate	v.	To raise someone or something to a higher rank or position.
1311	enquire	v.	To investigate or examine something to gather information.
1312	diminish	v.	To decrease in size, degree, or importance.
1313	intensify	v.	To increase in degree, strength, or severity.
1314	escalate	v.	To become or make something worse or more intense.
1315	exaggerate	v.	To describe something as greater, larger, or worse than it is.
1316	supplement	v.	To add to something to improve or complete it.
1317	formulate	v.	To prepare or create something carefully and systematically.
1318	heighten	v.	To make something more intense or severe.
1319	disrupt	v.	To interrupt or stop the normal flow of something.
1320	inhibit	v.	To prevent or restrain an action or process.
1321	license	v.	To give official permission to use or perform something.
1322	devastate	v.	To destroy something completely.
1323	oblige	v.	To compel someone to act due to law, duty, or necessity.
1324	obsess	v.	To think about something constantly and excessively.
1325	persist	v.	To continue determinedly despite difficulty or opposition.
1326	recount	v.	To describe events or experiences in detail.
1327	render	v.	To provide a service, help, or result as required or expected.
1328	spare	v.	To give something one has in abundance to someone else.
1329	stabilize	v.	To make something steady or prevent fluctuation.
1330	supervise	v.	To oversee an activity or person to ensure proper conduct.
1331	sustain	v.	To support, uphold, or maintain credibility or validity.
1332	terminate	v.	To bring something to a complete end.
1333	warrant	v.	To justify or provide reason for an action or decision.
1334	distinctive	adj.	Possessing a quality that is noticeable and different.
1335	dual	adj.	Having or consisting of two aspects, parts, or functions.
1336	exceptional	adj.	Significantly better or greater than what is typical or expected.
1337	excess	adj.	Much more than the desirable or required amount.
1338	exclusive	adj.	Limited to a particular person, group, or purpose.
1339	explicit	adj.	Expressed very clearly, leaving no doubt or confusion.
1340	generic	adj.	Relating to a whole group or class rather than a specific one.
1341	inadequate	adj.	Not meeting the expected level of quality, skill, or ability.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1342	insufficient	adj.	Not enough in degree or amount.
1343	integral	adj.	Considered a necessary and important part of something.
1344	intermediate	adj.	Positioned or staged between two extremes, often transitional.
1345	lesser	adj.	Not as great or important as something or someone else.
1346	magical	adj.	Related to or involving magic.
1347	mere	adj.	Nothing more than what is explicitly stated.
1348	peculiar	adj.	Not usual or normal.
1349	scattered	adj.	Spread far apart or happening at irregular intervals.
1350	selective	adj.	Careful in choosing.
1351	serial	adj.	Occurring regularly one after another.
1352	sheer	adj.	Emphasizing intensity or pureness of a quality or emotion.
1353	sole	adj.	Existing without any others of the same type.
1354	specialized	adj.	Made or designed for a specific function.
1355	stark	adj.	Completely bare or extreme, without embellishment.
1356	comparable	adj.	Having similarities that justify comparison.
1357	corresponding	adj.	Connected with or similar to something previously mentioned.
1358	supreme	adj.	Having the highest position or rank.
1359	terminal	adj.	(Of an illness) having no cure and gradually leading to death.
1360	timely	adj.	Well-timed; happening at an appropriate moment.
1361	tremendous	adj.	Exceptionally large, great, or powerful.
1362	troubled	adj.	Feeling anxious or worried.
1363	unprecedented	adj.	Never having existed or occurred before.
1364	upcoming	adj.	About to happen.
1365	vague	adj.	Not clear or specific.
1366	varied	adj.	Including many different types.
1367	vulnerable	adj.	Susceptible to harm or attack.
1368	worthwhile	adj.	Deserving time, effort, or attention.
1369	topnotch	adj.	Of the highest standard or quality.
1370	decadent	adj.	Related to moral decline.
1371	homely	adj.	Comfortable and cozy, giving a sense of being at home.
1372	versatile	adj.	Able to perform many tasks or be used in multiple ways.
1373	adhere to	v.	To stick firmly to a rule, law, or principle.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1374	comply	v.	To act in agreement with rules or instructions.
1375	consent	v.	To give permission or agreement for an action.
1376	defy	v.	To openly refuse to obey authority or rules.
1377	observe	v.	To follow rules, laws, or regulations strictly.
1378	compelling	adj.	Forceful and convincing, capturing attention completely.
1379	legitimate	adj.	Allowed by law, rules, or official authority.
1380	liberal	adj.	Open-minded, tolerant, and accepting of differing beliefs.
1381	obligatory	adj.	Required by law, rule, or moral necessity.
1382	out of the question	adj.	Not possible, permitted, or acceptable under circumstances.
1383	restricted	adj.	Limited, controlled, or confined by regulations or rules.
1384	rigorous	adj.	Extremely strict, thorough, and accurate in practice.
1385	stern	adj.	Serious, strict, and showing authority or disapproval.
1386	leniently	adv.	In a tolerant or merciful manner when enforcing rules.
1387	allowance	n.	A quantity permitted or allocated under a rule.
1388	application	n.	Act of putting something to practical use or purpose.
1389	clearance	n.	Official permission to proceed or accomplish something.
1390	enforcement	n.	Act of compelling people to obey laws or rules.
1391	leave	n.	Permission granted to do something officially.
1392	green light	n.	Authorization or approval to start a project or action.
1393	must	n.	Something essential or required to do or have.
1394	obedience	n.	Act of following instructions from someone in authority.
1395	rejection	n.	Act of refusing to accept, approve, or consider something.
1396	say-so	n.	Authority or power to influence decisions or actions.
1397	dos and don'ts	phr.	Rules defining what is allowed or prohibited in situations.
1398	in accordance with	phr.	Following rules, standards, or regulations precisely.
1399	by the book	phr.	Acting strictly according to established rules or procedures.
1400	feel free	phr.	Permitted to do something without restriction or hesitation.
1401	conform	v.	To follow rules, standards, or socially accepted practices.
1402	non-compliant	adj.	Refusing to adhere to laws, rules, or regulations.
1403	commit	v.	To send someone officially to prison, hospital, or facility.
1404	conservative	adj.	Supporting tradition and opposing radical or sudden change.
1405	aide	n.	Person assisting an important figure, often professionally.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1406	curator	n.	Person responsible for managing a museum or collection.
1407	fire chief	n.	Person in charge of managing a fire department effectively.
1408	full professor	n.	University professor holding the highest academic rank.
1409	optometrist	n.	Professional examining eyes and prescribing corrective lenses.
1410	au pair	n.	Young person living abroad to help family and learn language.
1411	beautician	n.	Person professionally providing beauty treatments to clients.
1412	decorator	n.	Person designing and planning interior spaces aesthetically.
1413	handyman	n.	Person skilled in practical jobs around home or workplace.
1414	housekeeper	n.	Person responsible for cleaning and managing domestic duties.
1415	maid	n.	Female servant performing domestic tasks and assistance.
1416	merchant	n.	Person involved in buying and selling goods wholesale.
1417	nanny	n.	Woman employed to take care of children in family homes.
1418	tradesman	n.	Person selling goods, particularly in shops or marketplaces.
1419	monitor	n.	Person overseeing activities to ensure fairness or correctness.
1420	salesclerk	n.	Person serving customers and handling sales in a store.
1421	detectable	adj.	Able to be noticed, discovered, or recognized clearly.
1422	empirical	adj.	Based on observation, experience, or experimental evidence.
1423	preliminary	adj.	Occurring before more important events or actions.
1424	qualitative	adj.	Related to the quality or characteristics of something measured.
1425	scholarly	adj.	Related to or engaged in serious academic study.
1426	theoretical	adj.	Based on theory or reasoning rather than practical application.
1427	correlate	v.	To have a close or mutual relationship with something.
1428	disprove	v.	To demonstrate that a statement or idea is incorrect.
1429	verify	v.	To check or confirm the accuracy or truth of something.
1430	apparatus	n.	Tools or machines designed to perform a specific function.
1431	carbon dating	n.	Method measuring age of organic material via carbon content.
1432	control	n.	Standard used to compare results in a scientific experiment.
1433	guinea pig	n.	Person used as a subject for scientific experiments.
1434	pseudoscience	n.	Practices claimed as scientific without a valid scientific basis.
1435	subject	n.	Person or thing on which an experiment or study is performed.
1436	treatise	n.	Formal, detailed written work on a specific subject.
1437	abstract	n.	Short summary presenting the main points of a larger work.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1438	literature	n.	Writings or books produced on a specific subject or topic.
1439	citation	n.	Quoted line or sentence taken from a written or spoken source.
1440	methodology	n.	System of methods applied in research or systematic study.
1441	randomization	n.	Process of arranging subjects or items randomly to avoid bias.
1442	peer review	n.	Evaluation of academic work by experts in the same field.
1443	dissemination	n.	Action of spreading information, knowledge, or ideas widely.
1444	altitude	n.	Height of an object or point above sea level.
1445	latitude	n.	Imaginary horizontal lines measuring north-south position.
1446	longitude	n.	Distance east or west from Greenwich meridian measured.
1447	bay	n.	Curved part of shoreline larger than cove, smaller than gulf.
1448	branch	n.	Smaller division of a river separated from the main channel.
1449	clearing	n.	Treeless open area in a forest or wooded region.
1450	cove	n.	Small curved coastal area partially enclosed by land.
1451	crater	n.	Round top depression of a volcano or impact site.
1452	deposit	n.	Layer of material accumulated naturally, often by water.
1453	estuary	n.	Wide river mouth where freshwater meets the sea.
1454	flow	n.	Continuous, steady movement of liquid or other substance.
1455	gulf	n.	Sea area partially enclosed by land with narrow opening.
1456	horizon	n.	Line where sky and Earth appear to meet visually.
1457	iceberg	n.	Very large floating mass of freshwater ice.
1458	peak	n.	Pointed top of a mountain or hill.
1459	peninsula	n.	Land mostly surrounded by water, attached to larger landmass.
1460	plain	n.	Extensive flat area of land with minimal elevation change.
1461	plateau	n.	Flat elevated landform higher than surrounding terrain.
1462	pole	n.	Earth's most northern or southern points along its axis.
1463	pond	n.	Small still water body, often smaller than a lake.
1464	range	n.	Series of mountains or hills in a connected line.
1465	ravine	n.	Deep narrow valley with steep sides, often water-carved.
1466	reservoir	n.	Artificial or natural lake storing water for supply purposes.
1467	summit	n.	Highest point or top of a mountain or hill.
1468	swamp	n.	Wetland area often covered with standing water.
1469	tundra	n.	Flat Arctic regions with frozen soil, no tree growth.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1470	erode	v.	To gradually wear away land or surface by natural forces.
1471	arid	adj.	Very dry land or climate lacking sufficient rainfall.
1472	barren	adj.	Land or soil incapable of supporting vegetation.
1473	coastal	adj.	Situated along or related to the shoreline.
1474	fertile	adj.	Land capable of producing abundant crops or vegetation.
1475	inland	adj.	Located away from the sea or coastal areas.
1476	offshore	adj.	Situated in the sea, away from the coastline.
1477	marine	adj.	Related to the sea and its life forms.
1478	neighboring	adj.	Situated near or close to another place or region.
1479	upstream	adv.	Directed or moving against the current of a river or stream.
1480	batter	n.	Mixture of flour, milk, and eggs for cooking.
1481	blend	v.	To combine different substances together thoroughly.
1482	carve	v.	To cut cooked meat into smaller serving pieces.
1483	deep-fry	v.	To cook food completely submerged in hot oil.
1484	defrost	v.	To melt or soften frozen food by warming it.
1485	digest	v.	To break down food and absorb nutrients efficiently.
1486	mash	v.	To crush food into a soft, uniform mass.
1487	reheat	v.	To make previously cooked food warm again.
1488	grate	v.	To shred food into small pieces using a sharp tool.
1489	grind	v.	To crush something into small particles by friction.
1490	simmer	v.	To cook food gently at a temperature below boiling.
1491	steam	v.	To cook food using the vapor from boiling water.
1492	stew	v.	To cook food slowly in liquid inside a closed container.
1493	warm up	v.	To make already cooked food hot again.
1494	whip	v.	To mix ingredients rapidly to achieve desired texture.
1495	squeeze	v.	To force liquid out of an item by pressing firmly.
1496	bland	adj.	Lacking strong or pleasant flavor in food or drink.
1497	chunky	adj.	Containing large, noticeable pieces in the food.
1498	chewy	adj.	Requiring extensive chewing before swallowing easily.
1499	creamy	adj.	Having a smooth, soft, and rich texture.
1500	crispy	adj.	Firm and dry, producing a sharp crunch when broken.
1501	crunchy	adj.	Firm texture making a crisp sound when chewed or pressed.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1502	tinned	adj.	Preserved and sold in a sealed metal container.
1503	appetite	n.	Desire or feeling of wanting to eat food.
1504	banquet	n.	Large formal meal for many people, often celebratory.
1505	feast	n.	Large meal with fine food, typically celebratory.
1506	brunch	n.	Late morning meal combining breakfast and lunch.
1507	buffet	n.	Meal where diners serve themselves from multiple dishes.
1508	teatime	n.	Early evening or afternoon meal or light snack.
1509	corkscrew	n.	Tool with spiral metal point for pulling corks from bottles.
1510	glassware	n.	Objects made of glass, especially for eating or drinking.
1511	tureen	n.	Deep dish with lid for serving soup or stew.
1512	atrocities	n.	Extremely brutal act, usually committed during warfare.
1513	admiral	n.	Highest-ranking officer in a navy or naval fleet.
1514	general	n.	Senior military officer in army, air force, or marines.
1515	major	n.	Middle-ranking officer in the armed forces hierarchy.
1516	veteran	n.	Former armed forces member who fought in war.
1517	assassinate	v.	To murder a prominent figure suddenly, usually politically.
1518	blast	v.	To violently destroy or damage using explosives.
1519	blow up	v.	To cause an object or area to explode violently.
1520	bombard	v.	To attack continuously by dropping bombs on target.
1521	charge	v.	To attack violently and suddenly in combat or battle.
1522	conquer	v.	To gain control of land or people using military force.
1523	deploy	v.	To position troops or equipment strategically for operations.
1524	evacuate	v.	To remove individuals from a dangerous area or zone.
1525	execute	v.	To kill someone, typically under legal or military authority.
1526	mobilize	v.	To organize and prepare armed forces for military action.
1527	surrender	v.	To give up resistance or stop fighting against an enemy.
1528	retreat	v.	To withdraw from a dangerous or defeated position.
1529	militia	n.	Civilian military group trained to assist in emergencies.
1530	militant	adj.	Engaging in violent actions for political or social goals.
1531	naval	adj.	Related to military operations conducted at sea.
1532	civilian	adj.	Person not serving in military or police and holding no office.
1533	defensive	adj.	Designed to provide protection against attack or danger.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1534	explosive	adj.	Capable of producing sudden violent release of energy.
1535	rifle	n.	Long gun fired from shoulder for accurate long-range shooting.
1536	fleet	n.	Group of naval ships organized as one operational unit.
1537	raid	n.	Surprise attack against a location or group of people.
1538	hostage	n.	Person held prisoner to ensure demands are met.
1539	torture	n.	Act of causing extreme suffering to force compliance.
1540	occupation	n.	Act of invading and controlling a territory militarily.
1541	truce	n.	Agreement to temporarily stop fighting between enemies.
1542	arm	v.	To supply weapons to individuals or military units.
1543	machine gun	n.	Gun automatically firing bullets continuously when triggered.
1544	evacuation	n.	Action of moving people to safety from dangerous areas.
1545	command	n.	Order issued by someone with authority or control.
1546	AWOL	adj.	Soldier absent from duty without official permission.
1547	ground zero	n.	Exact location where a nuclear explosion occurs.
1548	gunner	n.	Armed forces member trained to operate large guns.
1549	blowgun	n.	Tube weapon shooting darts using human breath.
1550	submachine gun	n.	Lightweight automatic firearm easily carried and fired by hand.
1551	station	v.	To assign personnel to a location to carry out duties.
1552	magazine	n.	Container of a firearm holding bullets for firing.
1553	artillery	n.	Large mounted guns on wheels or tracks for combat use.
1554	nuclear deterrent	n.	Powerful weapon preventing attacks from other countries.
1555	nerve agent	n.	Poisonous chemical harming nervous system, used in warfare.
1556	nerve gas	n.	Toxic chemical disrupting normal nervous system functions.
1557	roger	int.	Radio message indicating received and understood information.
1558	ten-four	int.	Radio code expressing affirmative response or understanding.
1559	martial law	n.	Military rule replacing civil law during crises or emergencies.
1560	discharge	v.	To release someone from military or police service officially.
1561	advocate	v.	To publicly support or recommend a particular idea.
1562	appraise	v.	To assess the value, quality, or performance of something.
1563	assert	v.	To state something confidently as being true.
1564	bias	v.	To unfairly influence someone or something toward preference.
1565	calculate	v.	To form an opinion by evaluating available information.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1566	commit	v.	To declare oneself bound to perform a specific action.
1567	confer	v.	To exchange opinions and discuss in order to decide.
1568	conform	v.	To adjust oneself to align with rules or expectations.
1569	contend	v.	To argue strongly for the truth of a particular idea.
1570	contradict	v.	To be in direct opposition or inconsistency with something.
1571	contradictory	adj.	Statements, beliefs, or facts that are mutually incompatible.
1572	convert	v.	To change form, purpose, character, or function of something.
1573	deduce	v.	To determine a conclusion by logical reasoning.
1574	deem	v.	To consider or judge something in a particular way.
1575	dispute	v.	To argue with someone about facts, ownership, or ideas.
1576	echo	v.	To repeat another's statement or opinion to show agreement.
1577	anti	prep.	Used to indicate opposition to a particular thing.
1578	affirmative	adj.	Expressing a favorable or supportive attitude toward something.
1579	challenging	adj.	Intending to provoke thought or engage in discussion.
1580	credible	adj.	Able to be believed or relied upon as truthful.
1581	debatable	adj.	Subject to disagreement or discussion over its validity.
1582	pronounced	adj.	Clearly noticeable or easily observed in effect or appearance.
1583	then again	phr.	Used to introduce a statement contradicting a previous one.
1584	arguably	adv.	In a manner that can be supported with reasons or evidence.
1585	favorably	adv.	In a positive, approving, or advantageous way.
1586	as a matter of fact	adv.	Used to introduce a statement clarifying or emphasizing truth.
1587	at the same time	adv.	Introducing a second fact that must also be considered.
1588	for that matter	adv.	What is said about one thing applies equally to another.
1589	fight out	v.	To continue fighting until a result or agreement is reached.
1590	confrontation	n.	Situation of hostility between opposing individuals or groups.
1591	consistency	n.	Quality of always acting or thinking in a uniform way.
1592	conviction	n.	Strongly held belief or opinion about something.
1593	critique	n.	Detailed evaluation or judgment of a work or idea.
1594	don't-know	n.	Person who does not provide a definitive answer to a question.
1595	cliche	n.	Overused remark or opinion lacking originality or effect.
1596	to that effect	phr.	Used to convey the general meaning rather than exact words.
1597	okey-dokey	int.	Expression showing agreement, approval, or acceptance.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1598	awesomesauce	adj.	Something extremely great, satisfying, or impressive.
1599	for crying out loud	int.	Expression of anger, annoyance, or astonishment.
1600	sob story	n.	Story told to elicit sympathy, often exaggerated or false.
1601	bark	n.	The hard outer layer covering the trunk of a tree.
1602	blossom	n.	Flower or group of flowers on a tree or bush.
1603	bulb	n.	Rounded underground plant structure that grows annually.
1604	cane	n.	Stiff, hollow stem of tall plants like sugarcane.
1605	crown	n.	Top part of a tree or plant where branches grow.
1606	cutting	n.	Plant part cut for growing a new independent plant.
1607	timber	v.	To grow or harvest trees for wood use.
1608	genus	n.	Biological group larger than species but smaller than family.
1609	algae	n.	Simple plant-like organisms lacking roots, stems, and leaves.
1610	seaweed	n.	Aquatic plant growing in or near the ocean.
1611	fungus	n.	Nonflowering organism growing on organic matter.
1612	maple	n.	Tall tree with lobed leaves turning color in autumn.
1613	needle	n.	Thin, pointed leaf of pine or coniferous trees.
1614	lush	adj.	Dense, healthy, and vigorous growth of vegetation.
1615	pod	n.	Long casing containing seeds on plants like beans.
1616	vegetation	n.	General plant life, particularly in a specific area.
1617	window box	n.	Container outside a window used for growing plants.
1618	pollinate	v.	To transfer pollen to enable plant to produce seeds.
1619	pollination	n.	Process of transferring pollen between plants to reproduce.
1620	shoot	n.	New growth of a plant appearing above the ground.
1621	reed	n.	Tall, grass-like plant growing in or near water.
1622	dahlia	n.	Large garden plant with colorful, ball-shaped flowers.
1623	dogwood	n.	Small tree or bush with red stems and berries.
1624	honeysuckle	n.	Climbing plant with fragrant pink, white, or yellow flowers.
1625	iris	n.	Plant with long leaves and large, colorful flowers.
1626	magnolia	n.	Tree or shrub with large, fragrant, colorful flowers.
1627	mimosa	n.	Plant with leaves that fold when touched.
1628	myrtle	n.	Decorative plant with glossy leaves and small flowers.
1629	quince	n.	Small tree with pink flowers and pear-shaped fruit.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1630	snowdrop	n.	Early spring plant producing small white flowers.
1631	amateur	adj.	Lacking professional quality or precision in work.
1632	authentic	adj.	Real, genuine, and not an imitation of something.
1633	decorative	adj.	Intended to be attractive rather than practically useful.
1634	symbolic	adj.	Representing ideas or concepts through symbols or imagery.
1635	auction house	n.	Company that sells items to the highest bidder publicly.
1636	bronze	n.	Artwork or statue made from a copper-tin alloy metal.
1637	ceramic	n.	Object made by shaping and heating clay or similar material.
1638	canvas	n.	Surface of tightly stretched fabric for oil painting.
1639	mural	n.	Large painting executed directly on a wall surface.
1640	oil painting	n.	Painting technique using pigments mixed with oil as medium.
1641	depth	n.	Quality giving artwork or picture three-dimensional appearance.
1642	finish	n.	Final protective or decorative layer applied to a surface.
1643	harmony	n.	Pleasing combination forming a coherent and balanced whole.
1644	patron	n.	Person providing financial support to an artist, charity, or cause.
1645	sculptor	n.	Artist who shapes stone, metal, wood, or clay into forms.
1646	palette	n.	Board used by painters to mix and hold pigments.
1647	reproduction	n.	Act or process of making a copy of artwork or document.
1648	restoration	n.	Act of repairing an object to its original condition.
1649	viewpoint	n.	Particular perspective or way of considering a subject.
1650	watercolor	n.	Painting created using water-soluble pigments.
1651	impressionism	n.	19th-century art style using light and color for impressions.
1652	realism	n.	Artistic or literary style depicting subjects in lifelike manner.
1653	carve	v.	To shape or create an object by cutting or sculpting material.
1654	mold	v.	To shape a soft substance by pressing it into a form.
1655	pose	v.	To hold a particular position for painting or photography.
1656	shade	v.	To darken part of an artwork using pencil or medium.
1657	opt	v.	To choose one option over another available alternative.
1658	boast	v.	To speak with pride about one's achievements publicly.
1659	pledge	v.	To formally promise to perform or support something.
1660	proclaim	v.	To publicly announce or officially declare something important.
1661	renew	v.	To replace an old or damaged item with new.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1662	resume	v.	To continue an activity after a temporary interruption.
1663	initiate	v.	To begin or start a new course of action.
1664	manifest	v.	To clearly display, show, or make something evident.
1665	originate	v.	To start or cause something to come into existence.
1666	stem	v.	To be caused or produced by a particular source.
1667	suppress	v.	To forcibly stop or prevent an activity or action.
1668	aspire	v.	To strongly desire to achieve or become something.
1669	coincide	v.	To occur simultaneously with another event or phenomenon.
1670	complement	v.	To add something that improves or enhances quality.
1671	constitute	v.	To form or make up part of a whole structure.
1672	coordinate	v.	To organize parts or people to achieve a good result.
1673	correspond	v.	To match, relate, or be similar to something else.
1674	displace	v.	To forcefully remove someone from their home or position.
1675	ease	v.	To reduce the severity, difficulty, or intensity of something.
1676	embed	v.	To firmly fix something deeply within another object.
1677	enact	v.	To formally make a proposed law legally effective.
1678	encompass	v.	To include or contain a wide variety of elements.
1679	evoke	v.	To bring a memory, feeling, or response to mind.
1680	facilitate	v.	To make a process or action easier or more efficient.
1681	foster	v.	To encourage or promote the development of something.
1682	hail	v.	To enthusiastically praise or acclaim publicly.
1683	halt	v.	To cause someone or something to stop moving or acting.
1684	incur	v.	To become liable for an expense or obligation.
1685	indulge	v.	To allow oneself to enjoy something, often excessively.
1686	expire	v.	To cease being valid, effective, or legally recognized.
1687	venture	v.	To risk something valuable or important intentionally.
1688	decay	v.	To gradually break down or be destroyed naturally over time.
1689	consolidate	v.	To combine multiple elements to make them more efficient.
1690	double-cross	v.	To betray someone who is cooperating in a joint plan or scheme.
1691	check on	v.	To check the wellbeing, truth, or condition of someone.
1692	count on	v.	To put trust in someone or something reliably.
1693	presume	v.	To think that something is true based on probability.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1694	toss	v.	To make a decision by throwing a coin in air.
1695	underestimate	v.	To regard someone or something as less important than reality.
1696	weaken	v.	To become less strong, resolved, or determined over time.
1697	concrete	adj.	According to facts instead of opinions or assumptions clearly.
1698	doubtful	adj.	Improbable or unlikely to happen or be the case.
1699	dubious	adj.	Unsure or hesitant about credibility or goodness of something.
1700	inconclusive	adj.	Not producing a clear result, outcome, or decisive conclusion.
1701	set	adj.	Prepared or likely prepared for an expected event or situation.
1702	skeptical	adj.	Having doubts about something's truth, validity, or reliability.
1703	speculative	adj.	According to opinions or guesses instead of confirmed facts.
1704	suspected	adj.	Assumed to have happened or be true without any proof.
1705	undeniable	adj.	Clearly true and impossible to deny or question logically.
1706	or what	phr.	Used to show uncertainty or doubt regarding a situation.
1707	stand a chance	phr.	To have a likelihood of success or achieving desired outcome.
1708	you can never tell	phr.	One can never be sure of a situation or outcome.
1709	hesitation	n.	The fact of being uncertain about a decision or action.
1710	paradox	n.	A logically contradictory statement that might actually be true.
1711	easily	adv.	In a manner that something could very well happen or occur.
1712	supposedly	adv.	Used to suggest something is assumed to be true with doubt.
1713	antiseptic	n.	A substance that prevents infection when applied to wounds.
1714	abortion	n.	The intentional ending of a pregnancy during early stages.
1715	anesthetic	n.	A drug that makes body or part unable to feel pain.
1716	blood type	n.	Any category into which human blood is divided.
1717	crutch	n.	One of sticks used to help walking or standing.
1718	healing	n.	The process of becoming healthy again after injury.
1719	hospitalization	n.	The act of admitting a patient into hospital for treatment.
1720	informed consent	n.	Permission given by patient after knowing risks fully.
1721	injection	n.	The action of putting a drug into someone's body using syringe.
1722	placebo	n.	A medicine with no physiological effect given to control group.
1723	remedy	n.	A treatment or medicine for minor disease or pain.
1724	specimen	n.	Small sample of something taken for examination or testing.
1725	nose job	n.	Surgical procedure changing appearance of someone's nose.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1726	physician	n.	Medical doctor specializing in general medicine, not surgery.
1727	caregiver	n.	Someone who looks after sick, old, or disabled person.
1728	stamina	n.	Mental or physical strength to continue hard tasks long.
1729	trauma	n.	Mental condition caused by extreme shock, often long-lasting.
1730	breakdown	n.	Condition of extreme anxiety or depression disrupting life.
1731	administer	v.	To give someone medicine, drugs, or medical treatment.
1732	cleanse	v.	To completely clean something, particularly the skin thoroughly.
1733	diagnose	v.	To find out the cause of a disease by examination.
1734	vaccinate	v.	To protect someone against disease using preventive shot.
1735	admit	v.	To take a patient into hospital for receiving treatment.
1736	discharge	v.	To release an infectious liquid from a wound or body part.
1737	immunize	v.	To protect a person or animal from disease through vaccination.
1738	stitch	v.	To join edges of a wound using thread and needle.
1739	revive	v.	To make a person become conscious or regain strength.
1740	soothe	v.	To reduce the severity of pain or discomfort effectively.
1741	pharmaceutical	adj.	Related to production, use, or sale of medicines professionally.
1742	deaf	adj.	Partly or completely unable to hear sounds or speech.
1743	glow	v.	To look lively and healthy, often from training or exercise.
1744	blues	n.	Feeling of sadness or mild, temporary depression.
1745	sighted	adj.	Capable of seeing, unlike a blind person.
1746	accountable	adj.	Responsible for actions and prepared to explain them clearly.
1747	arbitrary	adj.	Not based on reason but on chance, often unfair.
1748	decisive	adj.	Able to make clear, firm decisions quickly in challenges.
1749	eligible	adj.	Possessing the right to do or have something qualified.
1750	inclined	adj.	Having a tendency or natural disposition to do something.
1751	indecisive	adj.	Having difficulty making choices, often due to overthinking.
1752	inflexible	adj.	Reluctant to compromise or change beliefs or plans.
1753	preferable	adj.	More desirable or favored compared to other available options.
1754	despise	v.	To hate and have no respect for someone or something.
1755	find	v.	To make an official decision, particularly in a court.
1756	overturn	v.	To reverse, abolish, or invalidate something, especially legally.
1757	put off	v.	To cause a person to dislike someone or something.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1758	reverse	v.	To change something to be the opposite of what it was.
1759	rule	v.	To make an official decision about something or issue judgment.
1760	take a chance	v.	To undertake an action involving risk or uncertainty.
1761	think twice	v.	To think carefully before doing something important.
1762	uphold	v.	To state that a previous decision or judgment is correct.
1763	admiration	n.	A feeling of respect and approval for someone or something.
1764	adoption	n.	Action of starting to use a plan, method, or idea.
1765	award	n.	Sum of money or compensation granted as result of judgment.
1766	consultation	n.	The act of discussing something with a person or group.
1767	conundrum	n.	A confusing problem or question requiring skill or effort.
1768	dilemma	n.	Situation requiring choice between equally important options.
1769	jurisdiction	n.	Power or authority to make legal decisions and judgments.
1770	prejudice	n.	Unreasonable opinion or judgment based on dislike or bias.
1771	resistance	n.	Act of opposing or refusing to accept something disapproved of.
1772	verdict	n.	Opinion or decision given after careful consideration.
1773	have a think	phr.	To think about something before making a decision carefully.
1774	partake	v.	To participate in an event, activity, or organized occasion.
1775	undertake	v.	To take responsibility for something and begin completing it.
1776	be one's thing	phr.	To be enjoyable and well-suited to a person's preference.
1777	acutely	adv.	With a sharp or steep angle, degree, or intensity.
1778	daredevil	adj.	Reckless and willing to perform dangerous actions or stunts.
1779	guarded	adj.	Not displaying feelings or giving very much information openly.
1780	liable	adj.	Possible to do a particular action or be responsible legally.
1781	wary	adj.	Feeling or showing caution about possible dangers or problems.
1782	safe and sound	phr.	Not damaged, injured, or harmed in any way, fully protected.
1783	avert	v.	To prevent something dangerous or unpleasant from occurring.
1784	beware	v.	To warn someone to be cautious of danger or threat.
1785	compromise	v.	To put someone or something in danger through carelessness.
1786	flee	v.	To escape from danger or leave a place quickly.
1787	lock away	v.	To place something in a securely fastened container or location.
1788	alert	n.	Situation in which people are ready to confront a threat.
1789	distress	n.	Situation where an aircraft, ship, or person needs urgent help.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1790	hazard	n.	Something that poses a risk, threat, or potential danger.
1791	gamble	n.	Act done knowing risk exists but also possible success.
1792	peril	n.	State of being threatened by or exposed to significant danger.
1793	death toll	n.	Number of people who die as result of accident, war, or disaster.
1794	rescue	n.	Action or process of saving someone or something from danger.
1795	safeguard	n.	Act, law, or rule protecting against danger or harm.
1796	cowardice	n.	Quality of lacking courage or bravery in dangerous situations.
1797	boldness	n.	Quality of willing to take risks and not being afraid.
1798	madness	n.	Very stupid behavior that could lead to dangerous situations.
1799	AWOL	adj.	Referring to something stolen or not in its usual place.
1800	stock exchange	n.	Place where shares and stocks are bought and sold.
1801	bankrupt	adj.	Legally declared unable to pay debts to creditors.
1802	broke	adj.	Having little or no financial resources available for spending.
1803	stake	n.	Amount of money invested in a business or project.
1804	earnings	n.	Money received for work done or services provided regularly.
1805	incentive	n.	Payment or concession encouraging someone to take action.
1806	hoard	v.	To gather and store large supply secretly for future use.
1807	extravagant	adj.	Costing much more money than necessary or affordable.
1808	fluctuate	v.	To vary or waver between different states or amounts.
1809	freeze	v.	To legally prevent use or sale of money or property.
1810	level out	v.	To reach stable state after a period of fluctuation.
1811	fundraising	n.	Process of providing financial aid, often through special events.
1812	merger	n.	Joining two companies to form a larger organization.
1813	donor	n.	Someone giving money, clothes, or items to charity freely.
1814	index	n.	System indicating prices, costs, or values for comparison.
1815	buck	n.	One unit of US or Canadian currency, equal to one dollar.
1816	nickel	n.	Five-cent coin of Canada or the United States currency.
1817	dime	n.	Ten-cent coin of Canada or the United States currency.
1818	worthless	adj.	Having no meaningful value, impact, or practical utility.
1819	costly	adj.	Costing much money, often more than one wants to pay.
1820	cut	n.	A share in something monetary, such as profits or earnings.
1821	prepaid	adj.	Already paid for in advance before the service or item.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1822	quotation	n.	Statement indicating cost of a specific service or work.
1823	tariff	n.	Tax paid on imported or exported goods.
1824	accountancy	n.	Profession or tasks of an accountant handling financial records.
1825	back	v.	To provide money or resources to support a project or person.
1826	consolidate	v.	To merge several accounts, debts, or funds into one.
1827	accelerate	v.	To rise in amount, rate, or speed rapidly over time.
1828	accumulate	v.	To collect an increasing amount of something over time.
1829	appreciate	v.	To gradually increase in value or price over time.
1830	bring about	v.	To be the reason for a particular incident or result.
1831	convert	v.	To change into different form or usage for another purpose.
1832	deteriorate	v.	To decline in quality, condition, or overall state gradually.
1833	ensue	v.	To happen following something else or as a result.
1834	grow	v.	To become greater in size, amount, number, or quality.
1835	plunge	v.	To suddenly decrease in price, value, or level significantly.
1836	provoke	v.	To cause a sudden reaction or particular feeling intentionally.
1837	rally	v.	To rise again after a decline, particularly prices or currencies.
1838	rocket	v.	To increase suddenly and significantly in amount or value.
1839	sink	v.	To drop in value, amount, strength, or overall level.
1840	stem from	v.	To originate from a particular source or underlying factor.
1841	surge	v.	To abruptly and significantly increase in prices, shares, or value.
1842	underlie	v.	To serve as foundation or primary cause for something.
1843	shoot up	v.	To increase rapidly in amount or price over short period.
1844	swap	v.	To give something and receive another in return mutually.
1845	causal	adj.	Related to the relationship where one thing causes another.
1846	causative	adj.	Being the reason behind the occurrence of a particular event.
1847	consequent	adj.	Occurring as a result of a specific prior event or action.
1848	influential	adj.	Able to have significant impact on someone or something.
1849	irreversible	adj.	Unable to be undone, changed, or corrected once it occurs.
1850	marginal	adj.	Having limited significance, importance, or effect.
1851	substantial	adj.	Significant in amount, degree, or size, considerable.
1852	thereby	adv.	Used to indicate how result or outcome is achieved.
1853	aftermath	n.	Situation that follows a very unpleasant event, such as disaster.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1854	contributor	n.	Factor that helps to make something happen or exist.
1855	downturn	n.	Drop in market or business activities over a period.
1856	leap	n.	Sharp increase in something such as price or value.
1857	recovery	n.	Return to previous or normal state after decline or damage.
1858	side effect	n.	Result of action or situation that was unintended or unexpected.
1859	weather	v.	To experience change due to sun, wind, or rain effects.
1860	weather	v.	To cause something to change from sun, wind, or rain effects.
1861	meaningful	adj.	Having a significant purpose or importance in effect.
1862	rehash	v.	To discuss or deal with something again, often to resolve.
1863	aerospace	n.	The earth's atmosphere and outer space beyond it.
1864	astrobiology	n.	Study of life in space and extraterrestrial environments.
1865	atmospheric	adj.	Having connection to Earth's surrounding air or sky.
1866	cosmic	adj.	Related to the universe and vast outer space.
1867	full moon	n.	The completely round moon visible from Earth.
1868	half-moon	n.	Moon phase when only half the surface is visible.
1869	new moon	n.	Moon phase with only a small bright portion showing.
1870	go down	v.	To disappear below the horizon, as sun or moon.
1871	big bang	n.	Explosion that started the universe's existence.
1872	cosmos	n.	The universe considered as an orderly, systematic whole.
1873	celestial body	n.	Any natural object in space, like stars or planets.
1874	the Milky Way	n.	Pale light band in sky containing our solar system.
1875	constellation	n.	A named group of stars forming a recognizable pattern.
1876	zodiac	n.	Celestial zone where sun, moon, planets move annually.
1877	comet	n.	Space object of ice and dust forming tail near sun.
1878	dwarf	n.	A relatively small star that is not very bright.
1879	exoplanet	n.	A planet existing outside our solar system.
1880	meteor	n.	Rock from space producing light in Earth's atmosphere.
1881	meteorite	n.	Space rock or metal that lands on Earth's surface.
1882	nebula	n.	Glowing cloud of gas and dust in outer space.
1883	supernova	n.	Exploding star emitting extremely large amounts of light.
1884	NASA	n.	United States government agency for space exploration.
1885	mission	n.	A specific operation carried out in outer space.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1886	cosmonaut	n.	An astronaut from Russia or former Soviet Union.
1887	lift off	v.	To leave the ground, especially vertically.
1888	axis	n.	Central line around which an object rotates or turns.
1889	rotation	n.	Complete circular movement around an axis or orbit.
1890	space shuttle	n.	Vehicle designed to repeatedly travel to and from space.
1891	weightless	adj.	Appearing to have no weight due to absent gravity.
1892	abuse	v.	To sexually assault a person, especially women and children.
1893	assault	v.	To violently attack or physically harm someone.
1894	hijack	v.	To forcibly take control of a vehicle, usually airplane.
1895	kidnap	v.	To abduct someone and hold them for ransom or leverage.
1896	mug	v.	To steal from someone using threat or physical violence.
1897	rape	v.	To force someone to have sex against their will.
1898	pirate	v.	To illegally copy, use, or sell another's work.
1899	vandalize	v.	To intentionally damage or destroy public or private property.
1900	arson	n.	The criminal act of deliberately setting something on fire.
1901	blackmail	n.	Crime of threatening to reveal secrets for personal gain.
1902	deception	n.	Act of deliberately causing someone to believe something false.
1903	break-in	n.	Illegal entry into a building to commit theft or crime.
1904	bribe	n.	Money or goods given to induce someone to act illegally.
1905	forgery	n.	Criminal act of creating a fake document or money illegally.
1906	genocide	n.	Mass murder aimed at destroying a specific group.
1907	phishing	n.	Cybercrime tricking people into revealing sensitive information.
1908	scammer	n.	Person who deceives others to steal money.
1909	swindler	n.	Person who cheats or defrauds people out of money.
1910	ransom	n.	Money demanded or paid for releasing a captive person.
1911	riot	n.	Situation where people act violently, often as protest.
1912	fine	n.	Money paid as legal punishment for breaking rules.
1913	bug	v.	To secretly install a microphone to record conversations.
1914	alibi	n.	Proof that someone was elsewhere during a crime.
1915	accomplice	n.	Person who helps another commit a crime or wrongdoing.
1916	conspirator	n.	Person involved in planning or executing a secret illegal scheme.
1917	bandit	n.	Robber attacking travelers, usually in a group.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1918	gangster	n.	Member of a criminal organization engaging in illegal activities.
1919	imprisonment	n.	Act of legally placing someone in prison or jail.
1920	inmate	n.	Person confined in a prison or correctional facility.
1921	convict	n.	Person found guilty of a crime and sent to prison.
1922	capital punishment	n.	Killing of a criminal as a legal penalty.
1923	confession	n.	Formal statement admitting guilt for committing a crime.
1924	inspect	v.	To carefully examine something to ensure proper condition.
1925	corrupt	adj.	Using authority or power to illegally gain benefits.
1926	execution	n.	Act of legally punishing a criminal by death.
1927	raid	v.	To unexpectedly visit a place to arrest or seize goods.
1928	fingerprint	n.	Unique pattern on finger tip identifying a person.
1929	forensic	adj.	Relating to using scientific methods in criminal investigations.
1930	probation	n.	Legal arrangement releasing offender under specific conditions.
1931	record	n.	Official documentation indicating past criminal activity.
1932	goon	n.	Criminal hired to harm or threaten other people.
1933	death squad	n.	Armed group illegally killing political opponents or criminals.
1934	henchman	n.	Supporter of powerful person performing illegal acts.
1935	hired gun	n.	Professional assassin employed to commit murder for payment.
1936	gun for hire	n.	Person doing immoral or violent work in exchange for money.
1937	gunslinger	n.	Skilled shooter, often hired historically to kill someone.
1938	finger	v.	To identify someone as responsible for committing a crime.
1939	diameter	n.	A straight line passing through the center of a circle.
1940	radius	n.	Length from circle's center to any outer boundary.
1941	ratio	n.	Relation between two amounts showing comparative size.
1942	decimal	n.	Number less than one, represented using a point.
1943	equation	n.	Statement indicating equality between two values.
1944	subtraction	n.	Process of finding the difference between two numbers.
1945	formula	n.	Rule represented with symbols, letters, or numbers.
1946	function	n.	Quantity whose value depends on another variable.
1947	factor	n.	One of the numbers that divides another number.
1948	dividend	n.	Number to be divided in a division operation.
1949	divisor	n.	Number that divides another number in division.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1950	mathematical	adj.	Related to, or used in, mathematics concepts or calculations.
1951	minimal	adj.	Very small in amount, degree, or size possible.
1952	numerical	adj.	Represented or expressed in numbers instead of words.
1953	countless	adj.	Too numerous to be easily counted or quantified.
1954	endless	adj.	Very great in number, seeming without any end.
1955	infinite	adj.	Having ability to continue indefinitely without limit.
1956	ordinal	n.	Number indicating position in a sequence or list.
1957	bracket	n.	Symbol [] enclosing numbers or words separately.
1958	segment	n.	Part of a circle separated from the rest by line.
1959	solid	n.	Shape with height, width, and length, not two-dimensional.
1960	express	v.	To indicate something using a symbol or formula.
1961	total	v.	To add numbers or quantities to find overall sum.
1962	metric system	n.	Standard measurement system based on meter, kilogram, liter.
1963	barrel	n.	Amount that a barrel of given size can hold.
1964	hectare	n.	Land unit equal to 10000 square meters or 2471 acres.
1965	horsepower	n.	Unit for measuring power of an engine.
1966	pace	n.	Distance traveled between two steps during walking.
1967	pint	n.	Unit of liquid measurement equal to sixteen fluid ounces.
1968	proof	n.	Scale measuring strength of alcoholic beverages.
1969	quart	n.	US liquid unit equal to thirty-two fluid ounces.
1970	score	n.	Set or group of approximately twenty items or people.
1971	miles per hour	n.	Distance traveled in miles relative to time elapsed.
1972	value	n.	Amount represented or indicated by a number or sign.
1973	variable	n.	Quantity capable of assuming different values in calculation.
1974	alike	adj.	Used to indicate similarity between two people or things.
1975	accordingly	adv.	In a manner that follows logically from circumstances.
1976	allegedly	adv.	Said to be true without providing proof or evidence.
1977	exclusively	adv.	In a way limited to a specific person, group, or thing.
1978	explicitly	adv.	In a manner that is clear, direct, and precise.
1979	frankly	adv.	In a way that is honest and direct without evasion.
1980	shitless	adv.	To an extreme degree, showing intense action or feeling.
1981	halfway	adv.	At or to a point midway between two locations or limits.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
1982	ironically	adv.	In a manner that is unexpected, odd, or paradoxical.
1983	merely	adv.	Nothing more than what is being described or stated.
1984	nonetheless	adv.	Despite a previous statement, something else remains true.
1985	overly	adv.	To an excessive degree beyond what is normal or reasonable.
1986	partially	adv.	To a limited extent or degree, not completely.
1987	predominantly	adv.	Mainly consisting of or dominated by a specific kind or quality.
1988	presently	adv.	At the current time or in the present moment.
1989	presumably	adv.	Believed to be true based on available evidence or likelihood.
1990	readily	adv.	With little difficulty, effort, or hesitation.
1991	regardless	adv.	Without paying attention to the thing previously mentioned.
1992	reportedly	adv.	Said to be true according to what others have stated.
1993	respectively	adv.	Indicating that separate items correspond in the listed order.
1994	seemingly	adv.	Appearing a certain way, though there may be hidden aspects.
1995	simultaneously	adv.	Occurring at exactly the same time as another event.
1996	solely	adv.	With no one or nothing else involved in the action or situation.
1997	substantially	adv.	To a considerable degree or large extent.
1998	thankfully	adv.	Expressing relief or gratitude for a positive circumstance.
1999	undoubtedly	adv.	Without any doubt, certainly true or factual.
2000	utterly	adv.	To the fullest degree, completely and absolutely.
2001	wholly	adv.	Completely or entirely to the full extent.
2002	forth	adv.	Outward or away from a starting point, moving forward.
2003	seldom	adv.	Happening rarely or infrequently.
2004	thereafter	adv.	From a particular point in time onward.
2005	whatsoever	adv.	Not at all, used to add emphasis to negation.
2006	whereby	adv.	In a manner or method according to a particular rule or process.
2007	for good	phr.	In a way that lasts forever or never changes.
2008	all-inclusive	adj.	Including everyone or everything, usually for a single price.
2009	peak season	n.	Time of year when travel is heavy and prices high.
2010	off season	n.	Time of year when travel or business activity is low.
2011	exquisite	adj.	Exceptionally beautiful, delicate, or finely crafted.
2012	exotic	adj.	Originating from a foreign, often tropical, country.
2013	homestay	n.	Arrangement to live as a guest in someone's home.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
2014	staycation	n.	Vacation spent at or near one's own home.
2015	outing	n.	Short pleasure or educational trip, often lasting a day.
2016	itinerary	n.	Plan of route and places to be visited on journey.
2017	tourist class	n.	Lowest class of accommodations on plane, ship, or hotel.
2018	upgrade	v.	To provide a better seat, room, or service than paid.
2019	long-haul	adj.	Traveling over a long distance, often for passengers or cargo.
2020	embark	v.	To board a ship or plane to begin a journey.
2021	layover	n.	Short stop or stay between parts of a journey.
2022	lost and found	n.	Place where lost items are stored until retrieved by owners.
2023	camper	n.	Person spending vacation living in a tent or camper.
2024	suite	n.	Series of connected rooms, typically in a hotel.
2025	sunburn	n.	Redness and pain of skin caused by excessive sun exposure.
2026	suntan	n.	Darkened skin resulting from prolonged sun exposure.
2027	tan	v.	To become darker or brown due to sun exposure.
2028	resort	v.	To go somewhere, often frequently or in large numbers.
2029	vacancy	n.	Accommodation currently unoccupied and available for use.
2030	touristy	adj.	Appealing to tourists, often in a way that is undesirable.
2031	twin bedroom	n.	Room in hotel containing two separate single beds.
2032	upmarket	adj.	Intended for or used by wealthy individuals.
2033	complimentary	adj.	Supplied or provided free of charge.
2034	memorable	adj.	Worth remembering due to being special or different.
2035	Godspeed	int.	Used to wish someone good luck, especially when traveling.
2036	motion sickness	n.	Feeling of nausea caused by movement in vehicle.
2037	archive	n.	Place or collection of historical documents and records.
2038	bibliography	n.	Study of books' history, classification, production, editions.
2039	abolition	n.	Act of formally ending a system, practice, or law.
2040	battlefield	n.	Area where a battle is fought or has been fought.
2041	shield	n.	Large protective armor carried on arm by soldiers.
2042	spear	n.	Weapon with long handle and pointed metal tip.
2043	tomahawk	n.	Small ax used by Native Americans for fighting or utility.
2044	bow	n.	Curved weapon with string for shooting arrows.
2045	dagger	n.	Short weapon with sharp, pointed blade.

No.	Word	POS	English definition
2046	cannon	n.	Large, powerful gun used to fire projectiles historically.
2047	carriage	n.	Wheeled vehicle pulled by one or more horses.
2048	chariot	n.	Two-wheeled horse-drawn vehicle used in ancient warfare.
2049	dungeon	n.	Underground room for confining prisoners, usually in castle.
2050	fort	n.	Building or complex used by troops for protection.
2051	conqueror	n.	Person who forcibly takes control of land or people.
2052	successor	n.	Person or thing next in line to a predecessor.
2053	reign	n.	Duration of time a monarch rules over a kingdom.
2054	crown	v.	To place a crown on someone's head ceremonially.
2055	peasant	n.	Farmer owning or renting small land, typically poor.
2056	primitive	adj.	Characteristic of early stage of human or animal evolution.
2057	datable	adj.	Able to be assigned to a specific historical time.
2058	prehistoric	adj.	Relating to time before recorded history.
2059	ice age	n.	Period when ice covered large portions of Earth.
2060	stone age	n.	Early period of human history using stone tools.
2061	Bronze Age	n.	Period before iron discovery when bronze tools were used.
2062	Iron Age	n.	Historical period when iron tools were first used.
2063	golden age	n.	Imagined period of peace, prosperity, and happiness.
2064	medieval	adj.	Related to the Middle Ages in European history.
2065	civil war	n.	War between people of the same country.
2066	colonial	adj.	Related to a country controlling another territory.
2067	imperial	adj.	Pertaining to characteristics or actions of an empire or emperor.
2068	mythology	n.	Collection of ancient myths belonging to a culture or people.
2069	pharaoh	n.	Title used for ancient Egyptian rulers.
2070	archeology	n.	Study of past civilizations via artifacts and excavations.
2071	artifact	n.	Man-made object from the past with historical significance.
2072	war-torn	adj.	Severely damaged or destroyed due to conflict or war.
2073	ranged weapon	n.	Weapon capable of hitting targets at a distance.
2074	melee weapon	n.	Hand-held weapon used for close-range combat.
2075	machete	n.	Long, heavy knife used as tool or weapon.
2076	spartan	adj.	Relating to ancient Sparta or its austere people.

English
Idea	वचिर
Courage	साहस
Opportunity	अवसर
Confidence	आत्मवश्वास
Success	सफलता
Knowledge	ज्ञान
Power	शक्ति
Target	लक्ष्य
Experience	अनुभव
Society	समाज
Behavior	व्यवहार
Future	भविष्य
Health	स्वास्थ्य
Education	शिक्षा
Respect	सम्मान
Discipline	अनुशासन
Struggle	संघर्ष
Solution	समाधान
Responsibility	जम्मेदारी
Freedom	स्वतंत्रता
Curiosity	जिज्ञासा
Creativity	रचनात्मकता
Personality	व्यक्तित्व
Challenge	चुनौती
Decision	नर्णय
Patience	धैर्य
Development	वकिस
Communication	संचार

English
Inspiration	प्रेरणा
Influence	प्रभाव
Ability	क्षमता
Community	समुदाय
Strategy	रणनीति
Priority	प्राथमिकता
Mindset	मानसिकता
Improvement	सुधार
Achievement	उपलब्धि
Security	सुरक्षा
Tradition	परंपरा
Technology	प्रौद्योगिकी
Environment	पर्यावरण
Culture	संस्कृति
Investment	निवेश
Management	प्रबंधन
Quality	गुणवत्ता
Performance	प्रदर्शन
Perspective	दृष्टिकोण
Resource	संसाधन
Diversity	विविधता
Self-confidence	आत्मविश्वास
Eagerness	उत्सुकता
Dedication	समर्पण
Approach	दृष्टिकोण / तरीका
Flexibility	लचीलापन
Stability	स्थिरता
Unity	एकता
Imagination	कल्पना

English
Justice	न्याय
Citizen	नागरिक
Self-respect	आत्म-सम्मान
Passion	जुनून
Capacity	क्षमता
Attitude	रवैया
Guidance	मार्गदर्शन
Enlightenment	ज्ञानोदय
Ethics	नैतिकता
Specialty	वशिष्टता
Evidence	साक्ष्य
Principle	सिद्धांत
Requirement	आवश्यकता
Property	संपत्ति
Benefit	लाभ
Loss	हानि
Obstacle	बाधा
Alternative	वकिल्प
Condition	स्थिति / शर्त
Process	प्रक्रिया
Perception	धारणा
Satisfaction	संतुष्टि
Humility	वनिम्रता
Empathy	सहानुभूति
Kindness	दयालुता
Honesty	ईमानदारी
Loyalty	नष्ठा
Intelligence	बुद्धिमत्ता
Inquiry	पूछताछ / जिज्ञासा

English
Clarity	स्पष्टता
Efficiency	दक्षता
Productivity	उत्पादकता
Consistency	नरितरता
Alliance	गठबंधन
Agreement	सहमति
Participation	भागीदारी
Competition	प्रतस्पर्धा
Contribution	योगदान
Settlement	समझौता
Possibility	संभावना
Purpose	उद्देश्य
Appreciation	प्रशंसा
Enthusiasm	उत्साह
Bravery	बहादुरी
Perfection	पूर्णता
Result	परिणाम
Importance	महत्त्व
Self-reliance	आत्मनिर्भरता
Goodwill	सद्भावना
Excellence	उत्कृष्टता
Exploration	अन्वेषण
Vision	दृष्टि / परिकल्पना
Accuracy	सटीकता
Literacy	साक्षरता
Prosperity	समृद्धि
Compassion	करुणा
Seriousness	गंभीरता
Clarification	स्पष्टीकरण

English
Growth	वृद्धि
Effect	प्रभाव / परिणाम
Vibe	माहौल / एहसास
Lowkey	चुपचाप / थोड़ा
Highkey	खुले तौर पर / बहुत ज्यादा
Cringe	शर्मनाक / अटपटा
Glow-up	रूप-रंग या जीवन में बड़ा सुधार
Flex	दखावा करना
Ghost	अचानक संपर्क बंद करना
Savage	बहुत बेबाक / तीखा
Wholesome	प्यारा और सकारात्मक
Lit	बहुत शानदार / मजेदार
Random	अचानक / बनि संदर्भ का
Sus	संदग्धि
Overwhelmed	बहुत दबाव में / अभभूत
Frustrated	हताश / परेशान
Confident	आत्मवश्वासी
Curious	जज्जिासु
Hesitant	झझिकता हुआ
Relieved	राहत महसूस करना
Embarrassed	शर्मदा
Grateful	आभारी
However	हालाँकि
Therefore	इसलिए
Actually	वास्तव में
Besides	इसके अलावा
Instead	इसके बजाय
Although	हालाँकि
Otherwise	वरना / अन्यथा

English
Meanwhile	इस बीच
Anyway	खैर / किसी भी तरह
Especially	वर्शेष रूप से
Eventually	आखररकार
Apparently	जाहरर तौर पर
Doable	करने योग्य
Comprehensible	समझने योग्य
Sustainable	टकराऊ
Visible	दखरआई देने वाला
Audible	सुनरआई देने वाला
Portable	आसानी से ले जाने योग्य
Legible	पढ़ने योग्य
Edible	खाने योग्य
Announcement	घोषणा
Investigation	जाँच
Witness	गवाह
Scandal	घोटाला
Corruption	भ्रष्टाचार
Controversy	ववररद

4 — .

1. I don't care.
2. What do you think?
3. I already knew.
4. Don't do that again.
5. Leave me alone.
6. Don't lie to me.
7. I'm not kidding.
8. You've changed a lot.
9. I don't understand.
10. Let it happen.
11. Love the vibe.
12. I lowkey like it.
13. I highkey love this.
14. That was cringe.
15. Nice glow-up.
16. Stop flexing.
17. He ghosted me.
18. That reply was savage.
19. That was wholesome.
20. The party was lit.
21. That was so random.
22. That sounds sus.
23. I was tired. However, I continued.
24. It was late. Therefore, I left.
25. Actually, I agree with you.
26. Hurry up otherwise we'll be late.
27. Meanwhile, I'll wait here.
28. Anyway, let's move on.
29. I like fruits, especially mangoes.

30. She eventually succeeded.
31. Apparently, he is busy.
32. Trust me.
33. Wait for me.
34. Don't forget to tell me.
35. I'm trying.
36. I'm used to it.
37. Let's get started.
38. Now it's my turn.
39. I don't think so.
40. It's fine with me.
41. I don't mind.
42. You're right.
43. It was my mistake.
44. What are you doing?
45. Where are you going?
46. When will you come?
47. I don't know.
48. I'll be right back.
49. Give me some time.
50. I didn't understand.
51. Say it again.
52. Speak a little slowly.
53. I'm in a hurry.
54. No problem.
55. Let me go.

5 — .

#	Phrase
1	That one
2	Then what?
3	Why not?	क्यों नहीं?
4	Really?	सच में?
5	Wherever	जहाँ भी
6	Be quiet	चुप रहो
7	Whenever	जब भी
8	Elsewhere	कहीं और
9	Be calm	शांत रहो
10	Whoever	जो कोई भी
11	Ask him
12	It's done	यह हो गया
13	For what?
14	Take it
15	Got it	समझ गया
16	When then?
17	Perhaps	शायद
18	Not yet	अभी नहीं
19	Get out	बाहर निकलो
20	Take a bath
21	All of us	हम सभी
22	Sometimes	कभी-कभी
23	Taste it
24	Me too	मैं भी
25	Open it
26	Be happy	खुश रहो

#	Phrase
27	Why me?	मैं ही क्यों?
28	Come fast
29	Sit down
30	Certainly	नश्चिति रूप से
31	Yes, sure	हाँ, ज़रूर
32	Wrap it
33	Let's go	चलो चलें
34	Let it be	इसे रहने दो
35	Don't go	मत जाओ
36	Go ahead	आगे बढ़ो / शुरू करो
37	Over here	यहाँ
38	Not you	तुम नहीं
39	Carry on	जारी रखो
40	Next time	अगली बार
41	It is
42	Nothing	कुछ नहीं
43	Move aside	एक तरफ हटो
44	Do it	इसे करो
45	Hold it	इसे पकड़ो / रुको
46	What now?	अब क्या?
47	Eat it
48	So what?	तो क्या?
49	Leave it	इसे छोड़ दो
50	My bad	मेरी गलती
51	What's next?	अब आगे क्या?
52	No idea	कोई वचिर नहीं
53	Somehow	किसी तरह
54	How come?	ऐसा क्यों?

#	Phrase
55	No more	अब और नहीं
56	Hold on	रुको
57	Till now	अब तक
58	So and so
59	Get up	उठो
60	Some day	किसी दिन
61	Run away	भाग जाओ
62	Move on	आगे बढ़ो
63	You won	तुम जीत गए
64	Cheer up	हौसला रखो
65	Give me	मुझे दो
66	Many times	कई बार
67	Shut up	चुप रहो
68	It's up to you	यह तुम्हारी मर्ज़ी है
69	As you wish	जैसा तुम चाहो
70	My wish	मेरी इच्छा
71	My will	मेरी इच्छा / मेरी मर्ज़ी

Modal / structure		Use	Example
can	सकना / सकता है	ability, possibility, informal permission	I can solve this problem.
could	सकता था / सकते हैं	past ability, polite request, possibility	Could you help me?
may	सकता है / अनुमति	possibility, formal permission	You may leave now.
might	शायद / संभवतः	weak possibility	It might rain tonight.
must	अवश्य / ज़रूर	strong obligation or strong certainty	You must submit the assignment.
should	चाहिए	advice, expectation, duty	You should practice every day.
would	करता / करेंगे	polite request, preference, hypothetical situations	Would you like some coffee?
shall	क्या हम / करेंगे	suggestion or formal future	Shall we start?
will	करेगा / होगा	future, willingness	I will call you tomorrow.
ought to	करना चाहिए	advice or moral duty	You ought to respect others.
need to	ज़रूरत होना	necessity	You need to finish the work today.
have to	करना पड़ना	external obligation	I have to attend the meeting.
used to	पहले किया करता था	past habit or state	I used to play football.

Expression		Example
Vibe	माहौल / एहसास	Love the vibe.
Lowkey	चुपचाप / थोड़ा	I lowkey like it.
Highkey	खुले तौर पर / बहुत ज्यादा	I highkey love this.
Cringe	शर्मनाक / अटपटा	That was cringe.
Glow-up	बड़ा सकारात्मक बदलाव	Nice glow-up.
Flex	दखावा करना	Stop flexing.
Ghost	अचानक संपर्क बंद करना	He ghosted me.
Savage	बहुत बेबाक / तीखा	That reply was savage.
Wholesome	प्यारा और सकारात्मक	That was wholesome.
Lit	बहुत शानदार / मजेदार	The party was lit.
Random	अचानक / बनिा संदर्भ का	That was so random.
Sus	संदग्ध	That sounds sus.
Bet	ठीक है / पक्का	Meet at 7? — Bet.
No cap	सच में / झूठ नहीं	No cap, this is good.
Slay	बहुत अच्छा करना	You slayed that presentation.
Mid	औसत / खास नहीं	The movie was kind of mid.
However	हालाँकि	I was tired. However, I continued.
Therefore	इसलिए	It was late. Therefore, I left.
Actually	वास्तव में	Actually, I agree with you.
Besides	इसके अलावा	Besides, we have another option.
Instead	इसके बजाय	Let's walk instead.
Although	हालाँकि	Although it was hard, she continued.
Otherwise	वरना / अन्यथा	Hurry up otherwise we'll be late.
Meanwhile	इस बीच	Meanwhile, I'll wait here.
Anyway	खैर / किसी भी तरह	Anyway, let's move on.
Especially	वशिष रूप से	I like fruits, especially mangoes.
Eventually	आखिरकार	She eventually succeeded.
Apparently	जाहरि तौर पर	Apparently, he is busy.

:2 1 ... ;
,,,, .